Highly Important

Hair Restorative and Preservative VEGETABLE CERATE.

The important discovery of a vegetable substance, capable of restoring and preserving the Hair, was accidentally made by an individual who has neither the capacity nor the disposition to practise deception or fraud. The fullest reliance may be placed on the efficacy and power of the Vegetable Cerate, not only in restoring and preventing the falling off the hair, but in producing the greatest lustre and liveliness of it imaginable; and the public may rest assured that its effects will be clearly manifested in the course of a short time, by the renewal of vigorous growth of hair, and by effectually preventing its coming out or falling off. The Vegetable Cerate tends to resuscitate and excite the energies of the capillary vessels which constitute those organs that secrete the matter forming the hair; these like many other organs of the animal body, which have been in the state of dormancy or disease, may be restored to their healthy action, and perform all those functions assigned by nature. The proprietor being aware of the numerous specifics palmed on the public, and desiring that the present article may not suffer from false impressions, rests its merits on the effect it has produced on various persons who have used it, and all that is asked, as it relates to the verity of its effect, is a fair trial. Elderly people, with bald heads, may rest assured, that by applying a few boxes of the above cerate, their hair will be restored with all its beauty and life. To prevent imposition, the sale of the Vegetable Cerate will be confined to Dr James Hart, New York, corner Broadway and Chambers-streets, two doors from Washington, where will be sold at $1 75. A liberal deduction will be made to country dealers. The proprietor of the above valuable discovery, intends appointing agents through the United States for the sale of the same, and also in Europe. A few boxes of the above valuable article is just issued from New York, and for sale by Dr. John Love, at his old established Drug and Patent Medicine Store, No. 22, Centre Market Space, Baltimore, who is appointed by the proprietor sole agent for the state of Maryland. By virtue of the sole agency vested in me for the State of Maryland, I do hereby appoint the following agents for the sale of the valuable article above described: Messrs. SHAW & GAMBRIEL, at the City of Annapolis; Messrs. THOMAS WEBB & Co City of Washington; George Town, Messrs. OTHO M. LINTHICUM, & Co. JOHN LOVE, Sole Agent for the State of Maryland, Nov. 30, 1827.

The subscriber offers for sale his farm, whereon he now resides, situated in Anne Arundel county on the head of Severn, containing 250 acres more or less; about one third of this land is cleared, and the remaining two thirds is in wood; this farm is about 11 miles from Annapolis and 9 miles from Baltimore, immediately on the road that leads from Annapolis to Baltimore, and about 2 miles from navigable water, the soil is well adapted to the growth of tobacco, corn, rye, oats, &c. The improvements are a two story frame dwelling house 28 feet by 18 nearly new, with a kitchen; also a good stable, a wheelwright and black smith shop. To a person that would wish to keep a tavern, I think there is none on the road from Annapolis to Baltimore better calculated than this stand, as the road that leads from Baltimore to Queen Anne & Upper Marlboro' passes directly by it—as persons inclined to purchase will view and judge for themselves, it is deemed unnecessary to be more particular in the description of this property. DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrell, ANNAPOILIS, Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND, To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS. The price of each number of the Reports will be $ 25, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrell's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, or the respective Offices of the Court, Clerk of this State. Annapolis, June 1823.

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING THE MARYLAND GAZETTE AND STATE REGISTERS.

Upon a new and Improved Plan. The Editor of the Maryland Gazette, designs making a considerable change in the plan and character of his paper. The reasons which induce him to adopt this measure are various, and they shall be briefly stated.

The Maryland Gazette was established in the year 1765, by one of the ancestors of the present Editor. It was printed in its publication, but by three other papers on this Continent, all of which it has survived. It is therefore at present the oldest paper in America. From the period of its establishment, until the year 1813, it preserved the same character, and the same title; anterior to this period, it was strictly a vehicle of general intelligence—it was not devoted to the views and objects of any particular party, but its columns were accessible to all. At the commencement of that year (a most momentous period in the history of our country,) it was deemed necessary to give it a new character; and the better to designate its future course, an additional title also; it was henceforward entitled the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligence. At this period great political excitement prevailed, and party spirit raged with uncontrolled violence—our country men were divided into two great parties—the one approving, the other condemning the measures of the general government. Being forced by this state of things to take a part in the political contests of the day, the editor, after the maturest deliberation, and with the fullest conviction of his understanding, resolved to advocate, exclusively, that policy which was recommended by the federal party. If he differed from a majority of his countrymen, he differed honestly; and whether his views and sentiments were erroneous or not, they were dictated by the purest patriotism, and proceeded from an ardent desire to promote, what he conceived to be the best interests of his country. But these scenes have passed away—times have changed—and the situation of our country is now very different. We are in the full enjoyment of almost every national blessing—we are not only exempt from the horrors of war, but we are every where blessed with plenty and abundance. Our commerce, our agriculture, and our manufactures are comparatively flourishing—far more so than they were in any former quarter of the globe. But above all, the demo of party spirit is now laid, and we trust forever; the era of good feelings has now, we hope, indeed arrived, when the only contest will be, who can do his country most service; and when in appointment to office, the only questions asked will be, Is he honest? Is he capable? Is he virtuous? To Mr. Monroe much praise must be accorded for that state of harmony, which has for some time past pervaded our country—so wise has been the course of policy that he has pursued, that he has satisfied all parties, and left us nothing to dispute about. So great then has been the change of circumstances which a few years have produced, not only in our own country, but in Europe also, that the Editor deems it no longer necessary to continue his paper as the advocate of any particular political party. Its columns will henceforth be open to all who may choose to avail themselves of them, without any other restrictions than requiring decency of language, the avoiding personalities, and correctness of composition. But it will be the peculiar object of the Editor to render his paper subservient to the best interests of his own state—He wishes to make it emphatically a State Paper. By this expression, he means a paper, whose province it will be to uphold and maintain the honour and dignity of the state—to promote her prosperity by diffusing such information with regard to her resources and her means of internal improvement, as he may be enabled to obtain. As an indication of the future character of his paper, he gives to it the new title of State Register. It will in future become the repository of all state documents, and of such other information as may tend to elucidate the history of the state, or promote its improvement and prosperity. It will also be the object of the Editor to present his patrons with the earliest intelligence, foreign or domestic; and he will be particularly careful to devote a due portion of his paper to the interests of Agriculture, Manufactures, and Domestic Economy.—With this statement of his objects and his views, the Editor submits his plan to the patronage of the public—Should it be favoured with their support, he will endeavour not to disappoint the expectation that may be excited.

Insufficient encouragement be afforded, the paper will be enlarged to an imperial size, and printed with a new type.
