BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

December 14th, 1822. Whereas the Governor in his communication hath advised that, owing to the late afflicting dispensations by disease, a day be set apart by the General Assembly, and recommended to the people of the state to be observed as a day of humiliation and prayer.

Therefore, be it Resolved by the General Assembly, that the thirteenth day of March next, be set apart and recommended to the people of the state to be observed as a day of humiliation and prayer, and that this resolution be published in such newspapers throughout the state as the Governor and Council may direct for the information of the citizens thereof.

By order, John Brewer, Clk.

Anne-Arundel County, to wit:

On application to the subscriber, in the recess of the court, as associate judge of the third judicial district of the State of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of Thomas S. Mitchell, of Anne-Arundel county stating that he is in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition. And the said Thomas S. Mitchell having satisfied me by competent testimony, that he resided two years within the State of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application; and the said Thomas S. Mitchell, having taken the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property, and given sufficient security for his appearance at the county court of Anne-Arundel, to answer such allegations as may be made against him. I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said Thomas S. Mitchell be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this notice to be inserted in some newspaper printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for two months, before the third Monday of April next, to appear before the said county court, at the court house of said county, on the third Tuesday of April, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and shew cause, if any they have, why the said Thomas S. Mitchell should not have the benefit of said act, and supplement thereto, as prayed. Given under my hand and seal, this 7th day of February, eighteen hundred and twenty-three.

By His Excellency SAMUEL STEVENS, junior, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the executive, that Levin Johnson, alias Statia, and Isaac Johnson, alias Statia, who were sentenced by Worcester county court, at November term last, to a confinement in the Maryland Penitentiary, for kidnapping; and Eli Roberts, who was sentenced to the said Penitentiary for ten years for a rape, made their escape on their way to the said Penitentiary: And whereas, it is at all times important, that persons offending against the laws should be brought to justice, but particularly in cases of the above description I have deemed it to be proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS, to any person or persons who shall apprehend the said mentioned persons, or ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each, provided he or they be duly lodged in my goal of this state, or elsewhere: And whereas, it has been further stated to the executive department, that the fodder house of Robert Yeo, of Calvert county, was consumed by fire on the night of the twenty sixth day of December last, and that there is strong reason to believe that it was set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons: Now therefore, that the perpetrator thereof may be brought to condign punishment I do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any person who shall discover, apprehend and prosecute to conviction, the perpetrator of the said act.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the state of Maryland, this ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three. SAMUEL STEVENS, jun. By His Excellency's command, Ninian Pinkney, Clerk of the Council.

In Chancery,

7th February, 1823. Thomas Contee Worthington, Executor of Thomas Contee, against Ephraim Burgess, Edward Burgess, Junr. Nimon Clagett, and Mary his wife. Ann Burgess, Susan Burgess, Eliza Burgess, Edward Burgess, Elizabeth Burgess, Daughters of Edward Anne Burgess, Burgess, Senior, deceased.

Children of John Burgess, deceased. Daniel Hook, and Sally his wife, John Shickles, and Mary, his wife. The object of the bill in this case is to obtain a decree for the sale of certain lands therein particularly mentioned, lying in Frederick and Montgomery counties, which were sold by Thomas Contee in his lifetime to Edward Burgess, Senr deceased, and to have the money arising from the sale applied to discharge the amount of purchase money due by the heirs of said Edward Burgess, Senr, deceased, to the executor of said Thomas Contee, deceased for the said bill.

The bill states, that on the 10th of September, 1806, Thomas Contee, then of Prince-Georges county, since deceased, sold several tracts of land lying in Montgomery and Frederick counties, to Edward Burgess, Senr, then of Montgomery county, also since deceased, for the sum of two thousand pounds, current money, to be paid in annual instalments of £250, with interest thereon from the day of sale. That Edward Burgess has since died, having paid no part of the purchase money, and leaving among other heirs, Ephraim Burgess, Thomas Burgess, Daniel Hook and Sally his wife, and John Shickles and Mary his wife, of the said daughters, who do not reside in Maryland. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in some public newspaper, before the seventh of April next, give notice of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that the absent defendants may appear here in person, or by a solicitor of this court, before the 7th day of June next, and shew cause, if any they have, therefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

In Chancery,

February 14th, 1823. Ordered, That the sale made and reported by James Boyle, trustee for the sale of the real and personal estate of Osborn Williams, as stated in his report be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shewn before the 14th day of April next: Provided a copy of this order be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Republican, and the Maryland Gazette printed at Annapolis, before the 14th day of March next.

The report states, that 294 acres and 8 perches sold for fourteen dollars per acre, and that the sales of the real and personal estates amounted to $10161 95.

For Sale, or Rent.

The subscriber will sell, or rent, part of Belmont, lying within three or four miles of Annapolis.

The part offered contains about 400 acres, and on it are several good springs, an apple orchard, two quarters, one quite new, two tobacco houses, a barn, cow house, cider-house, stable for ten horses, a dairy, poultry house and several other houses. There are about 15 bushels of wheat, and 30 bushels of rye, seeded. The farm is under good fence, and bounded by a navigable creek on the west, Severn on the east, and a road on the south. If rented, the rent will be reasonable. If sold, the terms of sale will be easy and accommodating to the purchaser.

Those who are inclined to rent or purchase, will view the land and improvements, which renders a more minute description unnecessary.

Should the land be sold or rented, the subscriber will sell horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. Among the cattle are six yoke of oxen and several milch cows.

On the land there is a good site for a dwelling house.

Possession to be given on the 12th of March, or sooner, if convenient.
