AN ACT

To alter and change such parts of the constitution and form of government, as relate to the division of Anne-Arundel county into election districts, and to change the place of holding elections in the second election district of said county.
[Passed Feb 4, 1822]

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of the constitution and form of government which relates to fixing the place of holding the elections in the second election district of Anne-Arundel county, be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That the election shall be held in the said election district, at such places as shall hereafter from time to time be provided by law, for the holding thereof.

3. And be it enacted, That the words "and the electors of the senate of this state" in the third section of the act confirmed at December session eighteen hundred and seventeen, entitled, "An act to alter and change such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the division of Anne-Arundel county into election districts, and to change the place of holding elections in the second election district of said county," be and the same are hereby rendered null, void, and of no effect.

4. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly, after the next election of Delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government direct, that in such case, this act, and the alterations and amendments to the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary notwithstanding.

The University of Maryland.

ST. JOHN'S AND WASHINGTON COLLEGES.

The reputation and welfare of Maryland have been deeply affected by the fall of this University; and although it is the common duty of every man in the state to endeavour to re-construct it, there seems to be something more than an ordinary obligation upon those who claim to be the Alumni of the Institution, to co-operate, and to make one vigorous, united effort, to re-ascend and to restore it to its ancient usefulness and fame, that they may be the special means of transmitting to their descendants, and to posterity generally, the benefits of an Institution which the wisdom of their forefathers had created for them.

It is therefore respectfully suggested to the Alumni of this University, wherever residing, to hold a meeting on the first Friday in December next, at St. John's College in Annapolis, (by permission of the Visitors and Governors,) to take into consideration the practicability of reviving this University, the plan, and the ways and means necessary to effect it.

As the Chancellor of the state is upon the spot, and is always one of the Visitors & Governors of the University, it is also suggested that he be invited to attend as President of the Convention.

Should this proposition meet with the approbation of those to whom it is directed, it may be useful to insert short paragraphs in the several newspapers of the state, and of the District of Columbia, favourable to the plan, and urging a general attendance at the Convention—as it is not only desirable that our once distinguished and venerable Alma Mater should be re-animated and restored by her Sons, but particularly so that they should form a Brotherhood of every surviving member of the family, to undertake the noble work, to which gratitude and duty equally invite.

P. S. The Editors of newspapers throughout the state, and in the District of Columbia, are requested to give this publication a few insertions in their respective Journals.

A Farm for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale a tract of land lying on South River Neck, containing upwards of 300 acres. The land, (from the subscriber's own experience) is susceptible of being brought to a high state of improvement, by the application of plow, and manure, a considerable part of this land is adapted to the growth of wheat, and other grain, and other parts to the cultivation of tobacco. There is a small dwelling house upon the premises, (which will receive an additional tenant to accommodate a large family by the expiration of the present year, at which time possession will be given;) also other out houses suitable for the purposes of farming and planting.

It is deemed unnecessary to give a further description of this land, as it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will survey the premises before they determine to buy. This land will be sold on very accommodating terms; the purchaser, by paying a part in cash, can have their own time to pay the balance of the purchase money. Persons wishing to purchase will please to make application to the subscriber at William's Hotel, Annapolis. Mr. R. Thorn, the present tenant, will show the land to those wishing to purchase. Should the above land not be sold at private sale before Wednesday the 4th day of September next, it will on that day be offered at public auction on the premises, and will positively be sold to the highest bidder.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A decision in law interesting to the Ladies in the case of BLACK vs. BLUE.
The eyes that glow with sparkling jet,
And those that swim in orbs of blue;
Black versus Azure, strove to get
The prizeto beauty's empire due.
The Courts below were mov'd, but fail'd
To solve a case of such impression;
Even pleaders melted at the tale,
'Twas told with such a soft expression.
Conflicting claims inflame dispute,
Black was too bold, and blue too stupid;
At length this most important suit
Came on before the Justice Cupid:
And never was a case before Perplex'd with such intense confusion—
And never had the dark rob'd corps
Before been fed with such profusion.
The witnesses were—Burning Kisses;
The advocates—Voluptuous Sighs;
The proofs—Unutterable Blisses;
And the reporters—Estasies.

Forbear, to both the prize is due,
'Twas thus the God decreed forbear!
Woman is fair with eyes of blue;
With eyes of black she still is fair.
Black more vivacity impart;
In blue more tenderness we find;
Black indicate fineness and art,
And blue the gentleness of mind.
Black is too subject to caprice—
'Tis the gazet's heart! but blue
Is free from guile and artifice,
Is tender, delicate and true.
In black, I've placed my shafts of fire,
But blue in liquid languor roll;
Black, sparkling black, transport, inspire,
But blue enchant, dissolve the soul.

THE COQUETTE REPROVED.
"Tis strange that I remain a maid,
"Tho' fifty swains have done me paid."
"How dark this world would be,
"If when deceiv'd and wounded here,
"We could not fly to thee.
"He heathen the broken in heart, and bind
"eth up their wounds."
"O thou who driest the mourner's tear
"How dark this world would be,
"If when deceiv'd and wounded here,
"We could not fly to thee.
"The friends who in our sunshine live,
"When winter comes, are flown;
"And they who have but tears to give,
"Must weep those tears alone.
"But thou wilt heal that broken heart,
"Which like the plants that throw
"Their fragrance from the wounded part
"Breathe sweetness out of woe
"When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
"And e'en the hope that threw
"A moment's comfort on our tears,
"Is dimm'd and vanish'd too.
"Abl who would bear life's thorny doom,
"Did not thy wing of love,
"Come gently waiving thro' the gloom,
"On peace branch from above.
"Then sorrow, touch'd by thee, grows bright
"With more than raptures ray;
"As darkness shews us worlds of light
"We never saw by day.

"THE FASHION OF THE WORLD PASSETH AWAY."
Reader, thou wilt soon be classed with those who have gone before thee. A new generation will occupy the ground you now tread, and a friendly recollection, or the "stagnated urn," be the only relic of thy busy life. Thy years, at most, are few! Thy hopes, if bounded by time's narrowed limits how visionary!
Thy expectations, if circumscribed within life's little bound, how precarious! Thy—but hold; "Man that is in honour abideth not." Look around. Learn what has been, what may be. The tender grass, now merging into luxuriance, doomed
by the frosts of the coming winter to fade and die, may open its ephemeral flower when thy head shall be beneath this sod, when the sun of my mortal life shall be sunk beneath the horizon of time, and thy present possessions know thee no more forever. Thou hast other interests than the fleeting cares of the present world. How thou art a passenger not a resident. Thou art identified only with the present moment, and a pilgrim and a sojourner, as all our fathers were. Let not the toys of this world beguile you of the more substantial joys which grow in rich luxuriance, bud and bloom in wisdom's path, exhale their fragrance at every step. Thou art destined to a world, a mode of being where the faculties of thy soul, unfettered from the trammels of Mortality, and illuminated with the sun of Truth, will explore in rapturous amazement; the glorious goodness, the sublimity of Wisdom, and the favour of Love.
