

Horrid Murder.

An account from Geneva, dated Nov. 4, says—A double assassination, the details of which seem to furnish the counterpart to that of the unfortunate Fualdes, was committed on the 1st instant, in the suburbs of this city, on the persons of M. Corboz and his servant. Those two victims were found horribly mutilated in the house which they occupied at Plain Palais. It would appear that a long and hard struggle had preceded the perpetration of the crime. It happened, that the same night the murder was committed, two young men, who were returning from shooting, alarmed a man who was carrying a porter's hod, and as he saw they he threw the contents into a ditch. A little farther off they met another man similarly burdened. On the following day they learned that five men had crossed the lake, carrying with them a quantity of effects, and leaving behind a trunk at a public house. The police immediately searched the ditch, and found several things belonging to Mr. Corboz, and among them some bloody linen. The trunk also was filled with things stolen after the murder. Some days afterwards, a well-dressed man, who was travelling with a dealer in wine, ordered the coachman who drove them to call at the trunk at the house where it had been left. The wine merchant, who had previously noticed that the hands and face of the man were much scratched, now suspected him of being one of the murderers, and had him arrested. This was not done without great difficulty, the assassin, who is named Machon, being a powerful man. Since that time Madam B. who belongs to a family of rank in the neighbourhood, has been arrested as an accomplice, and she has promised to reveal every thing, upon condition of her life being spared. A professor of Italian, who is also suspected has fled. Six men and two women besides have been arrested. Machon is the captain of a banditti called "the Black Band." The general who secured him was carried in triumph upon the shoulders of the populace to the town hall at Geneva, where he was publicly thanked by the magistrates, and rewarded with fifty Napoleons.

Implements of Husbandry.

I have on hand and intend keeping a constant supply of the following implements, to wit:

5 different sizes of Ploughs, made of the best materials and workmanship, and on the plan most approved of in Pennsylvania, having no cast iron about them except the mouldboard, and any part of the wrought iron easily repaired by the most common smith without the trouble of taking the plough to him—price from 16 to 17$.
5 sizes of the Cary Plough, made in a substantial manner, and I will insure them to run as well as any that has been received from Connecticut, and at the same prices.

1 of Bennett's Patent Drills, well known in Scotland, England, and some of the Eastern states, as a very valuable machine to sow clover, turnips and other grass seeds. By the regularity of its sowing one fourth of the seed and labour may be saved and no stoppage on account of high winds—price $25.
1 Patent Drill Machine, which opens the mellow ground, and drops corn, beans, peas, turnips, and most kinds of garden seeds any distance apart required—price $15.

1 Patent Hillside Plough, which will be very valuable in ploughing on hill sides, as it is so constructed as in going and coming it will always turn the furrows down hill by altering the share and mouldboard at each end, which can be done in about ten seconds, and by that means avoid the loss of time in returning empty—price 20 to 25$.
1 Double Mouldboard Plough, of small size suited for striking out the ground for tobacco hills, cultivating the same and vegetables, opening water furrows, &c.

1 Machine for Shelling Corn, which for simplicity of construction, durability, and quickness of despatch, surpasses any thing of the kind yet invented, as one man and boy can shell 15 to 20 bushels per hour—price 25 to 25$.
I expect to have a Machine finished in a few days that will sow plaster, or plaster and clover seed mixed, with great regularity, of which due notice will be given.

The following articles will be made to order:
A Drill to drill wheat; a Machine called the Hay Maker; Hinge Helrows, Cultivators; Scufflers and Hay Rakes. Any orders directed to me will be promptly attended to, and thankfully acknowledged by,

Robert Sinclair,

Bergen, John Vanderveer, Abraham Van Sicken, Simon Raplye, John R. Snedeker, John Lot, jun. Garret Kowenhoven, John Terheun, Daniel Wright, John Dazendorf, John Hunter, James D. yo, John Dyckman, Wm. Thompson and Martin Burnet, are respectable inhabitants and freeholders of this county, (with the exception of our) that their characters as good and valuable citizens are irrefragable; that most of them were brought up on Long Island, and are now and for a long time past, have been, independent farmers, and that they are entitled to the full confidence of the public.

WILLIAM FURMAN, King's County, Dec. 30, 1820.

KING'S COUNTY.

A meeting of the republican citizens of the county of King's, convened pursuant to public notice given for that purpose, at the house of Samuel Carman, in the town of Flatbus, on the 7th of March, 1820—John Lefferts, Esq. was chosen Chairman, and William Conseyca, Jun. Secretary. The meeting being organized, it was resolved that a committee of seven persons be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, and report as soon possible; when the following gentlemen were appointed, viz: Jehiel Gazer, Gen. Joseph G. Swift, T. Joraleman, John Garrison, Dr. Cornelius Lowe, John W. Van Wyse, and Isaac Snedeker. The committee having retired for a short time, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we highly approve of the administration of the present President of the United States, and in the persons composing the cabinet of the executive.

Resolved, That we approve the course pursued by the members of the Legislature, in commending candidates for the office of Governor and Lieutenant Governor; and we do hereby tender warmest thanks to those members of the Legislature, who, on the 1st day of February last, in a public meeting held at the Capitol, in the city of Albany, pursuant to previous notice, nominated Daniel D. Tompkins for Governor, and Benjamin Mooers for Lieutenant Governor.

Resolved, That we have entire confidence in the moral and political integrity and character of Daniel D. Tompkins; that we behold in the long-tried patriot and statesman; that it was by his exertions and recommendation during the late war, that the fortifications on the west end of this island were erected, and thereby our wives and children were able to sleep in security, and our property was protected from the ravages of a powerful and desolating enemy; that it was his exertions, in a great measure, that the city of New-York, the emporium of our state, was preserved from plunder and conflagration, and the inhabitants from the fate and condition of those at Hampton and Havre-de-Grace, that we give him our united suffrages for Governor at the ensuing election; and we leave an example to posterity, that ingratitude is not always the portion of the patriot.

Resolved, That we will support Amia Mooers as a candidate for the office of Lieut. Governor, at the first, second, and third Endorsement generally.
