${f Valuable\ Land\ for\ Sale.}$

By virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery of Maryland, will be disposed of at public sale, on Tues day the 21st day of May next, at 12 o'clock, AM. if fair, if not on the next fair day thereafter, the farm of the late John Gibson, Esq. called

"The Seven Mountains."

This property is situated in Anne-Arundel county, on the north side of Magothy river, and immediately on the shore of the Chesapeake Bay, a bout seventeen miles from Baltimore, and eight from Annapolis. It is one of the most desirable abodes in Maryland either for one who derives his support from agricultural pursuits, or a man of fortune who is desirous of obtaining an elegant rural retreat -The soil is fertile, and abundantly stocked with wood; and is peculiarly well adapted to the culture of Indian Corn and Tobacco, and all the products of a garden. It bears every variety of the best and earliest vegeta. bles, and its proximity to Baltimore, and the convenient water transportation which its situation affords, give it advantages as a market farm that are possessed by few others. It abounds with delicious grapes, and the choicest grafted fruit trees in full bearing — These have been collected with great care, and are now in the most flourishing condition. The water by which the place is almost surrounded, and a fish pond that has been made at considerable expense, afford during the summer season, fish and crabs in the ut most abundance; and in the winter the wild fowl which always throng the shores furnish a plentiful supply for the table of the proprietor, and at the same time a very lucrative article of traffic. The farm is well supplied with the ordinary game of the country, Patridges. Pheasants, &c. and there are also on it a few fallow deer. Its situation is truly delightful, It commands a noble view of the Chesapeake on the east; and on the south & west the Magothy river, and the country on the opposito shore presents a beautiful landscape. The improvements are a com modious frame dwelling house, servants' house, ice house, stables, &c.

This estate will, for the accommodation of purchasers, be divided into three parcels of about two hundred and fifty acres out, every part being bounded on on sale by the water.
