Captain O'By to from Havanna, turnishes the following particulars of one of the most outrageous acts that have been the most outrageous acts that have been heard of in the days of modern piracy.—
The particular's stated in the following letter, were verified by cap'ain Ricker himself, whom captain O'Bryan saw, and who informed that the pirates, to the number of about 50, have their dweling on or near Cape Anionio. The Liverpool Packet was from Rio Janeio, bound to Havanna.

Capt O'Bryan The-ship Liverpool Packet, Ricker, of Portsmouth, N. H was boarded on the 9th inst. by a Colombian cruizer, and the passengers, 16 in number.
