At the Annual Convention of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, held in the City of Baltimore on the first Monday of June, 1822, the undersigned were appointed, a Committee to aid in the prosecution of all Graduates, who practising Medicine in this State, have not obtained a License in the manner directed by the act incorporating the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, and the Supplement thereto; and the said Committee were directed "to hold a correspondence with the Censors throughout the state for the completion of this object."
By the IVth Art. of the act of incorporation examiners were appointed "whose duty it shall be to grant licenses to such medical and chirurgical gentlemen, as they either upon a full examination, or upon the production of diplomas from some respectable college, may judge adequate to commence the practice of the Medical and Chirurgical Arts, each person so obtaining a certificate to pay a sum not exceeding ten dollars."

Notice is therefore given to all graduates who have commenced the practice of Medicine and Surgery in the State of Maryland without a License, to make application for the same forthwith, to the Medical Board of Examiners either at Easton, or Baltimore.

It will be the imperious duty of the Committee, in conjunction with the Censors of the Faculty throughout the state, to prosecute all such graduates, who fail to comply with the requisitions contained in the act incorporating the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of the State of Maryland.

The University of Maryland.

ST. JOHN'S AND WASHINGTON COLLEGES.

The reputation and welfare of Maryland have been deeply afflicted by the fall of this University; and although it is the common duty of every man in the state to endeavour to reconstruct it, there seems to be something more than an ordinary obligation upon those who claim to be the Alumni of the Institution, to co-operate, and to make one vigorous, united effort, to resuscitate and to restore it to its ancient usefulness and fame, that they may by the special means of transmitting to their descendants, and to posterity generally, the benefits of an Institution which the wisdom of their forefathers had created for them.
It is therefore respectfully suggested to the Alumni of this University, wherever residing, to hold a meeting on the first Friday in December next, at St. John's College in Annapolis, (by permission of the Visitors and Governors,) to take into consideration the practicability of reviving this University, the plan, and the ways and means necessary to effect it.

As the Chancellor of the state is upon the spot, and is always one of the Visitors & Governors of the University, it is also suggested that he be invited to attend as President of the Convention.

Should this proposition meet with the approbation of those to whom it is directed, it may be useful to insert short paragraphs in the several newspapers of the state, and of the District of Columbia, favourable to the plan, and urging a general attendance at the Convention—as it is not only desirable that our once distinguished and venerable "Alma Mater," should be re-animated and restored by her Sons, but particularly so that they should form a Brotherhood of every surviving member of the family to undertake the noble work, to which gratitude and duty equally invite.

ALUMNUS.
P. S. The Editors of newspapers throughout the state, and in the District of Columbia, are requested to give this publication a few insertions in their respective Journals.

BURLESQUE IMITATION.

The following burlesque imitation of the modern style of ballad writing is taken from London Magazine, for March, 1822.
FAITHLESS SALLY BROWN.
AN OLD BALLAD.
Young Ben he was a nice young man,
A carpenter by trade;
And he fell in love with Sally Brown,
That was a lady's maid.
But as they fetched a walk one day,
They met a press gang crew;
And Sally she did lair away,
Whilst Ben he was bro't to.

The Boatman swore with wicked words,
Enough to shock a saint,
That tho' she did seem in a fit,
'Twas nothing but a feint.
Come girl, said he, hold up your head,
He'll be as good as me;
For when your swain is in our boat,
A boatman he will be.

So when they'd made their game of her,
And taken off her elf,
She roused and found she only was
A coming to herself.
And is he gone, and is he gone?
She cried, and wept outright;
Then I will to the water side,
And see him out of sight.

A waterman came up to her,
Now, young woman, said he,
If you weep so, you will make
Eye water in the sea.
Alas! they've taken my beau, Ben,
To sail with old Denbow;
And her woe began to run afresh,
As if she had said gee woe!

Says he, they've only taken him
To the tender ship you see:
The Tender, cried poor Sally Brown,
What a hard ship that must be!
O' would I were a mermaid now,
For then I'd follow him,
But oh! I'm not a fish woman,
And so I cannot swim.

Alas! I was not born beneath
The Virgin and the Scales,"
So I must curse my cruel stars,
And walk about in Wales.
Now Ben had sail'd to many a place
That's underneath the world;
But in two years the ship came home
And all the sails were fur'd!

But when he call'd on Sally Brown,
To see how she went on,
He found she'd got another Ben,
Whose christian name was John.
O Sally Brown, O Sally Brown,
How could you serve me so,
I've met with many a breeze before,
But never such a blow!

Then reading on his 'bacco box,
He heav'd a heavy sigh,
And then began to eye his pipe,
And then to pipe his eye.
And then he tried to sing "All's Well,"
But could not, tho' he tried,
His head was turn'd and so he chew'd
His pipe till he died.

His death, which happen'd in his birth,
At forty odd years old,
They went and told the sexton, and
The sexton toll'd the bell.

THE PRESENT MOMENT.

From the pen of Mr. Montgomery, of Sheffield.
At every moment, every breath,
Life trembles on the brink of death;
A taper's flame, that upward turns,
While downward to the dust it burns.
A moment ush'd us to birth,
A moment of the commonwealth of earth;
Moment by moment years are past,
And one ere long will be our last.
Twixt that which struck us into light,
And that which shall eclipse in night,
There is a point no eye can see,
Yet on it hangs eternity.
God for our portion then we choose,
Or him forever then refuse;
Where is that point of woe or bliss?
Gone by—to come—no, here;—'tis this.
This is the moment, which begins;
Now let us cast away our sins;
This is the moment, as it ends,
Our pain or paradise depends.
The past is dead, the future not;
The present is our utmost lot;
O God! henceforth our hearts incline
To seek no other way but thine.

WOMAN.

'Not she with trait'rous kiss her Saviour stung,
Not she denied him with unholy tongue;
She, while Apostles shrank, could danger brave,
Last at his cross, and earliest at his grave.'

ON MODESTY.

As lamps burn silent with unconscious light,
So modest ease in beauty shines most bright;
Unstinging pharise with edge less fall,
And she who means no mischief does it all.

HOW TO BECOME CONSEQUENTIAL.

A brow austere, a circumspective eye,
A frequent shrug of the shoulders,
A nod significant, a stately gait,
A blustering manner, and a tone of weight,
A smile sarcastic, and expressive stare,
Adapt all these at time and place will bear,
Then rest assur'd that those of little sense,
Will set you down—A man of Consequence.
