EUTERPELAD Or Musical Intelligen AND LADIES' GAZETA

A Periodical Paper has been publi ed in Beston since April 1820 devoted to the diffusion of Musical and Belle to the diffusion of Musical and Bello Lettre Information. It embaces a ge-neral history of Music from the earliest ages-Records the transactions of musical societies—Review new musical works—Furnishes biographical memoirs of eminent musical men—Correspondence—Anecdotes of music— Letters instructive and interesting upon every branch of the musical science -- Improvements in nusical instruments, and the compilation of a regis ter of musical transactions.

With such intentious it is conceived every topic of interes, personal and general, vocal and instrumental, will be embraced To what extent infor-mation may be obtained in the incipi-ent stage of our enterprize, we will not presume to promise, but hy a clear exposition of our objects, we shew the scope and range of dur intentions; and while we entreat the voluntary aid of those who possess the talents we covet, we at the same time engage to omit no effort of our own to fuitil expectation, we hope however to be more indebted to the generous contributions of scientific ability, than to our own labours.

A portion of our columns is intended to be exclusively appropriated for the LADIES' DEFARTHENT, wherein it will become our duty to "— guard the purity of melting maids.

In courty bell, and/mutuight masquerades.

Safe from the treez ferous friend, the daring sparks.

The gourse by day, the whitper to the dark.

When kind occasion prompts their warm desires, when muse soften, and when dancing fires."

As the ESTERPEIAD is not intended to derive support from advertising patronage, it has thus far been attended with little or no emolument to the Proprictor, it is an experiment of no ordi nary undertaking in this country, and has necessarily consumed considerable time, labour, and expense.

A publication destitute of profits accruing from advertisements must rely upon its subscribers only, for support. The Propoetor would not willingly abandon his intention, unless compell ed by a necessity which he hopes may not be realised, a more extensive patronage is espentially requisite in order more generally to extend its usefulness

The EUTERPEIAD is published Semi-Monthly on Saturdays, on a large sheet of eight quarto pages, at Three Dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance Every number will con tain a fashionable Song-Air, with variation-Scred Song-Waltz-March or Dance, granged for the Piano Forte.

Residents out of Boston, who procure ten subscribers will receive a file of Papers gratis. Regular files, or extra numbers may be had by applying at the Franklin Music Warehouse, Milk street. Boston.
