

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING THE MARYLAND GAZETTE AND STATE REGISTER.
Upon a new and improved plan.
 The Editor of the Maryland Gazette, designs making a considerable change in the plan and character of his paper. The reasons which induce him to adopt this measure are various, and they shall be briefly stated.

The Maryland Gazette was established in the year 1745, by one of the ancestors of the present editor. It was preceded in its publication, but by three other papers on this Continent, all of which it has survived. It is therefore at present the oldest paper in America. From the period of its establishment, until the year 1813, it preserved the same character, and the same title; anterior to this period, it was strictly a vehicle of general intelligence—it was not devoted to the views and objects of any particular party, but its columns were accessible to all. At the commencement of that year (a most momentous period in the history of our country,) it was deemed necessary to give to it a new character; and the better to designate its future course, an additional title also; it was henceforward called the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligence. At this period great political excitement prevailed, and party spirit raged with uncontrolled violence—our country men were divided into two great parties—the one opposing the other—concerning the measures of the general government. Being forced by this state of things to take a part in the political contests of the day, the editor, after the maturest deliberation, and with the fullest conviction of his understanding, resolved to advocate, exclusively, that policy which was recommended by the federal party. If he differed from a majority of his countrymen, he differed honestly; and whether his views and sentiments were erroneous or not, they were the dictate of a sincere desire to promote, what he conceived to be, the best interests of his country. But these scenes have passed away—times have changed—and the situation of our country is now very different. We are in the full enjoyment of almost every national blessing—we are not only exempt from the horrors of war, but we are every where blessed with plenty and abundance. Our commerce, our agriculture, our manufactures are comparatively flourishing—far more so perhaps than in any other quarter of the globe. But above all, the demon of party spirit is now laid, and we trust for ever; the era of good feelings has now, we hope, indeed arrived, when the only contest will be, who can do his country most service; and when in appointment to office, the only questions asked will be, Is he honest? Is he capable? Is he virtuous? To Mr. Monroe much praise must be accorded for that state of harmony, which has for some time past pervaded our country—so wise has been the course of policy that he has pursued, that he has satisfied all parties, and left us nothing to dispute about. So great then has been the change of circumstances which a few years have produced, not only in our own country, but in Europe also, that the Editor deems it no longer necessary to continue his paper as the advocate of any particular political party. Its columns will henceforth be open to all who may choose to avail themselves of them, without any other restrictions than requiring decency of language, the avoiding personalities, and correctness of composition. But it will be the peculiar object of the Editor to render his paper subservient to the best interests of his own state—He wishes to make it emphatically a State Paper. By this expression, he means a paper, whose province it will be to uphold and maintain the honour and dignity of the state—to promote her prosperity by diffusing such information with regard to her resources and her means of internal improvement, as he may be enabled to obtain. As an indication of the future character of his paper, he has given to it the new title of State Register. It will in future become the repository of all state documents, and of such other information as may tend to elucidate the history of the state, or promote its improvement and prosperity. It will also be the object of the Editor to present his patrons with the earliest intelligence, foreign or domestic; and he will be particularly careful to devote a due portion of his paper to the interests of Agriculture, Manufactures, and Domestic Economy. With this statement of his objects and his views, the Editor submits his plan to the patronage of the public—Should it be favoured with their support, he will endeavour not to disappoint the expectation that may be excited. If sufficient encouragement be afforded, the paper will be enlarged to an imperial size, and printed with a new type.

 Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,
 To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
 These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
 The price of each number of the Reports will be $1.25, payable on delivery.
