Richard Gray,
Thankful for the patronage he has heretofore received from the citizens and members of the Legislature, takes this method of informing them and the public generally, that he has made different arrangements in his establishment, which he hopes will give satisfaction to his patrons. He therefore solicits a continuance of their custom, and assures them that nothing shall be wanting on his part to give satisfaction. He has and intends keeping a supply of the best Oysters, Ducks and Terrapins in their seasons, and will serve them up at the shortest notice. He will send private snappers to any part of the city, if orders are left with him. He has in his establishment A BILLIARD TABLE, which he assures the public shall be kept in the best style. He solicits a share of public favour, and informs those who may encourage him, that should any thing cause dissatisfaction, on its being made known to him, it shall be corrected.

A REPORT
Of all such
ENGLISH STATUTES
As existed at the time of the first emigration of the people of Maryland, and which by experience have been found applicable to their local and other circumstances; and of such others as have been made in
ENGLAND OR GREAT-BRITAIN
And have been introduced and practiced, by the
COURTS OF LAW OR EQUITY;
And also all such parts of the same as may be proper to be introduced and incorporated into the body of the
STATUTE LAW OF THE STATE.

Made according to the directions of the Legislature.
DE WILLIAM KILTY,
Chancellor of Maryland.
To which are prefixed,
AN INTRODUCTION
And Lists of the Statutes which had not been found applicable to the circumstances of the people:
With Full and Complete Indexes.
The proceeds of the sale of the above work are, by a resolution of the General Assembly, to be appropriated, under the direction of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, and the Chancellor of Maryland, to the purchase of a Public Library, for the use of the Superior Courts, and the General Assembly.
