OF MARYLAND, To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Ap-

Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals; and Reportly Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decision, will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson; which closes with the year; 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty-five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. and four numbers to constitute a volume The last number of each volume will con tain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It cusures the earlier publication of the Reports in the Rep of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS. The price of each number of the Reports will $1 25, payable on delivery.

FEMALE ACADEMY & BOARD ING SCHOOL.

The subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has made arrange ments with Mrs. Alexander of this place, for the reception of female poarders, intended to be entrusted to his instruction. He is convinced that every attention will there be bestowed, as well to their moral and intellectual improvement, as to their comfort and society. The vicinity of Mrs. A. house to his school-room, will render constant attendance perfectly convenient at every season. The price of board is 160 dollars per annum.

Besides the usual course of female education, the young ladies receive at his academy instruction in History, the use of the Globes, French, Ger man or Latin, Mythology and Moral Philosophy. The different branches are attentively taught, and the study of History is accompanied with Geographical illustrations on maps of the ancient and modern atlas. The higher class of his pupils are carried through a series of reading of English poets These they are taught to analyze cri tically, to point out the beauties and defects in diction and sentiment, and to explain every allusion to history and mythology. This practice is intended to habituate their minds to an acute investigation of all they read which will doubtless prove beneficial
