LATEST FROM EUROPE. By the ship Albion, arrived at New York from Liverpool.

From the Commercial Advertiser.

The latest Paris dates are to the 20th Dec. A conspiracy had been defected at Sammer, a town in the department of the Maine et Loire Previously to the discovery, it appears that there was a dreadful confluentiant. conflagration, the causes of which were not fully decided. It produced great consternation. It broke out on the evening of the 10th of December. Its progress was not stopped until midnight. Five persons perished, and 4 were grievously, and it is teared, mortally wounded, on this calamituate or casis.

The plot above mentioned, it seems by the Moniteur, had been some weeks in preparation. Intelligence of it was com-municated to Gen. Jamin, commandant at Angers, who immediately proceeded wards Saumur with two companies of the 43th regiment The intention was to obtain possession of the castle of Saumur. but in this they were baffled, by the arrest of eight of the principal conspirators atimation is given as to the ulterior designs of these persons

We have glanced hastily over several co-lumns of the debates of the Chamber of Deputies. They are often violent but not Leihaps more so than usual.

that an insurrection among the Janissaries had taken place at Constantinople, which con inued two days, during which the Sultan was beheaded, and the Jews and Christians indiscriminately massacred. This report, however, had not been confirmed, though it will be seen by our extracts be-low, that the Ottoman capital was in an awful situation.

War, and that without delay, between Russia and Turkey is now universally considered as certain. The Russian troops are pouring down upon the Turkish frontier, with tremendous parks of artillery. -Letters from Leipsic, dated Dec. 18, state that an account had been received there of grand council held at Petersburg, and which decisive measures were adocted with respect to the Porte On the breaking up of the council several couriers were patched to the southern provinces of the Russian empire. The winter season, it is thought by Russian officers who have for meriy served in Turkey, will rather facili-tate than retard a campaign in that country. The Russian Gazette confirms the rumour mentioned in our summary yesterday, ders among those who constituted the Rusetan legation under Barin Strogenoff, at Constantinople. Promotions of this kind were invariably a preliminary of Buona parte to commencing a campaign. There is also a la Buonaparte, a formal expose of the military force of Russia, specifying the number of the respective corps and their positions through that vast empire

It appears that the Turkish people will not permit the government to accede to the Russian ultimatum, even were the Divan so disposed Such is their hatred to the Christians, that they will encounter certain and inevitable destruction, rather than make to them the least concession.

The t'ersians continue to advance victo riously The news that Baggad had fallen into their hands is confirmed, and it is a gain said that they have taken Trebisond, and totally destroyed a Turkish corps posted near Erzerum

The Greeks continued to be successful. Accounts from Frankfort say, that the Greek Congress at Tripolizza intend to proclaim a lederative republic, having at its head as president, Prince Demetrius psilanti. Six states it is added, are to form the republic, namely—The Morea, Livad n, Thessaly, Macedonia, Epirus, and the Islands. What Russia will say to Greek independence remains to be seen.

An article from Corfu of the 20th ult. states that notwithstanding the prohibitory measures of the Ionian government, up wards of 20,000 muskets and bayonets had been turnished to the Greek's from the Islands of Cephalonia, Zante, and Cerigo. The fortress of Arta was, it is stated, on the point of surrendering to the Greek force by which it was besieged.

The Greeks are so exasperated by continued wrongs, their minds have become so debased, and their manners brutalized by Turkish despotism, that their atrocities several instances have equalled those of the dreadful massacre took place at Navarim after the town had regularly capitulated Some of the inhabitants were cut to pieces, others burnt, and severa hundreds carried to a bar en rock and starved o death.
Tripolizza also surrendered under treat ment equally ferocious—and when the Jewish nation offered to buy their lives, it was stated, as a retribution for the indign ties offered the Patriarch, their fate was dec ded on, and every soul was to be cruci-By one common consent the whole of the people assembled together, and resolved to destroy themselves by poison, which was carried into effect on the spot, so that not one remains to relate the horrid

The differences between Demetrius Yp silanti, the senates and military chiefs, continue. The latter are all inclined to recognise as Archistrategas the brave con queror of Tripolizza, whose heroic courage is generally admired The choice must however, be made in a general assembly, which will speedily be convoked. A strong division of the Greek fleet covers the ports that have been delivered.

An article from Constantinople, dated Nov. 27, says "War against Persia has been solemnly proclaimed in this capital."

From the London Courier of Jan. 1. We have received Dutch papers to the 27th ult. They contain the following advices from Constantinople under date of the 26th Nov. It does not seem that that city was the scene of those tunults, ending with the alleged murder of the Sultan, which the alledged murder of the Sultan, which previous accounts stated to have occurred about that period-but great agitation and alarm prevailed, which may be considered as the precursors of some signal catas Extract of a letter from Constantinople,

Nov. 26, Nov. 26:

Our fears daily increase—for the last week shavebeen witness of the most dread ful events. The Covernment refuses to lend en earth the advices of the Foreign Ministers. ference with the Reis Effend; on the last fifthesal immediately demanded his passport, and by this means as well as by the interven ion of the English Ambassador, heatlength shtained an audience, at which the English French, and Prussian Ambassador were al so present—but they effected nothing, as the Sublime Porte explicitly declared that it never would grant the demands of Rus-sia - and thus war is inevitable.

"The tokens of dreadful events alreads manifest themselves. The venerable head of the unfortunate Callimachi has been ex posed for two days, and in every street head less corpses are found Night and day we hear the firing of pietols, so that we can count the victims who thus fall. The government again published a strict order yes terday, for every Mussulman to have his arms in readiness, and be prepared to march at the first summons-it is of his army; meanwhile these bloodthirsty people carry on war with the christians, who are the peaceable inhabitants of this

The confusion is increased by the arrival of the elect which is now before the har-bour. The Captain pacha has hung the yards of his ship with 75 dead, bodies, being the remains of his Greek seamen whom he had hanged as a sign of victory, on his ar rival in the Dardanelles."

burgh papers to the 25th ult from which the following are extracts:

"St Petersburg, Dec.

Accounts have lately been received from Lieut. Gen. Weliammow, Gov of Georgia, dated Tiflis, Nov 7, according to which the Persians who have invaded Asiatic Turkey, had really made themselves masters of the city of Erzerum, after defeating the Pacha of Bagdad, who attempted, in vain, to defend It is said that there were many French officers in the Persian army, with which Prince Mirza, the second son of the Schah,

"Vienna, Dec. 18.
The rumours which have been in circula tion here, during eight days past, respecting the state of things in Constantinople, are not as yet confirmed. That capital presents a most alarming aspect—the excesses and assassinations continue in despite of the orders of the Divan, and other Ministers, who recommend to the Porte a more rigorous vigilance. Impartial persons compare the present state of things to that of the month of April 19st, when the massacre of the Greeks commenced But are objects of the fury of Musselmen-Christians are also ill treated. On the 23c inst. M Chapper, attached to the English Embassy, and exercising the functions of Drogoman, was assaulted in the open street, & pursued to the very door of his residence,

Thefollowing message was received:
Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have received your message of this day, notifying them that your house propose to enter upon the examination of tnesses on the charge against Judge Shri-The senate have seriously reflected upon the proper course to be pursued by them in the discharge of the painful duty, in which you have invited them to participate

They are of opinion that the constitution contemplates a separate and distinct investicontemplates a separate and distinct investigation into the subject by each hranch of the galature, that the privilege of the party charged secures to him a distinct investigation before each branch, and the best mode observating to the senate the means of deciding properly on the occasion, requires that the proceedings should be concluded before each branch independently and separately.
