The University of Maryland. ST. JOHN'S AND WASHINGTON COLLEGES.

The reputation and welfare of Maryland has been deeply afflicted by the fall of this University; and although it is the common duty of every man in the state to endeavour to re-construct it, there seems to be something more than an ordinary obligation upon those, who claim to be the Alumni of the Institution, to co-operate, and to make one vigorous, united effort, to resuscitate and to restore it to its ancient usefulness and fame, that they may be the special means of transmitting to their descendants, and to posterity generally, the benefits of an Institution which the wisdom of their forefathers had created for them.

It is therefore respectfully suggested to the Alumni of this University, wherever residing, to hold a meeting on the first Friday in December next, at St. John's College in Annapolis, (by permission of the Visitors and Governors), to take into consideration the practicability of reviving this University, the plan, and the ways and means necessary to effect it.

As the Chancellor of the state is upon the spot, and is always one of the Visitors & Governors of the University, it is also suggested that he be invited to attend as President of the Convention.

Should this proposition meet with the approbation of those to whom it is directed, it may be useful to insert short paragraphs in the several newspapers of the state, and of the District of Columbia, favourable to the plan, and urging a general attendance at the Convention—as it is not only desirable that our once distinguished and venerable Alma Mater, should be re-animated and restored by her Sons, but particularly so that they should form a Brotherhood of every surviving member of the family to undertake the noble work, to which gratitude and duty equally invite.

P. S. The Editors of newspapers throughout the state, and in the District of Columbia, are requested to give this publication a few insertions in their respective Journals.

LEE'S ORIGINAL

Highly Approved Family Medicines. Lee's truly valuable medicines, have stood the test of about sixteen years, and their excellent qualities are now well known and established. One of the most recent cases of cure of some of the most beneficial of his medicines, is all that the proprietor wants for room and annex, from the many in his possession.

Lee's Famous Anti-Billious Pills—Price 50 cents per box. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions to restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequence. Please to ask for "Lee's Anti-Billious Pills," with the signature of NOAH RIDGELY.

Late Michael Lee & Co. as none others are genuine. To Mr. Noah Ridgely, Dear Sir—Having made use of the various pills in my family, offered to the public for the last 25 years, and having found your celebrated Anti-Billious Pills the most efficacious in cleansing the stomach & bowels, removing head-aches, sick stomach, and having used them for several years past, can have no hesitation in stating, that I believe them (as represented) a most valuable family medicine. JACOB SMALL, Aug. 9, 1821. Conway-st. Balt.

Lee's Worm Lozenges—Price 50 cts. per Box. A certain and powerful remedy for destroying all kinds of worms. WONDERFUL TAPE WORM.—The proprietor of Lee's Family Medicines, has been put in possession of part of a tape worm, passed by a lady 40 years old, expelled by the use of Lee's truly efficacious Worm Destroying Lozenges, which measures 8 feet long, and contains 300 joints. This worm, with two round worms, of 13 and 15 inches long, and three-fourths of an inch round, expelled from a child not 5 years old, by the use of Lee's Lozenges, are now to be seen at Lee's Family Medicine Dispensary, No. 68, Hanover-st. Baltimore.

Lee's Elixir—Price $1 per bottle. This truly valuable medicine, has for the last sixteen years been the most efficacious medicine known, for speedily and effectually curing the most violent colds, coughs, and all Consumptions, (produced by violent cold and coughs) hundreds of cases of cures could be given (of persons snatched from the very brink of the grave, by the timely use of this invaluable medicine.) we can only give the following:

Wilmington, (N. C.) 23d May, 1821. Dear Sir—I was attacked with a most violent head-ache and pain in the breast, so that it was with the utmost difficulty I could draw my breath, or utter a single sentence louder than a whisper; I was advised by my friends to procure a bottle of your Elixir, which I did, and from two or three doses found great relief, and the use of one bottle effected my complete cure. You are at liberty to make this public in any manner you think proper. Your obliged humble servant, JOHN P. WASHINGTON.

To Mr. Noah Ridgely, Baltimore. Lee's Grand Restorative, or Nervous Cordial.—Price $1 per bottle, formerly $1 50. Amongst the most common symptoms attending this distressing complaint, are the following, viz: Lowness of spirits, loss of appetite, impurity of the blood, hysterical affections, inward weakness, violent pains in the head, back, loins, limbs, &c.

The principal operation of this remedy is in the stomach, restoring the digestive power, and sending forth from that organ new health and vigour in every part of the system.

Lee's Essence and Extract of Mustard—Price $1 per Bottle. An infallible remedy for Bruises, Rheumatism, Sprains, Numbness, Chilblains, &c. &c.

Mr. Noah Ridgely, Sir.—It is with great pleasure and satisfaction I inform you of the wonderful cure performed on me by your truly excellent Essence of Mustard. I have been so greatly afflicted with rheumatic pains, as to lose entirely the use of my right leg, thigh and hip, indeed it extended to my shoulder. By the use of the bottle I purchased of you I am perfectly cured. You are at liberty to publish this great cure for the benefit of those persons suffering under this dreadful affliction. Your's with esteem

THOMAS WOOTON, 2 miles on the Washington road. Lee's Fever and Ague Drops—Price 75 cents per bottle—formerly $1. Middletown, Md. 10th, 1821.

Sir—We are now happy to inform you that the result (after a correct trial) of your Lee's Ague and Fever Drops, has been of the most flattering kind, not only a few cases have been cured of that very disagreeable and irksome complaint, but, sir, every case, so far as our inquiries have reached, has been perfectly cured, and some indeed by a few doses only.

We desire to remain, sir, yours respectfully, ONEAL, RICHMOND, & CO. To Mr. Noah Ridgely, Baltimore.

Lee's Sovereign Ointment for the Itch. Price 50 cents large boxes—small do. 37 1/2 cents per box—formerly large boxes 75 cts. small do. 50 cents.

Warranted to cure by any application, free from mercury, or any pernicious ingredient.—This vegetable remedy is so mild, yet efficacious, that it may be used with the utmost safety on the most delicate pregnant lady, or child of a week old.

Lee's Genuine Persian Lotion—Price 75 cents per bottle. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, tendering the skin delicately soft and smooth—improving the complexion.

Lee's Indian Vegetable Specific—A certain and effectual cure for the venereal and gonorrhoea. Price $1 per bottle and box.

Who have just received from the Proprietor, Noah Ridgely, Family Medicines, without the signature of the proprietor. Late Michael Lee & Co. September 19, 1822.

St. John's College

DR. RAFFERTY, begs leave to acquaint the public, that he purposes delivering a course of lectures upon Natural Philosophy, including Mechanics, Hydrostatics, Pneumatics, Optics, Electricity, Galvanism, Chemistry, and Astronomy, to be illustrated by experiments.

The Philosophical Apparatus was made by the first artists in London, and procured by the Board of Governors and Visitors at an expense of nearly five thousand dollars. An excellent Chemical Apparatus has also been lately purchased.

The Introductory Lecture will be delivered in the College edifice on the second Friday in December next.

Such a course of instruction has long been a desideratum in this city, and if duly appreciated and patronised, must prove of incalculable utility to our youth of both sexes, and promote the best interests and rising reputation of St. John's.

N. B. The terms, hours of attendance, &c. shall be made known at a future advertisement. Sept. 26.

New & Cheap Goods.

N. J. Watkins, MERCHANT TAILOR, Informs his friends and the public, that he has received a complete and general assortment of Fall & Winter Goods, among which are Shephard's Best Regent's Blue and Black Cloths, Cassimers and Vestings, a great variety.

Which he will be happy to make up in a fashionable, and suitable manner and on the shortest notice. Sept. 26.

Farmers Bank of Maryland, Annapolis, September 18, 1822. The President and Directors of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, have declared a dividend of three per cent on the stock of said bank for six months, ending on the 30th inst. and payable on or after the first Monday of October next, to stockholders on the Western Shore, at the Bank at Annapolis, and to stockholders on the Eastern Shore, at the Branch Bank at Easton, upon personal application, on the exhibition of powers of attorney, or by correct simple order.

By order of the Board, Jona. Pinkney, Cashr.

The Editors of the Maryland Republican, Annapolis; the Federal Gazette, and the American, Baltimore, will publish the above once a week for three weeks. Sept. 26.

To Rent,

A MIDDLE SIZE FARM, ALSO TWO SMALL TENEMENTS. The tenements have comfortable dwellings, and a few acres of good cleared land are directly at the water's edge. The privilege of clearing if land, if desired, would be allowed.—The farm contains about two hundred thousand corn hills, divided into three fields, under good fencing. A large quantity of woods pasture is also inclosed; the buildings are common but comfortable, a good log tobacco-house 44 by 22. The soil is remarkably kind for light land, and is suited to the growth of corn, small grain and tobacco, and particularly so to most kinds of marketing. To an industrious tenant the rent would be made accommodating. Application may be made to Doct. H. W. Waters, near the Green Tree Pump, Baltimore, or to the subscriber.

4 Charles Walters. The highest wages will be given to a man that can come well recommended as an Overseer, and who understands the management of tobacco. C. W. Sept. 26.

From the Edinburgh Magazine of June. THE SPARTAN'S MARCH. 'Twas at once a delightful and terrible sight, to see them (the Spartans) marching on to the tunes of their flutes, without ever troubling their order, or confounding their ranks; their music leading them into danger with a deliberate hope and assurance, as if some Divinity had sensibly assisted them."

See Campbell on Elegiac Poetry of the Greeks.

'Twas morn upon the Grecian hills, Where peasants dressed the vines, There was sunlight on Oitheron's hills, Arcadia's rocks and pines.

And brightly thro' his reeds and flowers Eurota's wander'd by, When a sound arose from Sparta's towers Of solemn harmony.

Was it the shepherd's choral strain, That hymn'd the forest glade, Or the virgins, as to Pallas' fame, With their full-ton'd lyres they trod?

As helmets were glancing on the stream, Spears rang'd in close array, Ashields flung back its glorious beam To the morn of a fearful day.

And the mountain-echoes of the land Swell'd through the deep blue sky, While to soft strains mov'd forth a band Of men that mov'd to die.

They march'd not with the trumpet's blast, Nor bade the horn peal out, And the laurel woods, as on they pass'd, Rang with no battle-shout!

They ask'd no Clarion's voice to fire Their souls with an impetuous high; But the Dorian reed, and the Spartan lyre, For the sons of Liberty!

And still sweet flutes their path around Sent forth Eolian breath; They need not a sterner sound, To marshal them for death!

So mov'd they calmly to their field, Thence never to return, Save bearing back the Spartan shield, Or on it proudly borne.

From the Boston Gazette. RELIGION. When worldly sorrows press the heart, And chase its dearest joys away; When all that virtue can impart, Denies its consoling ray;

When Friendship turns with cold disdain, From fond remembrance, now forgot; When old Affections give us pain, And out confirm our dreary lot;

When Love its purest tendris weaves, Around its hallow'd, spotless breast; When Hope just whispers and deceives, To leave it lonely and deprest:

A twinkling gleam relieves the gloom, A spirit wrapt in Heavenly light, Redeems us from this earthly doom,— Religion beams! and all is bright!

RELIGION. Religion seems exactly fitted to the wants of man. He is here in a world of sin and sorrow, surrounded by ten thousand evils, from which he cannot extricate himself.—The wind blows, the storm rages, the heavens gather blackness, the elements vie with each other for dominion, and feeble man finds himself

Just like a feather, On the whirlwind's wing.

Patience and death are around him—he sees the grim monster approach—his limbs are unnerved—he cannot fly—he is sinking in despair, when religion appears, and by her light and presence dispels his fears and reanimates his frame. She has a power to charm, and while she charms, she instructs. Her victories are happy, for she constantly points them to a heaven of rest, in a world where

No scorching rays of day, No fatal damps of night, Shall ever find their way To weaken their delight—When God himself gives Zion rest, And makes her habitation blest.

They who have known the sweets of her society, pity those whose highest ambition is "to shed lustre over a few years—to live in remembrance a century or two, and then be forgotten." Yet even, for this the scholar labours, and the hero endures hardships; this is the summit of human ambition, and the boundary of its most sanguine expectation.
