[VOL. LXXVIII.

Price-Three Dallars per Annum.

WEERLY ALMANAC.

1823 ... Oct. Ton | Sun Rises | Sun Sett

BALTIMORE

PRICES CURRENT.

Floor, best white wheat, $7 25— Superfine $6 50—fine do $6 25—Wharfdo. $6 25—White Wheat, $1 20 to 1 30— Red do $1 20 to 1 30—Rye 44 fo 45 cts:— Corn 36 to 38 cents—Wharf Oats 27, $30

Corn so to so cents whar Oats 22 a 30 cents. Beef, 8 cents per poundd—Live cattle, $6 to $6 50 per cwt. Bacon; bog round, 10 dollars Pork $7
50 per elb. 6 to 8 cents per lb Beans $1
10 dollars Beans $1

Muttan, 5 to 6 ets perb Beans $1.30 retail— Peas, black eyed, 75 to 80 ets—Red Clover seed $6——Timothy seed $4——Flax Seed 25 to 80 ets—Whiskey, from the waggons, 28 to 30 ets. pengall—Apple brandy, 30 to 12 ets.—Peas do 65 to 70 cents.—Shad, $6—Herrings, No. 14 $2.70 per bbl —No. 2. $2.37 l-2—Fine salt 60 to 65 ets. per bushel—Coarse, do, 70.

Maryland Tobacco.

The Steam Boat

MARYLAND,

Commenced her regular routes on Sa turday the 8th of March, at 8 o'clock

A. M from Commerce street wharf for Annapolis and Easton, leaving Annapolis at half past 12 o'clock for Easton, and on Sunday the 9th, will leave Easton, by way of Castle Haven

the same hour, for Annapolis and Baltimore; leaving Annapolis at half past

2 o'clock, and continue to leave the a bove places as follows:-Commerce-street wharf, Baltimore, on Wednes days and Saturdays, and Easton on Sundays and Thursdays at 8 o'clock.

till the first of October, and then leave the above places one hour sooner, so as to arrive before dark. Persons wishing to go from Easton to Oxford can be landed for fifty cents each. the same from Oxford to Easton. Passen gers wishing to proceed to Philadel phia will be put on poard the Union Line of steam-boats in the Patapaco river, and arrive there by 9 o'clock

The Maryland commenced her

Chester town, on Monday, the 10th route from Baltimore to Queen's town day of March, leaving Commerce street wharf at 9 o'clock every Monday, and Chester town every Tuesday at the same hour for Queen's-town &

Baltimore during the season-Horses and carriages will be taken on board from either of the above places-All baggage at the risk of the owners.

All persons expecting small packages, or other freight, will send for them when the boat arrives, pay freight and take them can CLEMENT & CLARS.

100 Dollars Reward.

has a smooth face, and is stout and strongly made; in walking he turns in his toes, and if spoken to sharply is apt to get much confused; and has a stupid look. Charles took with him a cotton round jacket, with a red stripe, and a pair of nankeen pantaloons. He had other cloathing, not recollected. It is supposed he is about Annapolis, or in that neighbouthood. I will give the sam of fifty dollars if taken with in twenty miles of home, or the above reward of One Hundred Dollars if caught about that distance, and secured in any gool so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges if brought home to the subscriber living on Kent Island, near Love Point.

JOHN RIDDUT, of H.

Belle Yue, kept, 30, 1623.

Ran away from the subscriber on the 28th

ult a dark mulatto boy,

by the name of Charles

Miller, about eighteen years old, and 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high. He

the next morning.

As last report, except the inferior guli

Coarse, do. 70.

Corrected Werkly .- From the American Farm

26 Priday 25 daturday 26 Bunday 27 Monday

48 Tuesday 29 Wednesday

B. James Baer, Thomas B. Barton Henry, Beice, George Barber, Miss Rebecca Bre-nan, R. Bowie, Francis Bird, Stephen Beard, Miss Brogden

William Carmichael, Joshus Cockey, David S. Caldwell, Mary Collies, Mrs. Sa-rah Clements, Charles Chevaller, William Cor, Philip Clayton. D.

James Dunn, Andrew Dorfey, Richard Diggs, Mrs Elizabeth Disney, Mrs. Mar-garet G. Disney, Mary Digkinson, John Disney, Mrs. Minty Daffin, Emmanuel Dadds, Mrs. Mary Duvall, Mrs. Susan De-

E. William Emory.

Henry D. Gilpin, Wm Glover, Miss Ellen R. Grav, Richard Gray, Mrs. Anne Gambril, Mrs. Catharine Gibson.

Doct. Wm. Hammord, Frederick Harawood, B. Haward, Samuel Hackman, Nelson Hall, George Hammond, Miss Eller S. Hodges, George Howard of Brice, Ed. Hall, 2, James Hunter, Christopher Hohne, Joseph Hohne, Jona. Hutton, Samuel Harrison, Mrs. Hurst, John G. Harawey, Isaac Holland Sr. Rev. Eli Henkle,

George Jourdan Samuel Jeffers, Leonard Iglehart, 5, Benjamin Johnson, 2, James Johnston, Silas Johnson, Mrs. Mac Cy day y

Richard Kirlland, John Knighton, 2, Richard Kenny, John Kirbe.

Philip G. Lachleitner, Richard Loock Joshua Ma hews, Daniel M. Karty, Mrs.

Elizabeth Mes, Michael Molony, Martid Mulion, Daniel Murray, Ben. Mead, Mr. Mackabee, Wm. T. Morgan, George

Henry O. Neal, 2, Wm. Nicholls, Mrs.

Dennis G. Orme. P.

George Plais 2, Miss Joanna Plummer, Parker J, Mrs. Mary A. Parker.
R.
Danie Raymond, Tobias Rudulph, Miss

Daniel Raymond, Tobias Rudulph, Miss Matilda Ray, John G. Rodgers, Wm. Jefferson Round Hill, S. Ringgold.

George Stephens, Frederick A. Schley, Jacob Sitler, Rezin Spurrier 2, Daniel Sieler 2, John Smith, Thomas J. Stockett, Mrs. Elizabeth Sprigg, Jacob Sleppy, Joseph N. Stockett, John O. Sayre.

T.

Mr Tilkin, John Taylor, Mrs. Mary Thempson, Lewis Tydings, Hugh Tirney, James Tongue.

Gideon White 15, Wm. Wicker, John Weems 2, Tristram Weedoo, Nicholas atkins of Thos. Robert Wilson, John alsh, Thomas Wason, Mrs. Anne Whetcroit, Mrs. Sarah Welch, Ed. Williams, George W. Whitaker, Daniel H. Wiggins.

Henry Zigler.
JAMES MONROE, P. M. NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that appli-cation will be made to Anne-Arundel County Court, for groad to lead out of the Baltimore & Washington Tura-pike Road, a little to the north-east of the 15 mile stone, to intersect the lands of the Savage Manufacturing Company. Sept. 18. ANNAPOLIS JOCKEY CLIB RACES. . Will be run for over the Anyapolis race course, on Wednesday, the 5th day of November next. a Jookey club purse of not less than $250 heats four miles each, carrying weights agreea-bly to the rules of the clab. On Thurs-day, the 6th a colts posse will be run for of not less than 150, two miles each. And on Friday, the 7th, the cla-ty purse will be run for there miles. ty purse will be ran for, three miles, each free for any horse, mare or gelding, the winning horse on the 1st day excepted.

18AAC HOLLAND, Treasurer, Subscribers to the Jockey Club, are requested to call and pay their sub-Scriptions.

The members will meet at Williams son's tavern the evening previous to Sept. 18.

For Rent, The House in Church street, one door below Mrs. Robinson's Boarding House, and lately occupied by Mr. Richard Gray MARY SEWELL Oct. 9. Sw

PRINTING Of, every description, neatly executed at this Office.

MARYLAND CAZETTE AND POLITICAL INTEGRIGENCER.

Annapolis, Thursday, October 23, 1828.

ATTENTION!

JONAS GREEN, QUURCH-STREET. ANNAPOLIS.

The subscriber having purchased the Store formerly occupied by Mr William Alexander, in Corn Hill steet, informs his friends and the public generally, that ha has for sale, (just received) a well selected assoriment of GROCERIES,

Consisting of Cogniac Brandy, Old-Accomac Peach do Holland Gin, American do James ca Spirit, Old Rye Whiskey, Common do. N. E. Rum,

Loaf, Lump and Brown SUGARS, Hyson, Young Hyson, Hyson Skin, and Southoug

TEAS. Coffees, Sperm, Mould and Dipt Candles, White, brown and yellow Sosp, Havana and American Segars, Molasses, Chocolate; Chewing and Smocking Tobacco, Snuff, Sallad Oil, Lard Becon, Pork, Mackerel, Herrings, Al lum, Ground Allum and Pine Salt, Jamieson Crackers, Spiess, Ginger, Salt Petre, Pepper, Fig. Blue, Mus tard Starch, Pearl Barley, Rice, Pow der, Shot, China, Glass, Stone and Earthen Ware, &c &c. with FAMILY FLOUR. He will sell Groceries, &c. on as good terms as can be obtained in this city, & respectfully so co his iriends and all others to give him a call.

ISAAC JOLLAND.

NEW GOODS. Geo. M'Neir,

ties, which may be quoted from fifty cents to $1. higher in demand. MERCHANT PATEOR

Nearly opposite Williamson's Hotel, Has just received a complete assort-ment of Fall & Winter Goods. Consisting of the very first and second quality Cloth, Cassimeres, Cassinets. and Vestings, which he will sell or and vestings, which he will sell of make up in the best and most fashi-onable manner, and Cheapy money, or to punctual men en credit Oct 9 tJ1.

Land to Rent.

The subscriber wishing to live a less irksome life, by relieving himself of some of his temporal cares, is de sirous to farm out, or let on rent, for one or more years, the PLANTATION OR FARM on which he now resides, either with or without the stock and hands, as may be desirable To a good and careful tenant, the terms would be advan tageous. Or, with a view to effect the same object, would engage as a manager or overseer, a steady and indus trious man of sober habits, capable of taking the entire direction and ma nagement of his agricultural concerns. Persons wishing to engage in either way, will please to make application to the subscriber, Charles county, Maryland, about five mile below Piscal taway.

PHEMP I. FORD.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a writ of fi. fa. issued out of Anne Arundel county court, and to me directed, will be exposed to pubto me directed, will be exposed to public sale, on Monday the 27th inst. at Mr James Hunters Tavern, in the city of Annapolis, at 12 o'clock, A. M. One Ox Cart, and four Oxen. Seized and taken as the property of Charles and taken as the property of Charles Watson, at the suit of Robert Welch, of Ben use of John Shaw. Terms of sale cash,

' Wm. O'Hara Shff. . Oct 16

State of Maryland, sc. Anne-Arundel County Orphans Court, September 23, 1823.

On application by petition of Aaron Hawkins (of Joseph) executor of Samuel Hawkins, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims, against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette THOS H. HALL, Reg. Wills A. A. County. Notice is hereby Given,

That the subscriber of Anne Arun del county, hath obtained from the Orphini Court of Anne Arundel coun-ty in Maryland, letters testaments The personal estate of Samuel Hawkins late of Anne-Arundelcounty, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the

Misobrrvabbors

THE KISS.

[Nay, be not thus angry, de look you so dest.

Tweathe of ring of Love, and was par and sincere, As a mortal like me is expected to give, Or all Angel like you could pave wished to Decire

Had your lip heen less tempting, and your Had your lip heed less tempting; and your eye been less bright;
In short, bad you been less an Angel of light.

The love that I bear you would ne'er have been thine.

And the Kirs, you regret so, would ne'er pave been mine.

Then be not thus angry; I swear by the bliss Which I ne'er should have known but for s'ealing the Kirs.

stealing the Kiss, No. no. 1'll not swear but flyour in pain At the loss of your Kiss, you shall have it again.

VIEW OF DEATH O Sagiour of the faithful dead!
With whom thy screams dwell,
Though cold and green the turi is spread Above their narrow cell!

No more we cling to mortal clay, We doubt and weep no more, Nor fear to tread the darksome way Which thou has trod before. Tis hard from those we love to go,

Who weep heside our bed,
Whose tears bedew our burning brow,
Whose arms support our head. When fading from the dizzy view, I sought their form in vain; The bitterness of death I knew,

And groan'd to live again. Tas dreadful when the accuser's power, Assails the sinking heart, Recalling every wasted hour,

And each unworthy part. Yet Jesus, in that mortal fray, Thy blessed comfest string. Like sunshine in an autumn day, Across my darkened soul.

When soon or late this feeble breath, No more to thee can pray, Support me through the vale of death, And in the darksome way.

When clothed in fleshly weeds again, I wait thy dread decree, Judge of the world, remember then, That thou hast died for me.

MOUNT SINAL

From Mr. Burkhardt's Journal of a tour in the Peninsula of Mount Sinai in the spring of 1816.
We now approached the central summi of Mount Sinai, which we had in view for several days. Abrupt cliffs of grantle, from six to eight hundred feet in height, whose surface is blackened by the sun, surround the avenues leading to the elevated plat orm to which the name of Sinat is specifically applied. These cliffs enclose the holy applied. nountain on three sides, leaving the L. and N E sides only, toward the Gulf of Aka ba, more open to the view We entered the cliffs by a narrow defile, about 10 feet in breadth with perpendic las granite rocks on both sides. In a broader part of the pass an insulated rock, about five feet high with a kind of naturally formed seat, is shown as a place upon which Moses once reposed; the Bedouins keep it covered with green or dry herbs, and some of them kiss it, or touch it with their hands, in passing Beyond the valley opens, and the ountains on both sides diverge from the Further S. at the end of six hours and rather 3, at the end of six nodes and all all we turned to our right into a broad valley, at the termination of which I was agreeably surprised by the beautiful ver dure of a garden of almond trees, belong. ing to the convent. We alighted under a window of the convent by which the priests communicate with the Arabs below. The letter of recommendation which thad with me was drawn up by a cord, and when the prior had read it, a stick tied across a rope up their abode.

The convent of Mount Sinai is situated The convent of Mount Sina; is situated in a valley so narrow, that one part by the building stands on the side of the western mountain, while a space of twenty paces only is left between its walls and the eastern mountains. The valley is open from the north, from whence the road approaches from Cairo; to the south, close behind the convent, it is shot up by a third mountain, less steep than the others, over which passes the road to Sherm. The convent is an irregular quadrangle of about 130 paces, enclosed by high and solid walls built of blocks of granite, and fortified by several small towers. It contains 8 or 10 small court yards, some of which are neatly laid out in beds of flowers and vogetables; a few dout in beds of flowers and vegetables; a few date trees and eypress also grow there, and great numbers of vines. The principal building is the great church; its form is an oblong square; the roof is supported by a double row of fine grant e columns; on the double row of fine grani e columns; on the dome over the alter are the portraits of the Emperor Justinian, a dhis wife Theodora, with a large picture of the transfiguration. An abundance of silver lamps, paintings, and portraits of saints, alorn the walls round the alter. The floor is finely paved with marble state.

In a small chapel adjoining the church is shown the supposed place where the Lord appeared to alose in the burning binsh.

After two days repose, we set out, on the 20th May, for the Djebel Moura, or Mountain of Moses; the road to which begins to ascend immediately behind the walls of the convent. Regular steps were formerly cut came to a small plain the entrance to which from below is through a stone pateway; a little beneath is stands Amidet the rocks, a shourth dedicated to the Vergin. On the plain is a large boulding of orade consurated the near the name of the convent of St. Elias, it is now abandoned According to the Kurth and the Maslem traditions it was in this part of the mountain, which is called piech (oreb, or Horeb. that Mosses commonlessed with the Lord. From hance a still intesper secent, of half an hour leads to the same of the plane of which the Lord. From hance a still intesper secent, of half an hour leads to the same of the mountain, which is the plane of which had no be principal object of the pilgrimage;—it is built on the very peak of the mountain the plane of which is at most, 60 papes in circumference. The view from this summerance, and the vivacity colsequent on the mountains.

We returned to the convext of St. Elias, the mountains, which stands opposite to that of Mosses, and forms the western cliff of this narrow valley. After proceeding about an hour we stopped near a small well, where we found everal hus of he Djebayle Arabs, and a cleared place among the rocks. I bought a lamb of the Arabs, which we rousted among the rocks; and though there were only two women and one girl present, and the steep side of the mountain scarcely permitted a person to stand up with thrmees and still less to where labout, the great part of the night.

mountain scarcely permitted a person to stand up with firmness and still less to wheel about, the greaten part of the night was spent in the Messamer or nationals and dance, to which several other neigh-bouring Djebavle were attracted. The air was delightfully cool and pure.

THE BACHLORS ELYSIUM.

From the Port Folio We are informed that there is in the other world, a place prepared for maids and bachelors, called Fidding's Gheen, where they are condemned for the lack of good ellowship in this world, to dance to gether to all eternity. One of a party who b en conversing on this subject, after Issuer boine, had his brain an occupied ith it, that in his dream he imagined him. with it, that in his dream he imagined fifth self dead, and translated to this scene of in cessan, fidding and dancing. After describing his journey to these merry abodes of hopping shades he says that on passing the conflicts, he perceived a female figure advancing with a rambling, rapid motion, resembling a hop skip and a jump. He now east a glance over his own person, as a genteel spirit would naturally do at the approach of a female, and for the first time, saw, that altho he had left his substance in the other world, he was possessed of an ary form precisely similar to the one he a ry 'oom precisely similar to the one he had left behind him, and was clad in the ghost of a suit of clothes made after the newest fashion, which he had purchased a tew days before his death. As the figure came near, she slackened her pace, and struck into a graceful chasse forward at truck into a graceful chassee forward, at the same time motioning to cross arisu-tet, which he no sooner did, than he fell a uancing with incredible agility

He is then conducted, or rather whirled

He is then conducted, or rather whirled away in a waltz by his fair companion, to the manager of the Green, where he has an opportunity of beholding the congregated celibacy of the place. The grotesque ap pearance of the ratious groupes particular ly amused him. The Grecian robe and the Roman toga, the Monkish cowl, the Monastic veil, and the blanket and the feathers of the Indian, were mingled in ludicrous cont ast? The allotment of partners was equally diverting.

equally diverting.

A gentleman in an embroidered suit led off a beggar girl, while a broad should red Mynneer flaun.ed with an Italian coun.ess Queen Elizabeth mas dancing a jig with requeen Elizabeth was dancing a jig with a jolly cobbler, a person of great bonhommie, but who failed not to apply the strap when his stately partner moved with less agility than comported with his notions."—
His attenion was then arrested by the ap pearance of a spare looking gentleman, advancing to the Genius of the place in high glee. Poor man! he had no sooner come up to a groupe of ladies, than a tall, swar thy, lanthern lawed, an iquated virgin, raised her foot, as a challenge for him to dance, whereupon they both fell to, and had danced six months, when he less them, without any

ON THE ADVANTAGE OF AN EMATY PURSE.

What advantages can there possibly be in an empty purse? Li-ten courteques read er, and I will tell you. When the uninitiated can discern nought but vacancy, there ated can discern mought but vacancy, there is a plenitude of instruction to the eye of philosophy. I must begin by telling you that I ouce had a full purse myself—before I turned author. I was not happy then The weight of my purse depressed my spirits. As it has grown lighter, they have risen in proportion.

When I had a full purse, I used to awake in the morning in all the deceitfulness of

When I had a full purse, I used to awake in the morning in all the deceitfulness of hope, to chase the ever flying anadow of pleasure the live long day, and lie down at night he the languor of satiety, or the bitterness of disappointment. I felt many a pang for fny misspent hours, barren alike of profit and pleasure. I made thany a fruitless resolution and many abottive efforts to emancipate myself from the typianny of ennui. But to the exhaustion of my purse I owe the recovery of my freedom. When I had money, I thought that there were no pleasures but such as were paid for This mistake was rectified by an empty purse. The fact is, there are no plea ty purse. The fact is, there are no plea sures like those you do not pay for. On the one hand, the consideration of payment

Joynents of the highest en Joynents of the theatre as I turmerly did withing the maller of the theatre as I turmerly did withing the maller of the theatre as I turmerly did withing the maller of the high of which it walls a place from the high of which it walls a place of the high of the odious vice.

The effect of this style of living upon my.

The clearness of my ideas, the soundness of my judgment, the brilliancy of my wit, the raciousness of my humour; but wherefore all this to my constant readers? they know the fact But the cause is ultimately to be traced to my empty purse.

empty jurse.

People may alk as they please about independence. Your only real independent man is he of the empty purse. What is the rise or fall of stock to him? What cares he rise or fall of stock to him? What cares he for commercial failures? What for high or low prices? What for tax ation or national debt?—What for commotions, revolutions the decline and fall of empires? Nothing the smile, at the robber by night and the failure of the smile of the robber by night and the failure of the state of the same and pick pocket with equal indifference, the is your free philosopher, worthy of the eye of Jove—one, who stands

The wreck of matter, and the crush of worlds."

IT'S ALL MOONSHINE.

When I was a boy, and lived with my grandmother at Willow grove, I remember, once walking out with her among the trees. once watking out with her among the trees that sheltered our green from the summer sun, one moonlight evening. We had not gone far, before the old lady perceived something on the ground that appeared like a white handkerchief, and as she attorned intent on platface and as she stooped intent on picking it up, I perceived that it was but the light of the moon shining through an opening in the branches above us. and called out, "La, grandma, it's all moon-hine!" at is but moonshine; truly," said she, rubbing her fingers in evident disappointment; "but, Oliver, many people grasp at moonshine."

I laughed at my good grandmother then, but I have since often witnessed the truth of her remark.

When I see a young man pursuing a gay butterfly of a girl, because she is beautiful, though she possesses none of the qualifications necessary to make a good house keep-er, or a good mother; it brings to my mind the old story, depend upon it he is grasping a phan om; it's all moonshine. When I see pleasure hunters, and those who are seeking after happiness, plunge in-to dissipation, or seek gay and giddy com-pany, or drink deep of the cup of semual enjoyment, I feel for them; I know the dis-appointment that awaits them; these are not the pearls of price, that bring with hem peace and content; they are worththem peace and content; they are worth-less, they are nothing but moonshine When I see a gambler for ever at the

When I see a gambler for ever at the billiard table, with eager hopes of making money thereby, and carrying with him the means by which alone his family can be supported, to squander it there, I think with a sigh, how sadly that poor man mis-takes the path of wisdom, and labours after that which is all moonshine.

He is grasping at moonshine, who strives to raise his consequence in the world by a suit offine ciothes, or an unpaid sideboard, and so is he who is aiming to build a foun-dation upon which to elevate himself in the ratimation of the world, of a few thousand of paltry dollars, for as Burn's says,

The rank is but the guinea's stamp. The man's the gold for all that, and none can ever become truly great but hose whom nature has fitted to be so These are plain, palpable cases; I have sometimes thought men were grasping at moonshine who attempted to live by literature, or make money by printing hempa-pers, or dreamed of collecting their debts, or of receiving legacies in those times, yet as these may be doubtful, I will not persist n them.—Emporium.

Abraham Hoffman, says the quaint author of the Anatomy of Mclancholy, relates, out of Plato, that rampe ocles, the philosopher, was present at the cutting up of one that died for love. His heartwas combust, his liver smoky, his lungs dried up, inso-much that he verify believes his soul was eithersod, or roasted, through the veha-mency of love's fire. Which, belike, made a modern writer of amorous emblems; egpress love's fury by a pot hanging over the fire, and Cupid bluwing the coals.

PUN LEGAL

A short time before the removal of the