

AGRICULTURAL.

From the New Hampshire Patriot. ON SALT AS A MANURE.

Within a few years, the farmers in England have paid considerable attention to the use of Salt as a manure; and many of their agricultural writers represent it as a valuable acquisition.

"Salt," says Mr. Hollingshead, "will be found to be the cheapest, best and most durable manure, ever made use of."

"Salt," says Mr. Verley, "is the mother of all manures, as every kind of manure is higher or lower in value, according to the quantity of salt or nitre it is thought to have in it."

REMOVED.

J. WATERS, & SON, Have removed their Saddle and Harness Manufactory, to the shop lately occupied by John N. Stewart, in Church street, where they offer for sale a handsome assortment of articles in their line, very low for cash, and hope to receive, (as they shall endeavour to merit,) a continuance of public patronage.

N. B. All persons indebted to the firm, are earnestly requested to make payment before the first of March next.

REMOVED.

WM. R. THOMPSON, Respectfully informs his friends and customers, that he has removed his BOOT & SHOE Manufactory to the Shop one door below Mr J. Weedon's dwelling house, and opposite the Post Office, in Church-street, where they can be accommodated in the first style, or in such manner as they may think proper to direct.

He has furnished himself with a stock of leather of a superior quality, and has engaged in his service several first rate workmen.

Reduced Prices.

The subscriber, in consequence of the reduced prices of the market, has determined to make a correspondent reduction in his prices. Hereafter his charges will be—

For Cutting Hair, 12 1/2 cts. Shaving, 6 1/4 cts.

Except in cases where gentlemen require him to attend at their lodgings; in such cases his former rates will be adhered to. JAMES HOLLAND, Church-st. Annapolis, Dec. 20
