SAY WHY? Oh, why should the heart of the Christian be sad. Say, why should he shroud in gloom? Say, why should he sigh when his fortunes are ead.

From the Charleston Courier. The God of the ocean is worshipp'd at sea, like the anthem of winds, and their chorus of glee.

RELIGION. "After all, I am convinced that nature is not to be fully enjoyed without Religion. Nature is but the handmaid to devotion; and where piety is unknown, her offices are but little understood."

The University of Maryland

ST. JOHN'S AND WASHINGTON COLLEGES.

The reputation and progress of Maryland have been deeply afflicted by the fall of this University; and although it is the common duty of every man in the state to endeavour to re-construct it, there seems to be something more than an ordinary obligation upon those who claim to be the Alumni of the Institution, to co-operate, and to make one vigorous, united effort, to re-establish and to restore it to its ancient usefulness and fame.

It is therefore respectfully suggested to the Alumni of this University, wherever residing, to hold a meeting on the first Friday in December next, at St. John's College in Annapolis, (by permission of the Visitors and Governors.)

Should this proposition meet with the approbation of those to whom it is directed, it may be useful to insert short paragraphs in the several newspapers of the state, and of the District of Columbia, favourable to the plan, and urging a general attendance at the Convention.

ALUMNUS. P. S. The Editors of newspapers throughout the state, and in the District of Columbia, are requested to give this publication a few insertions in their respective Journals.

St. John's College

DR. RAFFERTY, begs leave to acquaint the public, that he purposes delivering a course of lectures upon Natural Philosophy, including Mechanics, Hydrostatics, Pneumatics, Optics, Electricity, Galvanism, Chemistry, and Astronomy—to be illustrated by experiments.

The Philosophical Apparatus was made by the first artists in London, and procured by the Board of Governors and Visitors at an expense of nearly five thousand dollars. An excellent Chemical Apparatus has also been lately purchased.

The introductory Lecture will be delivered in the College edifice on the second Friday in December next.

Such a course of instruction has long been a desideratum in this city, and if duly appreciated and patronised, must prove of incalculable utility to our youth of both sexes, and promote the best interests and rising reputation of St. John's College.

N. B. The terms, hours of attendance, &c. shall be made known in future advertisements.
