Managements of Pigs.

The following items on the management of Pigs, are extracted from the pen of one of the most accomplished gentlemen, and system. atic farmers, in the state of Massachusetts .- May 29, 1819.

"I have sent by the bearer, the three pigs for your Baltimore friend, the white male and female, are the Byfield breed; the spotted female Byfield and Bedford, with a small cross of the Bakewell-the latter I consider, as having an equal disposition or propensity to fatten, with a hardiness of constitution that is wanting in the Byfield breed. I have thought them better nurses, and more prolific-you wish me to give you my method of treating them which I presume is similar to that of persons generally in this part of the country, and is as follows, viz after they are farrowed, the dams are fed with the wash or swill from my house and from the house occupied by the men that work on my farm, mix'd with boil'd potato.s, skim milk and butter milk, stirring in meal and bran, when the liquor is quite hot. Good wheat Bran Shorts, I prefer very much. When five or six weeks o'd (sometimes sooner) they are taken from the dams, when they are fed poincipally with skim milk, butter milk, and bran or shorts occasionally mixing some of the pot liquor, as it is often called-once a fortnight they are wash'd clean with the soap suds left on washing days; that practice is continued for three or four months, when they become too large to handle with ease, after that, during showers in warm weather they have fine wood ashes sifted on them, and thrown between their legs, which becoming wet makes a ley that induces a disposition to rub themselves clean & white, keeps the skin loose, and very much promotes the growth-they are well litter'd with straw in their lodging rooms, kept dry, and in cold weather shut so close as to keep out the cold wind and rain-they are fed regularly, made to eat clean, never gorg'd-their food salted when not composed in part of pot liquor, in which salt Beef and Pork have been boiled; after I commence fattening them in the fall of the year, they have once a month a table-spoonful of Brimstone pounded fine, to each pig, and a month or six weeks before they are killed, they are fedwith scalded Indian meal thick as for hoe cakes, and hard and whole corn, which serves to harden the pork, and is thought to improve the quality. In summer and during the season for weeds, they are fed with them, and occasionally with lettuce, of which they are fond, this serves to keep them in health and promote their growth. I remain respectfully, your humble servant, G***** P***

From the American Farmer. To prevent Dogs from Sucking Eggs. Take of emetic tartar from four to eight grains, according to the age and strength of your dog, break the end of an egg, put in the tartar and mix it-if your dog is disposed to suck eggs, he will readily eat it. Confine him from cold water-the next day repeat the dose, which continue to do on each succeeding day until he refuses it, which will probably be the third or fourth day. After this, I have never known them guilty of the like offence-instead of being the destroyer of our good wives poultry, the same dog becomes their faithful protector. Will you, or some of your correspondents give us information of the best course to pursue to prevent hogs from beind infested with vermin, and how to destroy the vermin when they are infested.

CATALPA OR CATAWBA WOOD.

Mr. Skinner.

Dear Sir,-Do you know any thing, or can you obtain authentic information from any one of your numerous correspondents, concerning the durability of the Catalpa or Catawba wood, when put in the ground? I have heard, and on good authority, of a gate post of this tree in Vincennes, Indiana, which has been in the ground for forty years or more, and is yet in a sound state. If this be the fact, or if it will last as long as Black Locust, Mulberry or cedar, it is certainly better worth cultivation as it grows much faster. I should judge, in favourable situa. tions the tree would grow sufficient ly large in ten years, from the seed, to answer the ordinary purposes of post and railing.

Very respectfully. A SUBSCRIBER. Hopkinsville. Kentucky, January 8, 1821.

From the London Farmer's Journal RECEIPT FOR MAKING GREEN GRAPEWINE.

Lewishom Nursery, Oct. 7, 1821. Sir, Having for a number of years been very fortunate in making British Wines, I herewith send you a receipt for making Green Grape Wine, which is particularly applicable this late season, as there are many farmers, and others in the country, who have large quantities of grapes that will not ripen, and which they will find, by making use of them in this way, will turn to a very good account. Care must be taken to have the casks, bottles, &c. very sweet and clean, and I have no hesitation in pronouncing this the finest British wine that can be made.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, JOHN WILMOTT.

To make Champagne from Grapes, requal to Foreign.

Gather the grapes when they are ust turning, or about half ripe; pound them in a tub, and to every quart of berries so pounded, put two quarts of water-let it stand in a mash-tub for fourteen days, when it is to be drawn off-and to every gallon of liquor put three pounds of lump sugar: when dissolved, cask it, and after working, bung it down. In about six months it will be fit to drink, when it should be bottled and tied down, or wired, if it is intended to be kept more than one

To save Cucumbers from Bugs. Set out an onion, or set up an onion stalk, in each hill of cucumbers, and the streaked bug will keep away.

To destroy the Canker Worm.

Mow sweet elder, as it is called, or common elder, and place the same on the branches of the trees infest. ed with them, and they will immediately leave the branches.

Shearing of Sheep.

The following method has been found effectual. Immediately after the sheep are shorn, soak the roots of the wool that remains all over with oil or butter and brimstone; and three or four days afterwards. wash them with salt and water, and the wool of the next season will not only be much softer and finer, but the quality will be greatly enlarged; and the sheep will neither be troubled with the scab or vermin that

Palestine · Mission.

Iltis well known to all Christians, that we wonderful birth of our Saviour, the tenes of his life, and his death, were in rerusalem. The accounts of him in the gosels, and throughout the New Testament, e read with great interest by every pious rson; yet there are many who regard em merely as historical facts—and the ose of eighteen hundred years seem to we done away, in the minds of some, the ree of the important truths that are found the Gospel accounts—no traveller from rown country having visited the particu-places there mentioned, so as to give a scription of the different spots of ground here most of the transactions of our Sa-our's life occurred. The mission to Pa-tine is calculated to revive a more lively collection of these wonderful scenes; and r. Levi Parsons, one of the missionaries, native of New England, if not of New ampshire, has given in his journal so mite a detail of all his discoveries and visit Jerusalem, that the transactions eighteen naturies ago seem to be brought down to he present day. We cannot serve our reaers with a more interesting and instructive relation on any subject, than the following from his Journal! and while they re reading it, we wish them to bear in hind that it is given by one of their fellow itizens, and during the last year.]

After service of 30 minutes, I returned, and presented my letters to Procopius,—Conversation was directed to the exertions which the Protestants are making to pro-mote the diffusion of the Holy Scriptures. They replied, "We believe the Protestants to be our friends." In a few moments, I was conducted to the room, which had been put in readiness for me, by the request of the Russian consul. It is near to the Holy Sepulchre, and contains many convenient apartments. My trunks had arrived in safety. After breakfast, Procopius called upon me, repealed his willingness to aid me to the extent of his power, and bade me welcome to all the privileges of the monastery. The day passed with great tradquility. At three o'clock, went to the Greek church, and heard selections read from the Psalms of David. In this city the pions Psalmist breathed out his soul to his God, and to our God. Here he wept for sinners. Rivers of water run down mineeyes, because they keep not thy law." An Armenian from Smyrna invited me to visit the principal Armenian-church. It is situated near to Jaffa gate; is large, and elegantly furnished. We were conducted to the spot, where, they say, was interred the head of John the Baptist, (others say, of St. James the Great.) My Armenian attendant, after making the cross, bowed and kissed the stone, which concealed, as he the't, the sacred deposit. From the church I was conducted to the spartment of the Patriarch.
