IN COUNCIL,
Annapolis, March 28th, 1821.
ORDERED, That the following communication from the Secretary of State of the United States to this Department, be published in the National Intelligencer, the Baltimore Patriot, the Baltimore American, the Federal Gazette of Baltimore, the Maryland Republican, and the Maryland Gazette of Annapolis, and the two papers in Easton, once a week for six successive weeks, for the information of all the citizens of the State, who may be interested in the subject thereof.
By order, NINIAN PINNEY,
Clerk of the Council.
To his Excellency the Governor of Maryland.
Department of State,
March 22d, 1821.

SIR,
The question upon the conclusion of that part of the first article of the Treaty of Ghent, which stipulated that slaves should not be carried away from the United States by British Officers after the conclusion of the peace, having been submitted, by the American and British Governments, to the decision of the Emperor of Russia, the British Secretary of State for the Foreign Affairs has demanded that, in the event of a decision in favour of the construction insisted upon by the United States, the full extent of the demand upon Great Britain for restitution, or indemnity for slaves carried away, should be made known as speedily as possible; I am directed by the President to suggest that notice should be given to the sufferers, to transmit without delay to this Department, authenticated proof of the numbers of slaves carried away and of their value, by the current prices at which they might have been sold at the time when the loss was sustained. Specifying the name, age, sex and value of each individual slave lost.
I have the honour to be,
With great respect,
Sir, your very humble,
And obedient servant,
JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hurst,
Presents her respects to the ladies of Annapolis and its vicinity, and informs them that she has removed from Baltimore and taken a permanent residence in this city, and that she has opened
A Millinery Store,
In the brick building between the doors of Mr. Joseph Smith and that of Messrs. Evans and Lighter, where She carries on her business in all its various branches, AND HAS ON HAND
A well selected supply of Millinery of the first quality and latest Fashions, in which there are
LEGHORN & STRAW BONNETS, &c.
Ladies who love dresses which they wish DYED, can be gratified by leaving them to her, as she has the means of carrying out all the latest fashions of Baltimore, whose value and quality can be depended on. Her prices will be suited to the times.
Annapolis, May 3, 1821.

THE STEAM BOAT MARYLAND.
will continue to run as heretofore until the last day of the present month—But afterwards she will take her route as follows: On Sunday the first of April, she leaves Easton at 8 o'clock, and will proceed to Annapolis, leaving there at half past 2 o'clock, for Baltimore, and arrive at 6 o'clock the same day; leaves Commerce street wharf, Baltimore, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, and returns by Annapolis to Easton at 6 o'clock, the same evening; And so leaves Easton at the same hour, and by the same route, every Sunday and Thursday, and leaving Baltimore in like manner, every Wednesday and Saturday. In every route she will touch at Todd's Point, the Mills and at Oxford, if hailed, to take and land passengers. On Monday of every week she will leave Baltimore at nine o'clock for Chestertown, and arrive there in the afternoon; and on Tuesday morning leaves at 9 o'clock Chestertown and returns to Baltimore; touching in both routes at Queen's town, to take and land passengers. She will take freights from and to the respective places above mentioned, as not to incommode the passengers, their Horses or Carriages. Passengers wishing to go to Philadelphia will find it the most convenient and expeditious route, as she meets the Union line of steam boats, when they can be put on board, and arrive in Philadelphia the next morning by 9 o'clock.
All baggage, of which due care will be taken, will nevertheless be at the risk of the owners as heretofore.

EUTERPEIAD
Or Musical Intelligencer, AND LADIES' GAZETTE.
A Periodical Paper has been published in Boston since April 1820, devoted to the diffusion of Musical and Belle Lettre information. It embraces a general history of Music from the earliest ages—Records the transactions of musical societies—Reviews new musical works—Furnishes biographical memoirs of eminent musical men—Correspondence—Anecdotes of music—Letters instructive and interesting upon every branch of the musical science—Improvements in musical instruments, and the compilation of a register of musical transactions.
With such intentions, it is conceived every topic of interest personal and general, vocal and instrumental, will be embraced. To what extent information may be obtained in the incipient stage of our enterprise, we will not presume to promise, but by a clear exposition of our objects, we shew the scope and range of our intentions; and while we entreat the voluntary aid of those who possess the talents we covet, we at the same time engage to omit no effort of our own to fulfil expectation, we hope however to be more indebted to the generous contributions of scientific ability, than to our own labours.
A portion of our columns is intended to be exclusively appropriated for the LADIES' DEPARTMENT, wherein it will become our duty to guard the privacy of smiling maids, who court the smiles of their admirers, who by their beauty have won the hearts of the gallant, but who are otherwise unknown to the world. When music shall be found to be the ally of modesty, and the friend of domestic life.
As the EUTERPEIAD is not intended to derive support from advertising patronage, it has thus far been attended with little or no emolument to the Proprietor, it is an experiment of no ordinary undertaking in this country, and has necessarily consumed considerable time, labour and expense.
A publication destitute of profits accruing from advertisements must rely upon its subscribers only, for support.—The Proprietor would not willingly abandon his intention, unless compelled by a necessity which he hopes may not be realized—a more extensive patronage is essentially requisite in order more generally to extend its usefulness.
The EUTERPEIAD is published Semi-Monthly on Saturdays, on a large sheet of eight quarto pages, at Three Dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance. Every number will contain a fashionable Song—Air, with variations—Sacred Song—Waltz—March or Dance, arranged for Piano Forte.
Residents out of Boston, who procure new subscribers will receive a file of Papers gratis. Regular files or extra numbers may be had by applying at the Franklin Music Warehouse, Milk-street, Boston.
