Anne Arundel County Court.
 On application to me, the subscriber, chief judge of the third judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of James Murdoch, of Anne-Arundel county, stating that he is in actual confinement and praying the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1815, & the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein prescribed, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said James Murdoch having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years in the state of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application, I do therefore hereby order and adjudge that the said James Murdoch be discharged from his confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis once a week for three months before the third Monday of April next) to appear before the said county court at the court house of said county, on the third Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said James Murdoch should not have the benefit of the said act, as prayed. Given under my hand this 29th day of September, 1820.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE
 TO THE HONOURABLE THE ASSEMBLY.
 [Concluded from our list.]

Norwich, Chenango Co. Jan. 1. We the subscribers, residents of Norwich, and freeholders of the town of Norwich, do certify, that we are severally acquainted intimately with Nathan Chamberlin, Esq. in the duty post master in the village of Norwich, and with the manner in which he kept and conducted such office. That Mr. Chamberlin is a person of an unblemished character, and that he was a gentleman of amiable and conciliating manners, and that he enjoyed the confidence and respect of his fellow-citizens. That the discharge of the duties of office, he was unusually attentive, particularly careful and correct. That Mr. Chamberlin, since his acquaintance with him, has shown a mild and temperate disposition, and a uniform and efficient reputation.

TO BE RENTED,
 For a term of Years.
 The premises occupied by me in the city of Annapolis, consisting of a large dwelling house, coach-houses, stable, wood houses, a spacious garden, and three enclosed lots of land for pasture, or culture; with several other conveniences.

As the establishment is on a large scale, it is capable of accommodating a numerous family, and of allowing several parts of the premises to be rented by which the original rent may be reduced to a small consideration.
 Should no individual offer for the whole premises, they will be divided and rented separately.
 I will also rent a valuable farm, containing about two miles of cleared land, under good inclosures. The land on the premises, good accommodations for farming purposes. The hill is well adapted to Tobacco, Clover, &c. small grain. Possession will be given at any time after the month of January. For further particulars apply to me in Annapolis, or to Richard Caton, Esq. at Timore.
