nose who formerly favoured him their custom, may be assured that y exertion will be made, and his onal aid given, to render them perhave never witnessed his desire to e to give him a call, confident that ey do so once, they will repeat the whenever opportunity offers that can be procured, shall be ed to his customers, and the great ttention paid to, and care taken of horses. He therefore solicits pub-

tate of Maryland, St Calvert County, Orphans Co November, 14

n application of Joseph J. Heilen, inistrator of John J. Hellin, late alvert county, deceased, it's order-hat he give the notice required by nst the said deceased, and that the be published once in sach week he space of six successive weeks. Republican, of Annipolis. W. Smith. Reg. of Wills for Caivert County.

NOTICE.

hn J. Hellen, late of deceased, are hereby ert count fied to exhibit the same to the subber, on or before the 18th day of 1821 / legally authenticated, they otherwise be deprived of all benesaid estate. All persons in are requested to make payment

Joseph J. Hellen, Adm'r.

Implements of Husbandry. have on hand and intend keeping onstant supply of the following Im-different sizes of Ploughs, made of best materials and workmanship. on the plan most approved of in insvivania, having no cast iron ait them except the mouldhoard, and part of the wrought iron easily re red by the most common smith hout the trouble of taking the plough m-price from 16 to 17$, sizes of the Cary Plough, made in ibstantial manner, and I will insure m to run as well as any that has n received from Connecticut, and of Bennett's Patent Drills well own in Scotland, England, and some the Eastern states, as a very valuamachine to sow clover, turnips and sowing one fourth of the seed labour may be saved and no stope on account of high winds-price

Patent Drill Machine, which opens ns, peas, turnips, and most kinds of den seeds any distance apart requir −price $15.

Patent Hillside Plough, which will very valuable in ploughing on hill es, as it is so constructed as in going coming it will always turn the rows down hill by altering the share mouldboard at each end, which can done in about ten seconds, and by t means avoid the loss of time in rening empty—price 20 to 25 $. Double Mouldboard Plough, of small suited for striking out the ground tobacco hills, cultivating the same l vegetables, opening water furrows,

Machine for Shelling Corn. which simplicity of construction, durabiliand quickness of despatch, surpasany thing of the kind vet invented. one man and boy can shell 15 to 20 shels per hour—price 23 to 254.

I expect to have a Machine finished a few days that will sow plaster, or ster and clover seed mixed, with at regularity, of which due notice

The following articles will be made order: A Drill to drill wheat; a Machine led the Hay Moker; Hinge Hetrows; ltivators; Scufflers and Hay Rakes Any orders directed to me will be amptly attended to, and thankfully mptly knowledged by,

Robert Sinclair.

pposit. Ellicott's Wharf, Baltimore. l mo: 18, 1821. N. B. The afore air Implements will kept for sales, Jarry Sands, of napolis.

the premises, all the right to rest and estate, of John Willto a part of a tract of las Anne Arundel county, saled rack Manor, which part contains 310 of land, more or less, and was nally on the 9th of June 1818, and a a certain Nicholas Brewer, & John Cason, trusters for the sale of the estate of Hichard Darnall, deceased under a decree of the court of change ry, unto a certain Margaret. Darnal ry, unto a certain Margaret Darnill. and by her transferred, on the sul-of May 1815, unto John, Wicker, and also the following Negroes, towis Davy, Climin, Michael, Frank, Betty Sarah, Judy, and Flora —Seized and taken as the property of John Wicks, and will be sold to satisfy a debt does Nicholas Brewer, survivor of John Gibson, use of Seth Sweetser, and all so a debt due Henry Darnall, for the use of Joseph Daley, for the use of Nicholas J. Watkins Sale to commence at 12 o'clock, for cash, Be ij. Gaither, Shff. A A County.

The Sale of the above property is posponed until Thursday the first day of Marchanatt.

The subscriber having obtained from the orphans court of Prince George's emuty, etters of administration on the personal esclaims against said state to present them, properly authenticated and those indebte to make payment

H. H. HARWOOD, Adm.

ANNAPOLIS COACH. A Close Coach

Commenced running on Monday lat rom our office, next door to Barnums for Annopolis and will continue during e winter. Leaving our office every Monday, Wednesday & Friday mora ing. at ien o'clock A. M. Returning -Leave Daley's Central Tavern, call ing at Mrs Robinson Boarding House every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at ten o'clock A M.

Fare and allowance of baggage same as in Man Line. All baggigt, Seats may be taken at Daley's a Mrs Robinson's.

Jan 11.

TO BE RENTED,

For a term of Years.

The premises occupied by me in the ity of Annapolis, consisting of a large dwelling house, coach-houses, stable, wood houses, a spacious garden, and three inclosed lots of land for pasture or culture; with several other conven-

As the establishment is on a luge scale, it is capable of accommodating numerous family, and of allowing en ral parts of the premises to be rented, by which the original rent may ben duced to a small consideration.

Should no individual offer for the whole premises, they will be divided and rented separately.

I will also rent a veluable farm, & tant about two miles from the city containing nearly $00 acres of clerk land, under good inclosures: The are on the premises, good accommod tions for farming purposes. The had is well adapted to Tobacco, Clover, w small grain Possession will be gird at any time after the month of Jan For further particulars, apply to mea Annapolis, or the Michard Caton, Bu nore. Charles Carroll of Carrollion. Annapolis Jan. 11

Notice to Travellers.

SETH SWEETSER,

Has erected a commodious brid warm and comfortable, with good Clover, Hay, Oats and Liquors, at the Middle Ferry, on the road leading from Annapolis to Ealtimore, and has been at considerable expense in deepning and improving his Ferry, with the valuable Machine of Gen Ridgely so that there is no detention in crossing at any time, the road is as good at the others and the others. the others, and two falles peacer, with hand boards to direct Travellers to the Ferry. It being kept by the proprietor, every attention will be paid to commedate Travellers. N B. Also he keeps constantly hand an negortment of GROCERIES. He returns his Unnka to his conmers, and the profile generally for the liberal encourage tent in the year plan 18

BLANKS

For Sale at this OAce. Declarations on Promissory Notes, as bills of exchange against Drang first, second, and third Endpres, assumpsit generally.

Debt on Bond and Single Bill, Common Bonds, Appeal do. Tobacco Notes, &co. &co.

DESAZINATORAND ROTUREON DANDEN PROTUREDN

TVOL! TXXIX.

lating Williams, to destroy the cha-

Resolved, That we consider the administration of De Witt Clinton as anti republican-that since his election to the gubernatorial chair, he has proscribed and removed from office, republicans of the school of Washington and Jefferson, and has appointed to their places, men in whom we have no confidence-men who, during the late war, advocated the detestable principles of the Hartford Convention, and who called aloud for a separation of the Northern from the Southern states; that although he recommended to the Legislature to charter no new banks, yet, at the session of the same

Legislature, he signed the act incorporating the Franklin Bank; his friends have declared him to be a republican and a patriot-his acts have contradicted their assertions.

Resolved, That we consider it as highly necessary, that the character of our Judges should not only be pure, but unsuspected-that we con-and degrading to the state, for those who sit in judgment upon our fortunes, and our lives, to lay aside the robes of office, and mingle in the party feuds of the day-that we can have no confidence in the judicial decisions of such of our judges as exercise the influence which their

the minds, and in exciting the political prejudices of any portion of the

Resolved, That this meeting now proceed to appoint a delegate to represent this county in the Senato.

rial convention to be held at Tammany Hall, on the last Wednesday of March instant, when John Lef-

Resolved, That John Lefferts, Isaac Snediker, Joseph Smith, of

Flatbush, John Bergen, Cornelius

Stoothoof, and Abraham Vooris, of Flatlands, Doct. Cornelius Lowe,

Thomas Morrel, and John I. Merserole, jun. of Bushwinck, James Cropsey, Evert Sudam, and John W.

Bennet, of New Utrecht, John Garrison, Burdett Stryker, John P. Decatur, John Spader, Wynant Bennet, and Edward Coop, of Brooklyn, be a standing committee of the county, and that they call a meeting of the Republican Electors of the county, for the purpose of nominating suitable candidates to represent this county in the Assembly of this state, when they may judge proper. Resolved, That the proceedings

JOHN LEFFERTS, Chairman.

[O.]
I, John W. Blake, inhabitant and reeholder of Staten Island, do certify, that at the election last Spring,

held in this county for Governor,

Lieut, Governor, &c. I attended as a challenger at the poll. On the first day of the election. when the poll was held at Hazard's, at the quarantine ground, William Van Buren and William Arnett, two officers belonging to the custom-house in New-York, were actively engaged in browbeating the electors hostile to the election of Governor

Tompkins, and friendly to the election of Governor Clinton-said

Van Beuren was so outrageous at me for exercising my rights as an elector, that he said he would give any man fifty dollars, who would tar and feather me. On the last was almost over, and all the mischief was done that could be, I saw

Van Beuren and told him I would soon give him an opportunity of putting his threat into execution; and he then said, he was sorry for what

WILLIAM CONSELVEA, Sec'ry.

ferts was unanimously chosen.

stations give them in exasperating facter of Daniel D. Tompkins.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1821.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED JONAS GREEN,

心心神经变形式

CHURCH STREET, AMERICALIS. Price Three Dellars per Annum.

Legislature of New-York. GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. TO THE HONOURABLE THE ASSEMBLY. [Continued from onr last.]

[M.] I, William Furman do certify, hat John C. Vanderveer, Cornelius Bergen, Elias Hubbard, jun. Garret Janderveer, John S. Ditmas, John ott, A. L. Ostrander, Adrian Vanerveer, John C. Bergen, John Vanerbilt, Abraham Van Sicklen, Sinon Rapalye, John R. Snedeker. ohn Lott, jun Garret Kowenhoven, ohn Terheun, Daniel Wright, John zendorf, John Hunter, James yd, John Dyckman, Wm. Thomp. and Martin Burnet, are respecble inhabitants and freeholders of is county, (with the exception of ir) that their characters as good d valuable citizens are irreproachle; that most of them were brought on Long Island, and are now and a long time past, have been, inpendene farmers, and that they entitled to the full confidence the public.

WILLIAM FURMAN. King's County, Dec. 30, 1820.
[N.]
KING'S COUNTY.

a meeting of the republican citias of the county of King's, conened pursuant to public notice iven for that purpose, at the house-of Samuel Carman, in the on of Flatbush, on the 7th of farch, 1820 - John Lefferts, Esq. was chosen Chairman, and Wil. iam Conselyea, Jun. Secretary. The meeting being organized, it resolved that a committee of people. en persons be appointed to draft olutions expressive of the sense this meeting, and report as soon possible; when the following genmen were appointed, viz: Jehiel ger, Gen. Joseph G. Swift, Tu-Joraleman, John Garrison, Dr. rnelius Lowe, John W. Van yse, and Isaac Snedeker. The mittee having retired for a short reported the following resoons, which were unanimously esolved, That we highly ape of the administration of the rnment of the union, that we the fullest confidence in the ident and Vice President of the ed States, and in the persons posing the cabinet of the exesolved, That we approve the pursued by the members of wo houses of the Legislature, commending candidates for the s of Governor and Lieutenant ernor; and we do hereby tender warmest thanks to those mem-of the Legislature, who, on the Chairman and Secretary, and pubday of Rebruary last, in a published in the National Advocate, aceting held at the Capitol, in American, and Long-Island Star. ty of Albany, pursuanc to prenotice, nominated Daniel D. pkins for Governor, and Benja. Moders for Lieutenant Goversolved, That we have entire dence in the moral and politi-ntegrity and character of Da-D. Tompkins; that we behold m the long-tried patriot and man; that it was by his everand recommendation during te war, that the fortifications west end of this island were ed, and thereby our wives and en were able to sleep in secuand our property was protectm the ravages of a powerful desolating enemy; that it was s exertions, in a great measure, the city of New-York, the emm of our state, was preserved plunder and conflagration, and nhabitants from the fate and ole condition of those at Hampnd Havre-de-Grace, that we ive him our united suffrages overnor at the ensuing electid leave an example to postethat ingratitude is not always prtion of the patriot. iolved, That we will support min Mooers as a candidate for fice of Lieut. Governor, at the glection: he was a caldidate for glection: he was a caldidate for fice of Lieut. Governor, at the last letown, Richmond County, ng election: he was a soldier 1820. revolution, and is entitled to ve of his countrymen; he had I, Richard Wood, an inhabitant ommand of the troops of this and freeholder in the Country of at Plattsburgh, during the late Richmond, do certify, that at the immortal fisme. Resolved, That we view with the tom-house officers, also attended the poll, and that they were both very utmost detestation and abhorrence, active during the said election, and the systematic scheme which has warmly and violently opposed the been pursued by De Witt Clinton, election of De Witt Clinton. One Archibald M'Intyre, and the calcuday of the election, Van Beuren

> I consider him a devil standing in the church.". RICHARD WOOD. Castletown, Richmond. County, said to me, "as to that Capt. Blake,

I certify, that on the last day of the election in and for the county of Richmond, in April last, for the purpose of electing Governor, Lt. Governor, &c. I attended at the poli held at the house of Vincent Bodine, in Castletown, about three and a half miles from the Quaran tine ground, where I saw William Van Buren and William Arnett, two officers belonging to the custom house in the city of New York, actively engaged in giving out lickets, and denouncing all such as were friendly to the re-election of De Witt Clinton-that it was a subject of surprise, and generally reported and believed, that William Van Buren had offered firty dollars to tar and feather John W. Blake, one of the challengers at the elec-sider it as dangerous to our liberties WILLIAM W. BLAKE. Castletown, Richmond ? County, Dec. 1820.

[R.] I, John Wood, inhabitant and freeholder, in the county of Richmoud, Staten Island, do certify, that on the last day of the election, held last spring, for Governor. Lieut. Governor, Senators, &c. 1 was at Bodine's tavern, where the poll was held on that day, and I there saw Wm. Van Buren and William Arnet, both them Custom House officers, belonging to the Custom House in New York; and I heard Van Buren, admit that he had said, he would give fifty dollars to see John Blake, who is a neighbour of mine, tarred and feathered.

JOHN WOOD. Richmond County, Dec. 22, 1820.

[S.] I do certify, that during the late election for Governor and Lieut. Governor, I was on Staten Island, and frequently at the poli, that William Van Beuren and William Arnett, are officers in the Custom-House, and were unusually busy during the election, in bringing up voters, handing tickets, browbeating and denouncing: And I do further certify, that the said William Van Beuren and William Arnet, were violently opposed to the state administration, and that it was currently reported and generally believed, that said William Van Bouren used very abusive language a gainst John W. Blake, and offered, during the election to give any mon fifty dollars, who would tar and feather said Blake, because of his poli-

N. COMBES. New-York, Dec. 15, 1820.

[T.] I tertify and declare, that I attended the poll of the election for this county, in April last, for the purpose of electing Governor, Lieut. Governor, &c. &c .- that while I was there, I saw William Arnet and William Van Beuren, two officers belonging to the Custom House in the city of New-York, busily and actively engaged during the first and last days of the election, in bringing up voters and in distributing tickets-that they used great and extraordinary exertions-that they were decidedly hostile to Governor Clinton, and spared no pains to annoy his friends, by browbeating and denouncing them-that during the two days above alluded to, the poll was held at Hazard's, at the quaranday of the election, when the work | tine ground, and at Bodin's tayern in this town, about five miles from the quarantine ground; and that Van Beuren and Arnet were so abusive, that I thought it ultimately prudent to retire; and I do further certify, that I verily believe, that during the time they attended the poll. they were receiving pay from the while I attended the poll on the last war, and is entitled to a share of last apring election for Governor, who would tan and feather Captain | man to go to certain individuals in the glory of that victory over the Lieux. Governor, occ. Lattended Blake—that Abraham Parker, who the Western District, and to say to which purchased for M Donough an ren, and William Arnett, both Cust shewed me a deed for property, that quarter which was in the gift shewed me a deed for property, that quarter which was in the gift which he said, the said. Tompkins of the general government, should had malle him a present of, the int be given to them. Upon-inquiring of which was hardly dry; and that of said Eaton what were the names Parker said he had just received. RICHARD E. BLAKE.

Richmond County, Castle-Town, 14th December, 1820.

[U.]
I certify, that John Wood, Rich ard Wood, William W. Blake, John W. Blake, and Richard E. Blake, are respectable farmers; who were born and brought up on this island, and who have resided upon it from infancy-that they have always supported fair and good characters for probity, and deserve public confidence. JOHN GARRETSON,

First Judge of the County of Richmond. Southfield, Dec. 23.

I. John Peterson, do certify, that during the three days of the last spring election, or for a great part of the time, George Innes, James Anderson, Thomas Darling, and Benjamin Wood, were actively employed in promoting the election of Daniel D. Tompkins for Governor, and also in promoting the success of the other ti kets hostile to the present state administration. That the above named persons were all opposed to Governor Clinton, and spoke of him and his measures in disrespectful and hostile terms, alleging that he was opposed to the administration of the general government; and that they used their influence and exertions to prevent the re-election of gov. Glinton, and the success of the candidates friend. ly to his administration. That the above-named persons were all United States officers, or employed by United States officers, and that they were then all attached to the custom-house in the city of New York. -That although in the ordinary course of their official duties, their presence at the custom house may have been necessary or proper, yet they were a great part of the time during the three days of the last spring election, busily engaged at the poll of the Fifth Ward in promoting the election of Daniel D. Tompkins, and the other candidates opposed to the present state admi-Dated New York, Dec. 13, 1820.

I John J. Riker, do hereby certify, that Benjamin Wood, was actively, engaged; during the three days of the last spring election, at the poll of the fifth ward in the city of New-York, in promoting the election of Daniel D. Tompkins and the other candidates opposed to the present administration. That he charged Governor Clinton with being hostile to the administration of the general government, and spoke of him and his measures in terms of hostility, was extremely busy at the poil; interfering with the electors, and endeavouring to prevail on them to vote for Daniel D. Tompkins and the other candidates opposed to the state administration. That he manifested much temper as well as in. terest, and was engaged in several controversies at the poll during the election. That the said Benjamin Wood was at that time a: Custom-House Officer, in the city of New-York, but was at the said poll almost as constantly as the inspectors themselves. JOHN J. RIKER.

New-York, Dec. 14, 1820.

[X.] I certify and declare, that in a conversation some time in the month of October or November last, with Major Samuel Cooper, U. States a. gent for building fortifications, he said to me that two men were sent from Washington to this state on or about the last election, to oppose the re-election of De Witt Clinton -that they went through the western district of this state to effect the above object, and that their electioneering expenses were paid at Washington. I then asked him who the two men above alluded to were, to which he replied that he could not or dare not tell.

And I further certify, that Wil liam Eaton, who has a Lottery Office Custom House, without performing in Broadway, declared to me a few the duties incombent on them-that | days ago, that in April last he was in the office of Robert Tillotson, day, it wa currently reported , and | Esq. the United States District Atgenerally believed, that Van Beuren corney, and while there he heard had offered fifty dollars to any man the said Tillotson direct a gentle-of the persons mentioned by said Tillotson, he replied that he only recliected that of Nortons the man who lately encountered John C. Spencer in Canandaiguat said Eaton further understood and inferred, from what passed at the time, and now helieves that these promises were made by said Tillotson, as the authorized agent of the general government, and that the object was to induce the persons to oppose the election of De Witt Clinton.

ISRAEL KETCHAM.

New-York, Dec. 30, 1820. In a subsequent conversation had with said Eaton, I enquired how it happened that Mr. Tillotson was so free and open before him, to which Eaton replied that Mr. Tillotson knew him to be a Bucktail.

ISRAEL KETCHAM. New. York, Jan. 2, 1821.

[Y.] Jonathan Knapp, Esq. of the town of Blenheim, in the county of Schoharie, and state of New-York, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that at the last annual election for the choice of Governor, &c. Jacob Southerland, Esq. of said town, was very active and seemed much spirited in the event of the same, and manifested much anxiety, and to the best of this deponent's recollection, did circulate ballots for Governor, and Lt. Governor, as likewise for Senators and Members of the Legislature; said Southerland was not one of the board of inspectors, but attended as an electioneerer the three days successively; said Southerland being the owner or agent. or at least acts as such, of a considerable part of the land, lying in the aforesaid town. It is the opinion of this deponent, and also the general opinion as this deponent verily believes, that his influence was greater with regard to the election in said town, than that of any other man: and further this deponent says not. JONATHAN KNAPP.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, this 6th day of January, 1331. SILAS BRADFORD, Justice of Peace.

Silas Bradford, Esq. of Blenheim, Schoharie county, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that he was present at the last anniversary election, the three days successively; that Jacob Southerland, Esq. District Attorney of the Northern district of the state of New-York, so called. was present each day of the election, and appeared to manifest a considerable degree of anxiety in the event of the election; and this deponent further saith, that he verily believes, that said Southerland's influence had as great an effect on the event of the other person in the county of Sohoharie, he being an owner, or agent of a large tract of land, lying in said county-and further this deponent saith nor. SILAS BRADFORD. Sworn and subscribed to before me, this 6th day of January, 1821. JONATHAN KNAPP, Com. &c. in and for Schoharie county.

Schoharie County, ss .- R. W.

Rulifson, of the town of B.enheim, in the county of Schoharie, being duly, sworn, saith, that he is acquainted with Jacob Southerland, Esq. district attorney for the northern district, of the state of News York. That said Southerland is politically hostile to the present chief magistrate of this state, and that previous to and at the last general election in this state, was very actively engaged in the political contest-this deponent has generally understood and believed, that said Southerland, previous to the said election, visited almost every family in the town of Blenheim, where he resides, with a view of influencing their votes at such election; and that, as the agent of the late Chantellor Lansing, he threatened those wno were in arrear for rent with prosecution, unless they would vote as he directed-andfurther saith not

R. W. RULIFSON. Sworn this Bili day of January 821, before me.

HERMS. BOUCK Judge of Schoharie Common Please