

George Schwarr,
BAKER.

Returns his sincere acknowledgments to the public for their generous support in his profession, which he remembers with gratitude, and for a continuance of which his time, attention and industry, will be constantly devoted. But he feels constrained by a sense of still higher obligation, to decline baking in future on Sabbath days. Arrangements will be made to accommodate his customers with good bread on Saturday evenings by six o'clock for the succeeding day; and he hopes that the motive which induces this change, will be a sufficient apology to his fellow-citizens.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, It appears to me by an inquisition taken before Henry Lloyd, Esquire, a justice of the peace for Montgomery county, that a nefarious murder was committed on the person of Nathan Musgrove, a respectable and aged citizen of said county, by a certain Alexander I. Duwall, on the 5th of July instant, who has fled from justice, which inquisition hath been returned to me, accompanied by a memorial of sundry respectable persons inhabitants of Montgomery county, praying their interposition of the government. And whereas, the quiet and security of the state depend on the vigilance of the constituted authorities in causing the laws against such an enormity to be duly executed, I have therefore thought it proper to issue this proclamation, hereby requiring and exhorting all civil officers and other good citizens of the state of Maryland, to use every exertion in their power to arrest and secure the said Alexander I. Duwall, and do further by and with the advice and consent of the council offer a reward of two hundred dollars, to whoever shall apprehend and deliver the said Alexander I. Duwall, to the sheriff of Montgomery county. Given in council at the city of Annapolis, under my hand and the seal of the state of Maryland, this 23th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three.

DECISIONS
COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrill,
ANNAEOLIS.
Propose to Publish by Subscription,
THE DECISIONS
OF THE COURT OF APPEALS
OF MARYLAND.

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals; and Hazard Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty-five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $25, payable on delivery.
Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.
Annapolis, June 1823.

FEMALE ACADEMY & BOARDING SCHOOL.

The subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has made arrangements with Mrs Alexander of this place, for the reception of female boarders, intended to be entrusted to his instruction. He is convinced that every attention will there be bestowed, as well to their moral and intellectual improvement, as to their corporeal and society. The vicinity of Mr. A's house to his school-room, will render constant attendance perfectly convenient at every season. The price of board is 160 dollars per annum.

Besides the usual course of female education, the young ladies receive at his academy instruction in History, the use of the Globes, French, German or Latin, Mythology and Moral Philosophy. The different branches are attentively taught, and the study of History is accompanied with Geographical illustrations on maps of the ancient and modern atlas. The higher class of his pupils are carried through a series of reading of English poets. These they are taught to analyze critically, to point out the beauties and defects in diction and sentiment, and to explain every allusion to history and mythology. This practice is intended to habituate their minds to an acute investigation of all they read, which will doubtless prove beneficial in after life.

The terms of tuition are the following per quarter.
For pupils not sufficiently advanced to study English Grammar. $6 00
For E. Grammar, Geography, Globes, &c $10 00
For each of the languages an extra charge of $5 00
The payment is to be made quarterly in advance, and no pupil can be entered for less than one year.

PLUSSER.
Annapolis, July 1823.

N. B. Private instruction will be given to ladies or gentlemen in any of the above branches.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state of Maryland, this eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three.

To the Voters

OF THE CITY OF ANNAPOLIS
Fellow Citizens.

The enquiry has been lately frequently made, whether it was my intention to be a candidate to represent the city. That a further conversation on this subject may be put to rest, this method is taken to inform the voters of Annapolis, that I am a candidate, and if elected and my life spared, shall use my best endeavours to represent them faithfully. And as there is no doubt but some of my opponents will use all sorts of means, and make efforts of all descriptions to prevent my election I have to ask of my fellow citizens to be on their guard against erroneous representations, agreeing them, that they will be met. (if made known) promptly and without fear of a canvass before the people collected. I shall take no unbecoming steps against those that are or that hereafter may be candidates. My purpose and pretensions have never been disguised, and will be steadily, candidly and fearlessly pursued.
