From the London Courier of Feb. 27...
Discovery of a Murder...
after the lapse of...
sixteen years.
On Tuesday last...
James Matthews, who...
resides at St. Agnes...
was apprehended on...
the information of...
a person named Simon...
Pryor, who resides...
at Redruth, & who...
charges Matthews...
with the murder of...
John James, who...
was his (Matthews)...
brother-in-law, 16...
years since. The...
circumstances have...
been stated by Pryor...
on oath, before the...
Rev. Hugh Rogers, one...
istrates. In 1804...
Pryor was employ... ed as an assistant...
labourer by Matthe... ws and James, at...
a Mine called Crown...
Dale Mine, near...
Tavistock in Devon...
shire. One night...
Pryor and James...
windlass into a...
mine, which was...
about 20 fathoms...
in depth. Whilst...
they were a hole...
for blasting, and...
Pryor was drawn...
up by Matthews...
James then laid...
match to the train...
and called out...
to his comrades...
to pull him up...
as usual with m...
such occasions...
Matthews and Pryor... went up about...
15 fathoms of the...
ropes, when Matthe... ws let go the wind...
lass and desired...
Pryor to do the...
same. Pryor refus... ed to which Matthe... ws threatened to...
kick his brains...
out if he did not...
Pryor again refus... ed when Matthe... ws struck him on...
the right arm with...
a pick hilt, which...
forced him to quit...
hold, and James...
was precipitated...
to the bottom, and...
had his skull so...
dreadfully fractu...
red that he died...
two days after. P... ryor told the fact...
was a smith in the...
mine, and to some...
other men, but the...
story was not...
kept in a small...
room behind the...
smiths shop, until...
a coroner's jury...
had returned a...
verdict of "Act...
cidental Death."...
He was then in...
duced to conceal...
the fact, on the...
ground that Matthe... ws had a large...
family. Pryor had...
never seen Matthe... ws from that time...
to the present, but...
was distressed...
on account of the...
consequences

From the Winchester Republican...
Mr. George Kreps and...
family, of this town...
emigrated last fall...
to Alabama. In cross... ing a river, they...
mistook the ford, and...
the wagon and horse...
were suddenly im...
mersed in the stream...
In the agitation...
Mrs. Kreps parted...
from her infant child...
which was rapidly...
carried down the...
current. At that...
instant a large dog...
which had joined...
the family a few...
days before, after...
the babe, overtook...
it as it was sink... ing, and conveyed...
it safely to the...
shore. The horses...
also regained a...
footing, and the...
whole party were...
saved.

The New York Assembly Election...
Has terminated in...
