Public Sale.

The subscriber being desirous of selling his real estate, offers the farm on which he now resides for sale, being a tract of land called "The Gilt," containing 190 acres, more or less. This land lies in Anne Arundel county, near the Swamp Bridge, and adjoins the lands of Mr. Thomas Franklin and John C. Weems, esq. Those inclined to purchase are invited to view the premises. Should this land not be sold at private sale before Tuesday the 24th instant, it will on that day, at 11 o'clock, if fair, if not the next fair day thereafter, be offered at public sale, to the highest bidder. The purchaser may at the same time be accommodated with sundry stock, plantation utensils, &c. The terms of sale are—that the purchaser pay one third of the purchase money on the day of sale, one third in twelve, and one third in eighteen months from the day of sale; bonds with security will be required bearing interest, and upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a good and sufficient deed shall be executed to the purchaser free and clear of any incumbrance whatever.

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND. Shaw & Gambrill, ANNAPOLIS, Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND. To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law. These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will not be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt. TERMS. The price of each number of the Reports will be $2, payable on delivery. Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the taken at the senate and members of the house of delegates, and by all persons elected or appointed to any office of profit or trust, civil or military, before entering upon the duties thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed.

For Sale or Rent, The House in which the subscriber now resides. For terms apply to RICHARD I. JOHNSON, Feb 13. 250 Dollars Reward. Ranaway from the subscriber, a bright Mulatto Man named Harry Moss, about twenty six years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high. He has a florid complexion, is freckled, has a black, thick beard and whiskers; steps short, quick and erect, has a genteel appearance, is a house carpenter and joiner by trade, hesitates and stammers a little when spoken to, is remarkably hairy on the breast and limbs, on the outside of one of his legs he has a scar from a burn, he has a round full face, with light hazle eyes, can read and write and no doubt has written a pass for himself. He had two suits of clothing when he went away, one of black broad cloth, one of blue; also a dumpy round jacket and pantaloons; and was seen in Baltimore in December last. Any person apprehending the said fellow so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. JESSE RAY, Anne Arundel county, near Annapolis, May 29.

In Council, June 11, 1823. Ordered, That the act, entitled, "An act to extend to all the citizens of Maryland the same civil rights and religious privileges enjoyed under the constitution of the United States, and the act to alter such parts of the constitution and form of government as relates to the oaths to be taken by the members of the senate and house of delegates, and all other officers therein mentioned, be published twice a week for four weeks in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Baltimore; Griev's paper at Hager's town; the Allegany paper, the Star at Easton, the National Intelligencer, and the Bond of Union at Belle Air. By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT To extend to all the citizens of Maryland the same Civil Rights and Religious Privileges that are enjoyed under the constitution of the United States. Whereas by the declaration of rights of this state, it is declared—that it is the duty of every man to worship God in such manner as he thinks most acceptable to him. And whereas, by the constitution of the United States, which is the supreme law of the land, it is declared, that "no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust, under the United States." And whereas, certain citizens of Maryland are deprived of civil rights and rendered ineligible to holding office, on account of their religious principles, therefore, Sec 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust, under the state of Maryland. 2. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the declaration of rights and constitution and form of government of this state, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby abrogated, annulled and made void. 3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, in such case, this act and the alteration herein contained, shall constitute and be considered as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, anything therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

AN ACT To alter and change all such parts of the constitution and form of government, as relate to the oaths to be taken by the members of the senate and house of delegates, and all other officers therein mentioned. Sect. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every member of the senate and house of delegates, before he shall act as such, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, to wit: I, A. B. do swear or affirm, as the case may be, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the state of Maryland, and that I will support the constitution and laws thereof; that I will not directly or indirectly receive the profits, or any part of the profits of any other office during the time of my acting as senator (or member of the house of delegates,) and that I will faithfully discharge my duty as senator (or member of the house of delegates,) without prejudice or partiality to the best of my skill and judgment. And that electors, members of the senate, and all executive and judicial officers, before they act as such, and all persons elected or appointed to any office of profit or trust, civil or military, before entering upon the duties thereof, shall respectively take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, to wit: I, A. B. do swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the state of Maryland, and that I will support the constitution and laws thereof; and that I will to the best of my skill and judgment, diligently and faithfully, without partiality or prejudice execute the office of _____, according to the constitution and laws of this state. 2. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the oaths or affirmations to be taken by the senate and members of the house of delegates, and by all persons elected or appointed to any office of profit or trust, civil or military, before entering upon the duties thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the first day of July in the year eighteen hundred and twenty four, and shall thereafter be taken and considered, and shall constitute a part of the constitution and form of government; Provided the same be confirmed by the general assembly after the next election of delegates in the first session after such new election as the said constitution and form of government directs.

Public Sale. By virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, the subscriber will expose at Public sale, on Wednesday the 16th day of July next, if fair if not the next fair day, on the premises, part of a tract of land called Govey's Feirin, Govey's Addition, and Piney Thicket, containing 276 1/4 acres. This land lies in Anne Arundel & Calvert Counties, a large proportion in wood; the soil is good. Terms of sale—The purchaser to give bond, with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money, in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale. On the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, and the payment of the whole purchase money, the trustee is authorized to execute a deed to the purchaser. GUSTAVUS WEBER, June 26, 1823.

PRINTING Of every description, neatly executed at this Office. June 19.

In Council, June 11, 1823. Ordered, That the act, entitled, "An act to change and repeal such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state as relate to the division of St. Mary's county into four election districts;" and "An act to repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the division of Anne Arundel county into five separate election districts and for other purposes," be published twice a week for four weeks in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette. By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT To repeal an act, entitled, "An act to alter, change and repeal such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government of this state as relate to the division of St. Mary's county into four election districts," passed at November session, one thousand eight hundred and six, and confirmed at November session, one thousand eight hundred and seven. Whereas, It is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Saint Mary's county, that their experience great inconvenience from the magnitude and extent of the fourth election district in said county, operating to deprive many of their suffrages, who are entitled to the exercise of that right; and as it is desirable that the full, free and fair voice of the people should be expressed in their choice of the functionaries of government; therefore, 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of the constitution and form of government, made by the acts of eighteen hundred and six and six and eighteen hundred and seven, which directs that Saint Mary's county shall be divided and laid off into four separate election districts, be, and the same is hereby repealed. 2. And be it enacted, That Saint Mary's county shall be divided into five separate election districts; and the additional district shall be taken and laid off from the fourth election district, as they are now numbered. 3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, in such case, this act and the alteration herein contained, shall constitute and be considered as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, anything therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

AN ACT To repeal all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government as relate to the division of Anne Arundel county into five separate election districts and for other purposes. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all such parts of the constitution and form of government, which relate to the division of Anne Arundel county into five election districts, except as to the first, second and third districts, be, and the same are hereby repealed. 2. And be it enacted, That James H. Marriott, Francis Belimer and George An drews, of the fourth district, in the county aforesaid, and Richard Ridgely, Thomas Burgess and Henry Willing, of the fifth district of the county aforesaid, be, and they are hereby authorized and appointed, or a majority of them, commissioners to lay off and divide anew the fourth and fifth election districts, or the fifth election district only, which ever they shall deem to tend most to the convenience of the voters in said districts in Anne Arundel county, into not exceeding three separate election districts in case they shall deem it most advisable to divide and lay off the fourth and fifth districts as aforesaid; and in case they shall deem it most advisable to divide and lay off anew the fifth district only, they shall not divide nor lay it off into more than two separate election districts, carefully making the districts as aforesaid to be laid off as nearly equal as possible, having regard to the population, extent and convenience of the voters of each of said districts, and said election district or districts, so laid off anew, shall be numbered (if the fourth and fifth districts are divided) four, five and six, if only the fifth district shall be divided anew, they shall be numbered five and six, by the said commissioners, and known thereafter by such numbers, and also to make choice of a place in each district so laid off anew, at which the elections shall be held, as near as practicable, having regard to the circumstances as aforesaid, and the accommodation of persons attendant upon such elections; and the said commissioners shall, on or before the third Monday in April, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, deliver to the clerk of Anne Arundel county court, a description in writing, under their hands and seals, specifying plainly the boundaries and number of each district, and also the place in each district, where the election for such district shall be held, and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of the said county. 3. And be it enacted, That the sheriff of Anne Arundel county shall give notice of the place of holding the election in each election district so laid off anew, by causing the same to be inserted in one of the newspapers of the city of Annapolis, once a week, for at least two months previous to holding the election in October, eighteen hundred and twenty four. 4. And be it enacted, That if any of the commissioners named in this act, shall refuse to accept his appointment before the first day of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, the remaining commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized and directed to fill such vacancy or vacancies. 5. And be it enacted, That each commissioner shall be entitled to receive at the rate of two dollars per day, for every day he shall be in the discharge of his duties imposed on him by the provisions of this act, to be assessed and levied by the levy court of Anne Arundel county, as other county charges are; which said sums, when levied and collected, shall be paid over as other county charges. 6. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, in such case this act and the alterations herein contained, shall constitute and be considered as a part of the constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, anything therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. June 19.
