SEMALE ACADEMY & BOARD . ING SCHOOL.

The subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has made arrange ments with Mrs Alexander of this place, for the reception of female boarders, intended to be entrusted to his instruction. He is convinced that every attention will there be bestowed. as well to their moral and intellectual improvement, as to their comfort and society. The vicinity of Mrs. A. fouse to his school-room, will render constant attendance perfectly convenient at every season. The price of board is 160 dollars per annum.

Besides the usual course of female ducation, the young ladies receive ac his academy instruction in History the use of the Globes, French, Ger man or Latin, Mythology and Moral Philosophy. The different branches are attentively taught, and the study of History is accompanied with Geographical illustrations on maps of the ancient and modern atlas. The higher class of his pupils are carried through a series of reading of English poets. These they are taught to analyze critically, to point out the beauties and defects in diction and sentiment and to explain every allusion to history and mythology. This practice is intended to habituate their minds to an acute investigation of all they read which will doubtless prove beneficial in after life

The terms of tuition are the follow

For pupils not sufficiently advanced to advanced to study Eng lish Grammar. For E Grammar, Geogra phy, Globes, &c $10 Od
