THE STEAM BOAT
MARLYNNA.

will continue to run as heretofore until the last day of the present month. But afterwards she will take her routes as follows: On Sunday the first of April, she leaves Easton at 8 o'clock, and will proceed to Annapolis, leaving there at half past 2 o'clock, for Baltimore, and arrive at 6 o'clock the same day; leaves Commerce street wharf, Baltimore, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, and returns by Annapolis to Easton at 6 o'clock, the same evening: And so leaves Easton at the same hour, and by the same route, every Sunday and Thursday, and leaving Baltimore in like manner, every Wednesday and Saturday. In every route she will touch at Todd's Point, the Mills and at Oxford, if hailed, to take and land passengers.

On Monday of every week she will leave Baltimore at nine o'clock for Chestertown, and arrive there in the afternoon; and on Tuesday morning leaves at 9 o'clock Chestertown and returns to Baltimore, touching in both routes at Queen's town, to take and land passengers. She will take freights from and to the respective places above mentioned, so as not to incommode the passengers, their Horses or Carriages. Passengers wishing to go to Philadelphia will find it the most convenient and expeditious route, as she meets the Union line of steam boats, when they can be put on board, and arrive in Philadelphia the next morning by 9 o'clock.

All baggage, of which due care will be taken, will nevertheless be at the risk of the owners as heretofore.

AND ADIES' GAZETTE.
A Periodical Paper, published in Boston since April 1820, devoted to the diffusion of Musical and Belle Lettres information. It contains a general history of Music from the earliest times, and records the names of musical composers. Reviews new musical works. Furnishes Biographical memoirs of eminent musical men. Correspondence. Anecdotes of musical Letters instructive and interesting on every branch of the musical science. Improvements in musical instruments, and the compilation of a register of musical transactions.

With such intentions fit to conceive every topic of interest personal and general, vocal and instrumental, will be embraced. To what extent information may be obtained in the incipient stage of an enterprise, we will not presume to promise, but by a clear exposition of our objects, and while we entreat the voluntary aid of those who possess the talents we covet, we at the same time engage to omit no effort of our own to fulfil expectation, we hope however to be more indebted to the generous contributions of scientific ability, than to our own labours.

A portion of our columns is intended to be exclusively appropriated for the LADIES' DEPARTMENT, wherein will become our duty to guard the purity of melting maid, in early life, and midnight maids, safe from the treacherous friend, the daring spark, the guile by day, the shiver in the dark, when kind ocean prompts thir warm desires, when music sooths, and wine dancing fires.

As the ENTERPRISE is not intended to derive support from advertising patronage, it has thus far been attended with little or no emolument to the Proprietor, it is an experiment of no ordinary undertaking in this country, and has necessarily consumed considerable time, labour and expense.

A publication destitute of profits accruing from advertisements must rely upon its subscribers only, for support. The Proprietor would not willingly abandon his intention, unless compelled by a necessity which he hopes may not be realized, a more extensive patronage is essentially requisite in order more generally to extend its usefulness.

The ENTERPRISE is published Semi-Monthly on Saturdays, on a large sheet of eight quarto pages, at three Dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance. Every number will contain a fashionable Song—Air, with variation—Sacred Song—Waltz—March or Dance, arranged for Piano Forte. Residents out of Boston, who procure new subscribers will receive a file of Papers gratis. Regular files, or extra numbers may be had by applying at the Franklin Music Warehouse, Milk-street, Boston.
