W. WILSON.

Returns his grateful acknowledgments to his patrons for the very liberal encouragement with which he has been favoured for the last 12 months, and hopes they will continue their support so long as they are assured that no exertion is wanting on his part for the improvement of those who are entrusted to his care; and that the public may be the better convinced of this, parents and guardians are invited to call, and see and hear the students of his Seminary examined in the different parts of learning in which they may be engaged. The public are also informed that $6 per quarter will be charged for all students entered after the first of April, accounts will not be rendered for less than one quarter, unless particularly requested at the time of entering; and as it is important that the student of a well organized school should meet at the regular hours, it may not be improper to state that no student can be admitted in the forenoon after 9 o'clock, or after 3 in the afternoon. Previous notices must be given before any student will be considered withdrawn.

THE STEAM BOAT

will continue to run as heretofore until the last day of the present month. But afterwards she will take her routes as follows: On Sunday the first of April, she leaves Easton at 8 o'clock, and will proceed to Annapolis, leaving there at half past 2 o'clock, for Baltimore, and arrive at 6 o'clock the same day; leaves Commerce Street wharf, Baltimore, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, and returns by Annapolis to Easton at 6 o'clock, the same evening; And so leaves Easton at the same hour, and by the same route, every Sunday and Thursday, and leaving Baltimore in like manner, every Wednesday and Saturday. In every route she will touch at Todd's Point, the Mills and at Oxford, if hailed to take and land passengers. On Monday of every week she will leave Baltimore at nine o'clock for Chestertown, and arrive there in the afternoon; and on Tuesday morning leaves at 9 o'clock Chestertown and returns to Baltimore; touching in both routes at Queen's town, to take and land passengers. She will take freights from and to the respective places above mentioned, so as not to incommode the passengers, their Horses or Carriages. Passengers wishing to go to Philadelphia will find it the most convenient and expeditious route, as she meets the Union line of steam boats, when they can be put on board, and arrive in Philadelphia the next morning by 9 o'clock.

All baggage, of which due care will be taken, will nevertheless be at the risk of the owners as heretofore.
