

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING THE MARYLAND GAZETTE AND STATE REGISTER

Upon a new and improved plan. The Editor of the Maryland Gazette, designs making a considerable change in the plan and character of his paper. The reasons which induce him to adopt this measure are various, and they shall be briefly stated.

The Maryland Gazette was established in the year 1745, by one of the ancestors of the present editor. It was preceded in its publication, but by three other papers on this Continent, all of which it has survived. It is therefore at present the oldest paper in America. From the period of its establishment, until the year 1813, it preserved the same character, and the same title; anterior to this period, it was strictly a vehicle of general intelligence—it was not devoted to the views and objects of any particular party, but its columns were accessible to all.

At the commencement of this year (the most important period in the history of our country,) it was deemed necessary to give it a new character; and the better to designate its future course, an additional title also; it was henceforward called the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer. At this period great political excitement prevailed, and party spirit ragged with uncontrolled violence—our countrymen were divided into two great parties—the one approving, the other condemning the measures of the general government. Being forced by this state of things to take a part in the political contests of the day, the editor, after the maturest deliberation, and with the fullest conviction of his under standing, resolved to advocate, exclusively, that policy which was recommended by the federal party.

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, the subscriber will expose to public sale, at Marshall's Tavern, on Friday, the 21st day of November next, if fair if not the next fair day thereafter, THE LANDS Whereof Sarah Dorsey died seized, and which were devised to her by her father John Worthington; that is to say, part of a tract of land called Worthington's Beginning, containing about 500 acres, adjoining Spurrier's lands, where Merrilow keeps tavern—the above land has a large proportion of wood, and will be shewn by the tenant Mr. Elisha Walker. Also about 500 acres of land, called Part of Trusty Friend, Neighbour's Spite, Stonner's Hammer, Yeate's Good Will, Bachelor's Refuge, and The Fire Tong, lying on both sides of the Annapolis road, about one mile above the place formerly called Rummell's Tavern, in the Piney Woods; and will be shewn on application to the tenant, Samuel Warfield, Richard Disney, and Joseph Miller. Terms of Sale—One third of the purchase money to be paid within six months from the day of sale, with interest from the day of sale; one third with like interest in twelve months from the day of sale; and the residue, with like interest, in eighteen months from the day of sale; to be secured by bond with approved security. On the payment of the whole purchase money and the ratification of the sale, the subscriber is authorized to convey. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.

By virtue of an order from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, the subscriber will expose to public sale, at the Court-House in the city of Annapolis, on Saturday the 29th inst. at 11 o'clock, A. M. a Negro Woman named Betsy, and her infant child named Henry, late the property of Samuel Minsky, deceased. They will be sold for life. Terms of sale—Six months credit, on the purchaser giving bond, with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money, with interest, from the day of sale.

To the Members OF THE LEGISLATURE

The subscriber takes this mode of informing the Gentlemen of the Legislature, that he has fitted up and furnished his house in a very comfortable manner, for the accommodation of a few members at the coming session. His lodging rooms have been repaired, with regard solely to comfort; and those who may be disposed to favour him with their custom, may rely on having the best attendance and fare. Gentlemen who would prefer the quiet of a private house, to the bustle and confusion of a public one, will not be disappointed, and the proximity of his residence to the State House, will be an additional inducement to those whose health or habits render it necessary to avoid unnecessary exposure in severe weather.

DECISIONS

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrill, ANNAPO LIS.
Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,
To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Beverly Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1.25, payable on delivery. Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.

Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale his farm, whereon he now resides, situated in Anne Arundel county, on the head of Severn, containing 240 acres more or less; about one third of this land is cleared; and the remaining two thirds is in wood; this farm is about 11 miles from Annapolis and 19 miles from Baltimore, immediately on the road that leads from Annapolis to Baltimore; and about 2 miles from navigable water, the soil is well adapted to the growth of tobacco, corn, rye, oats, &c. The improvements are a two story frame dwelling house 28 feet by 18 nearly new, with a kitchen; black good stable, a wheelwright and blacksmith shop. To a person that would wish to keep a tavern I think there is none on the road from Annapolis to Baltimore better calculated than this stand, as the road that leads from Baltimore to Queen Anne & Upper Marlboro' passes directly by it—as persons inclined to purchase will view and judge for themselves, it is deemed unnecessary to be more particular in the description of this property. If it is not sold before the 15th day of November next, it will on that day be sold to the highest bidder. Any person inclined to purchase can know the terms by applying to the subscriber who will show the property, and make known the terms.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SCRIPTURAL HYMN.
Matthew, v. 28—Romans vii.—1st John iii 15.
How much my soul are they deceiv'd,
Who think they've not transgressed,
Excepting when the overt act
Of sin must stand contest!
Our Heavenly teacher lets us know,
Who wishes to commit
What God forbids, his law has broke
Nor can it him acquit!
The law itself, with clear command,
Bids cease to be gone;
And here the flimble'd Paul awoke,
And found himself undone.
How much transgression now he sees,
Where none had been contest,
He dies to all his fairy hopes:
He smites upon his breast.
Thus elsewhere, who his brother hates,
A murderer is call'd:
And with that guilt upon his soul,
Who must not be appal'd?
Lord, does thy judgment so convict,
And so condemn to die,
For secret actions of the mind?
Then, what a wretch am I!
What can atone for all my guilt?
What cleansing set me free
From such pollution spots so deep?
Ah, whither shall I flee?
JAM

THE FADED GARDEN.
Oh banquet not in those shining bowers,
For youth resorts—but come to me,
For mine's a garden of faded flowers,
Those fit for sorrow, for age, and thee.
And there we shall have our feast of tears,
And many a cup in silence pour—
Our guests the shades of former years,
Our toasts to lips that bloom no more.
There, while the myrtle's withering boughs
Their leafless leaves around us shed,
We'll bring the bowl to broken vows,
To friends long lost, the chang'd, the dead.
Or as some bright and laurel waves
Its breeches over the dreary spot,
We'll drink to those neglected graves,
Where valour sleeps unarm'd, forgot.
AUTUMN.
To these lovers of rural scenery
who are of a scriptus, meditative cast, the present season of the year is peculiarly pleasing. 'Tis true,
that it produces not that blithsome, joyous spirit, which is felt, whilst we behold and admire the expanding glories of spring; and that exhilarates in summer as we ramble
through verdant meadows, or recline
upon the grass-covered banks
of some softly murmuring rivulet,
or wander through the gay parterre, whose flowers disclose their beauties and exhale their fragrance
—but it creates a kind of feeling, and leads to reflections, that are profitable; and after the mind is fitted to receive and weigh the truths it would incalculable, it ceases to be either painful or irksome to dwell upon its just and sober admonition.
A few weeks ago, I passed a Sabbath with one of my neighbouring friends. The day was unusually serene and pleasant. Scarcely was there a cloud to break the uniformity
of the blue expanse of heaven.
The frost had despoiled the trees of verdure; and a light breeze that played among the branches, was depriving them of their variegated foliage.
I could not help admiring the appearance of the trees that covered
