DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND. Shaw & Gambrill, ANNAPOLIS, Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND. To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law. These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty-five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It is sure the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt. The price of each number of the Reports will be $.25, payable on delivery. Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state. Annapolis, June 1823.

For Sale or Rent, The House in which the subscriber now resides. For terms apply to RICHARD I JONES. Feb 19.

250 Dollars Reward. Ranaway from the subscriber, a bright Mulatto Man named Harry Moss, about twenty six years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high. He has a florid complexion, is freckled; has a black, thick beard and whiskers; steps short, quick and erect, has a genteel appearance, is a house carpenter and joiner by trade, hesitates and stammers a little when spoken to, is remarkably hairy on the breast and limbs, on the outside of one of his legs he has a scar from a burn, he has a round full face, with light hazle eyes, can read and write and no doubt has written a pass for himself. He had two suits of clothing when he went away, one of black broad cloth, one of blue; also a dimity round jacket and pantaloons, and was seen in Baltimore in December last. Any person apprehending the said fellow so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. JESSE RAY, Anne Arundel county, near Annapolis, May 29.

In Council, June 11, 1823. Ordered, That the act, entitled, "An act to amend an act, entitled, 'An act to alter, change and repeal such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state as relate to the division of St. Mary's county into four election districts,'" and "An act to repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to five separate election districts and for other purposes," be published twice a week for four weeks in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette. By order, NIMIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

In Council, June 11, 1823. Ordered, That the act, entitled, "An act to extend to all the citizens of Maryland the same civil rights and religious privileges enjoyed under the constitution of the United States, and the act to alter such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the oaths to be taken by the members of the senate and house of delegates, and all other officers therein mentioned, be published twice a week for the space of four weeks in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the Patriot, American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; Political Examiner at Frederick town; Griev's paper at Hager's town; the Allegany paper, the Star at Easton, the National Intelligencer, and the Bond of Union at Belle Air. By order, NIMIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

AN ACT To extend to all the citizens of Maryland the same Civil Rights and Religious Privileges that are enjoyed under the constitution of the United States. Whereas by the declaration of rights of this state, it is declared that it is the duty of every man to worship God in such manner as he thinks most acceptable to him; And whereas, by the constitution of the United States, which is the supreme law of the land, it is declared that no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States; And whereas, certain citizens of Maryland are deprived of civil rights and rendered incapable of holding office as a consequence of their religious principles; therefore, Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust, under the laws of Maryland. Section 2. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the declaration of rights and constitution and form of government of this state, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby abrogated, annulled and made void. Section 3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government herein contained, shall constitute and be considered as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

AN ACT To repeal all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government as relate to the division of Anne Arundel county into five separate election districts and for other purposes. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all such parts of the constitution and form of government, which relate to the division of Anne Arundel county into five election districts, except as to the first, second and third districts, be, and the same are hereby repealed. Section 2. And be it enacted, That James H. Marriott, Francis Belnear and George An drews, of the fourth district; in the county aforesaid, and Richard Ridgely, Thomas Burgess and Henry Willing, of the fifth district of the county aforesaid, be and they are hereby authorized and appointed, or a majority of them, commissioners to lay off and divide anew the fourth and fifth election districts, or the fifth election district only, which ever they shall deem will tend most to the convenience of the voters in said districts in Anne Arundel county, into not exceeding three separate election districts, in case they shall deem it most advisable to divide and lay off the fourth and fifth districts as aforesaid; and in case they shall deem it most advisable to divide and lay off anew, the fifth election district only, they shall not divide nor lay it off into more than two separate election districts, carefully making the districts so aforesaid to be laid off as nearly equal as possible, having regard to the population, extent and convenience of the voters of each of said districts, and said election districts, so laid off anew, shall be numbered (if the fourth and fifth districts are divided) four, five and six, if only the fifth district shall be divided anew, they shall be numbered one and six; by the said commissioners, and also to make choice of a place in each district so laid off anew, at which the elections shall be held, as nearly central as practicable, having regard to the circumstances as aforesaid; and the accommodation of persons attendant upon such elections; and the said commissioners shall, on or before the third Monday in April, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, deliver to the clerk of Anne Arundel county a description in writing, under their hands and seals, specifying plainly the boundaries and number of each district, and also the place in each district, where the election for such district shall be held, and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of the said county. Section 3. And be it enacted, That the sheriff of Anne Arundel county shall give notice of the place of holding the election in each election district so laid off anew, by causing the same to be inserted in one of the newspapers of the city of Annapolis, once a week, for at least two months previous to holding the election in October, eighteen hundred and twenty four. Section 4. And be it enacted, That if any of the commissioners named in this act shall refuse to accept his appointment before the first day of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, the remaining commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized and directed to fill such vacancy or vacancies. Section 5. And be it enacted, That each commissioner shall be entitled to receive at the rate of two dollars per day, for every day he shall act in the discharge of the duties imposed on him by the provisions of this act, to be assessed and levied by the levy court of Anne Arundel county, as other county charges are; which said sums, when levied and collected, shall be paid over as other county charges are. Section 6. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly of Maryland, after the next election of delegates, during the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government herein contained shall constitute and be considered as a part of the constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.
