This is to certify, that my son, Philip Hammond, and Mr. John N. Stewart, came to my House on the 27th or 28th of Des last past, there was also several of my neighbours present, when a conversation took place between my son Philip and Mr. Stewart, especting Mr. Stewart's horse, Philip observed, that when Mr. Stewart rode home with him, that the said Stewart's horse were so lame that he was afraid that the bares will had to cert him. An apology is due to the public for at tempting to to restall public opinion on a matter which will in all probability become the subject of judicial investigation; but massinich as Mr. John N. Siewart has thought proper to exhibit, what he is pleased to call a complete defence to the charges alleged against him before the elders of the Church of which he is a member, I deem Church of which he is a member, I deem it my duty in justice to myself, not to suffer any improper impression to be made on the public mind by postponing my proof until the time of trial, we it might be the means of creating aspicion, that I had no evidence whatever. An will therefore be pleased to publish the enclosed certificates and affidavits, and you may be assured, that I shall take no further notice of this pusiness except before a four tail in the content and into the property and into the content and t att's horse were so lame that he was afraid that the horse would not carry him to his house.
