Sir,
The question upon the conclusion of that part of the first article of the Treaty of Ghent, which stipulated that slaves should not be carried away from the United States by British Officers after the conclusion of the peace, having been submitted, by the American and British Governments, to the decision of the emperor of Russia, the British Secretary of State for the Foreign Affairs has demanded that, in the event of a decision in favor of the contestation insisted upon by the United States, the full extent of the demand upon Great Britain for restitution, or indemnity for slaves carried away, should be made known as speedily as possible; I am directed by the President to suggest that notice should be given to the sufferers to transmit without delay to this Department, authenticated proof of the numbers of slaves carried away and of their value, by the current prices at which they might have been sold at the time when the loss was sustained. Specifying the name, age, sex and value of each individual slave lost.

I have the honor to be,
With great respect,
Sir, your very humble,
And obedient servant,
JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

THE STEAM BOAT MARYLAND,

will continue to run as heretofore until the last day of the present month. But afterwards she will take her routes as follows: On Sunday the first of April she leaves Easton at 8 o'clock, and will proceed to Annapolis, leaving there at half past 2 o'clock, for Baltimore, and arrive at 6 o'clock the same day; leaves Commerce street wharf, Baltimore, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, and returns by Annapolis to Easton at 6 o'clock, the same evening; And so leaves Easton at the same hour, and by the same route, every Sunday and Thursday, and leaving Baltimore in like manner, every Wednesday and Saturday. In every route she will touch at Todd's Point, the Mills and at Oxford, if hailed to take and land passengers. On Monday of every week she will leave Baltimore at nine o'clock for Chestertown, and arrive there in the afternoon; and on Tuesday morning leaves at 9 o'clock Chestertown and returns to Baltimore; touching in both routes at Queen's town, to take and land passengers. She will take freights from and to the respective places above mentioned, so as not to incommode the passengers, their Horses or Carriages. Passengers wishing to go to Philadelphia will find it the most convenient and expeditious route, as she meets the Union line of steam boats, when they can be put on board, and arrive in Philadelphia the next morning by 9 o'clock.

Anne Arundel County Court.

On application to me, the subscriber, chief judge of the third judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of James Murdoch, of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is in actual confinement and praying the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1815, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein prescribed, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said James Murdoch having satisfied me by competent testimony, that he has resided two years in the state of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application, I do therefore hereby order and adjudge that the said James Murdoch be discharged, from his confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers, printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three months before the third Monday of April next), to appear before the said county court at the court house of said county, on the third Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending trustees for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said James Murdoch should not have the benefit of the said acts, as prayed. EUTERPEIAD
Or Musical Intelligencer, AND LADIES' GAZETTE.

A Periodical Paper has been published in Boston since April 1820, devoted to the diffusion of Musical and Beltr Letters information. It embraces a general history of Music from the earliest ages—Records the transactions of musical societies—Reviews new musical works—Furnishes biographical memoirs of eminent musical men—Correspondence—Anecdotes of music—Letters instructive and interesting upon every branch of the musical science—Improvements in musical instruments, and the compilation of a register of musical transactions.

With such intentions, it is conceived every topic of interest, personal and general, vocal and instrumental, will be embraced. To what extent information may be obtained in the incipient stage of our enterprise, we will not presume to promise, but by a clear exposition of our objects, we shew the scope and range of our intentions, and while we entreat the voluntary aid of those who possess the talents we covet, we at the same time engage to omit no effort of our own to fulfil expectation, we hope however to be more indebted to the generous contributions of scientific ability, than to our own labours.

A portion of our columns is intended to be exclusively appropriated for the LADIES' DEPARTMENT, wherein it will become our duty to guard the purity of melting maids, in courtship and marriage, and to shew the proper use of the dancing stick. The glass, by day, the whisper in the dark. When music seduces, and when dancing fires."

As the EUTERPEIAD is not intended to derive support from advertising patronage, it has thus far been attended with little or no emolument to the Proprietor, it is an experiment of no ordinary undertaking in this country, and has necessarily consumed considerable time, labour, and expense.

A publication destitute of profits accruing from advertisements must rely upon its subscribers only, for support—The Proprietor would not willingly abandon his intention, unless compelled by a necessity which he hopes may not be realized, a more extensive patronage is essentially requisite in order more generally to extend its usefulness.

The EUTERPEIAD is published semi-Monthly on Saturdays, on a large sheet of eight quarto pages, at Three Dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance. Every number will contain a fashionable Song—Air, with variation—Sacred Song—March or Dance, arranged for the Piano Forte.

Residents out of Boston, who procure ten subscribers will receive a file of Papers gratis. Regular files, or extra numbers may be had by applying at the Franklin Music Warehouse, Milk-street, Boston.
