Ran away from the subscriber, living near Friendship, Anne-Arundel County, on Whitsunday morning last, the 10th inst. two negroes, one a man by the name of JAMES HILL, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches in height, of a dark brown complexion, very humble when spoken to, but, when irritated, daring and insolent. He has a scar on the left side of his mouth, one on his upper lip, and another over one of his eyes, occasioned by a bile. His clothing, when he left the neighbourhood, was a blue coat, dark pantaloons, a light waistcoat, and an old fur hat, the top of the crown somewhat broke. The other a likely boy about 15 or 16 years of age, named DANIEL HILL, a brother to the above mentioned James, belonging to the estate of the late John Whittington, about the same complexion. Has no particular marks. They will, no doubt, remain together. His clothing not recollected. They have two brothers belonging to Mr. John Pumphrey, near Upper Marlborough, Prince George's County.

THE STEAM BOAT

MARYLAND,

will continue to run as heretofore until the last day of the present month.—But afterwards she will take her routes as follows: On Sunday the first of April, she leaves Easton at 8 o'clock, and will proceed to Annapolis, leaving there at half past 2 o'clock, for Baltimore, and arrive at 6 o'clock the same day; leaves Commerce street wharf, Baltimore, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, and returns by Annapolis to Easton at 6 o'clock, the same evening. And so leaves Easton at the same hour, and by the same route, every Sunday and Thursday, and leaving Baltimore in like manner, every Wednesday and Saturday. In every route she will touch at Todd's Point, the Mills and at Oxford, if hailed, to take and land passengers. One Monday of every week she will leave Baltimore at nine o'clock for Chestertown, and arrive there in the afternoon; and on Tuesday morning leaves at 9 o'clock Chestertown and returns to Baltimore; touching in both routes at Queen's town, to take and land passengers. She will take freights from and to the respective places above mentioned, so as not to incommode the passengers, their Horses or Carriages. Passengers wishing to go to Philadelphia will find it the most convenient and expeditious route, as she meets the Union line of steam boats, when they can be put on board, and arrive in Philadelphia the next morning by 9 o'clock.

200 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber the 5th of this month, two Negro Men,

SAMUEL & NACE.

SAM has a very black complexion, hollow eyes, and a little red, high cheek bones, square built, and about five feet four inches high; he had when he went away a pair of boots new bottomed and pieced on the toes of the upper leather, one cotton shirt, some ticklenburgh do, and pair of white cotton trousers, one old white hat. He sailed me a few days before he started, and it is likely that he has altered his dress as he had money plenty, and it is also probable that Sam has bought clothes of Nace.

NACE is about 19 years old, of a yellowish black complexion, round face, on his left cheek a large scar, cut by the kick from a horse. When he went away had on a blue coat, yellow buttons, white linen shirt, marseilles waistcoat, new ticklenburgh trousers, a blue striped pair, one old furred hat. It is probable they are making for the Delaware, as I have reason to believe Sam crossed the Bay in a battean, and I have understood has a forged pass for two or three days or weeks. Whoever secures said fellows in any gaol, or brings them home, or either of them, shall receive Fifty Dollars for each, and One Hundred Dollars for each, if taken out of the state.

MARYLAND GAZETTE

VOL. LXXVII.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

JONAS GREEN,

CHURCH-STREET, ANNAPOLIS.

Price—Three Dollars per Annum.

To the People of the United States,

No. V.

Having in my last communication promised to give you in this, some account of the debts due by individuals to the public, and standing on the books of "Receipts and Expenditures;" I now enter upon that duty.

The number of debtors on the list now under consideration (and recollect that these also are debts due "more than three years prior to the 30th September 1820,") are about three hundred and fifty. This may be properly called the "Civil List" balance sheet; and comprehends moneys advanced on account of "Foreign Intercourse," as well as a few advances made from the War and Navy Departments, and transferred from them to the books of receipts and expenditures. The total amount which appears to be due from these delinquents, I have not yet ascertained: but it appears, from the remarks annexed to each case by the comptroller of the treasury, that, in many cases, there will be a total loss to the United States, and in a great part of the others it is doubtful whether any thing will be recovered. It is true that, generally the balances appearing on this list are not so large as those stated on the books of the third and fourth auditors—no one delinquent on the books of "receipts and expenditures," appearing to owe more than between 90 and 100,000 dollars exclusive of interest. But the thing which ought to excite the most surprise, if not indignation, is, that certain names should appear on this list at all; seeing that some of them have had more than three times three years allowed them for paying the sums with which they respectively stand charged.

As this list is a public document, printed and published for the information of the people; though from some cause or other little known to them, it cannot, I think be justly deemed invidious in me to make a few extracts from it, by way of sample, and as affording you an opportunity of judging of men, who, while they would drain the treasury of its last dollar, without scruple or remorse, would, at the same time, cause it to be trumpeted through the nation, that they were the most pure and disinterested patriots in the world, and that nothing concerned them so much as the welfare and liberty of the people.

The first case to which I shall refer you in this list is that of "Joel Barlow, late minister of the United States to France." There has been, it would seem, a final settlement of the accounts in this case; and the balance due the United States is $5,701 54. The comptroller of the treasury remarks, that "the representatives have been requested to pay this balance without delay." So the matter has ended, and so it will probably remain like hundreds of others, unless through fear of our arousing from your slumbers, and hurling the present incumbents from power, they may take the alarm, and "institute suits," for the recovery back of the money. But you will naturally enquire, how can the public functionaries reconcile it to their consciences, and to a proper discharge of their duties and their oaths, thus to permit the public money to remain (without bearing any interest,) in the hands of the most rich and opulent men, for six or seven years, and the government be obliged in the mean time to resort to capitalists for the loan of money to defray "its ordinary expenses?" I answer, the thing would be inconceivable for one who did not know of some of the corruptions and abominations which prevail at Washington.

It is well known that when Mr. Barlow was nominated by president Madison to the senate as minister to France, he stood charged on the public books with about 750,000 dollars, which he had received to be expended in our intercourse with the Barbary powers; and it ought never to be forgotten how and in
