DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrill, ANNAPOIS, Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND. To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law. These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, if it conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt. TERMS. The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery. Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state. Annapolis, June 1823. 52

To the Public.

The sale advertised in the Md. Republican to take place at my house on the 5th inst signed by William O'Hara, Sheriff, will not take place. The levy on the property therein mentioned took place during my absence from home, and while attending to my legislative duties, and when there were no persons present but servants, except the deputy sheriff, the appraisers and Benjamin H. Mulliken George Cook, Esq. was one of the appraisers, his conduct was gentlemanly and highly honorable to him, I thank him for it.—Vachel Brown, who had lived with me some years before as a manager, was the other appraiser, his conduct was such as I shall hereafter notice. The deputy sheriff (Mr. Bassford,) I shall say nothing about at present—only that he permitted Benjamin H Mulliken, to open my portable desk, examine my private papers, and perhaps pocketed some, besides pulling at the rings or handles of my secretary, & endeavouring to break that open, as well as searching my book case—more of this hereafter. Very respectfully, Your obedient servant, GEORGE HOWARD, (of B) P. S. I am prepared to prove this, and much more on this subject. Elk Ridge, April 2, 1824. 2

In Council,

Annapolis, March 12, 1824. Ordered, That the following Supplement to an Act, entitled, "An act to regulate and discipline the Militia of this State," be published once a week, for six successive weeks, in all the newspapers edited in this state, and the National Intelligencer. By order, Ninian Pinkney, Clk. The respective editors will be pleased to transmit to the Executive Department evidence showing that this order has been strictly complied with, when the same has been done. Ninian Pinkney. A SUPPLEMENT to an act, entitled, "An act to regulate and discipline the Militia of this State." [Passed December Session, 1813.] Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every commandant of a regiment, or extra battalion, is hereby required, under the penalty of fifty dollars for every neglect or refusal, in each and every year hereafter, to order two meetings of all the commissioned officers attached to his regiment or extra battalion, at some central place thereof, on such days as are hereafter provided for by this act, and there drill and instruct, or cause said officers to be drilled and instructed, in all the necessary duties of a soldier, and to adopt the manoeuvres and discipline as established for the army of the United States; and any field officer neglecting or refusing to attend any of said meetings, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than five dollars, (at the discretion of a brigade court martial) for every such neglect, unless he can give a reasonable excuse; and any company or staff officer neglecting or refusing to attend any of said meetings, shall be fined, at the discretion of a regimental or extra battalion court martial, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, nor less than two dollars, for every such neglect, unless he can give a reasonable excuse; and all officers, who by this section are required to attend said meetings, shall appear in uniform, and with side arms, under a penalty of five dollars for every neglect or refusal; which fines and forfeitures shall be collected as other fines of a similar nature are directed to be collected by the act to which this is a supplement, and shall be paid over to the respective paymasters of the regiments and extra battalions, to which such delinquents shall belong. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the time of meeting for the commissioned officers of regiments or extra battalions, shall be on the second Saturday in April and August annually, at ten o'clock, A. M. For the battalion masters on the third Saturday in May for the first battalion, and the fourth Saturday in May for the second battalion, annually, at ten o'clock, A. M. Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of every commandant of a company to cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of April annually, to every person in his company district subject to militia duty, a written or printed notice of the time and place of the company meetings, and company court-martial for the ensuing year, and this shall be considered due and sufficient notice; and any private neglecting or refusing to attend such meetings, after such due notice given him, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two dollars, nor less than fifty cents, (at the discretion of a company court-martial,) for every such neglect or refusal. Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the fines and forfeitures imposed by company court-martial, when collected, shall be applied, under the direction of the commanding officer of the respective companies, to and for the use of the respective companies in which the same may be collected, and that in no case shall the commandants of companies remit the fines imposed by such courts-martial. Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the nonpayment of any fine or forfeiture imposed by this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, by any person or delinquent, it shall be the duty of the constable of the district or hundred wherein such delinquent resides, after thirty days notice given to such delinquent, which notice shall be given by such constable within thirty days after he shall have received such fine or forfeiture for collection, to collect the same by warrant and judgment from any justice of the peace of the county wherein the parties may reside. Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if shall be the duty of the commanders of companies of infantry and cavalry, to make out a complete return of all the officers and men, and the condition and number of their arms and equipments belonging to the state, within his district, subject to do militia duty under his command annually, on or before the twentieth day of October, and to deliver the same to the commanders of battalions or extra battalions of infantry, or squadrons of cavalry, as the case may be, and on refusal or neglect to do the same, shall be cashiered, or punished by fine not exceeding thirty dollars, at the discretion of a regimental court martial; and it shall be the duty of the commanders of such battalions or extra

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every commandant of a regiment, or extra battalion, is hereby required, under the penalty of fifty dollars for every neglect or refusal, in each and every year hereafter, to order two meetings of all the commissioned officers attached to his regiment or extra battalion, at some central place thereof, on such days as are hereafter provided for by this act, and there drill and instruct, or cause said officers to be drilled and instructed, in all the necessary duties of a soldier, and to adopt the manoeuvres and discipline as established for the army of the United States; and any field officer neglecting or refusing to attend any of said meetings, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than five dollars, (at the discretion of a brigade court martial) for every such neglect, unless he can give a reasonable excuse; and any company or staff officer neglecting or refusing to attend any of said meetings, shall be fined, at the discretion of a regimental or extra battalion court martial, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars, nor less than two dollars, for every such neglect, unless he can give a reasonable excuse; and all officers, who by this section are required to attend said meetings, shall appear in uniform, and with side arms, under a penalty of five dollars for every neglect or refusal; which fines and forfeitures shall be collected as other fines of a similar nature are directed to be collected by the act to which this is a supplement, and shall be paid over to the respective paymasters of the regiments and extra battalions, to which such delinquents shall belong. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the time of meeting for the commissioned officers of regiments or extra battalions, shall be on the second Saturday in April and August annually, at ten o'clock, A. M. For the battalion masters on the third Saturday in May for the first battalion, and the fourth Saturday in May for the second battalion, annually, at ten o'clock, A. M. Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of every commandant of a company to cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of April annually, to every person in his company district subject to militia duty, a written or printed notice of the time and place of the company meetings, and company court-martial for the ensuing year, and this shall be considered due and sufficient notice; and any private neglecting or refusing to attend such meetings, after such due notice given him, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two dollars, nor less than fifty cents, (at the discretion of a company court-martial,) for every such neglect or refusal. Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the fines and forfeitures imposed by company court-martial, when collected, shall be applied, under the direction of the commanding officer of the respective companies, to and for the use of the respective companies in which the same may be collected, and that in no case shall the commandants of companies remit the fines imposed by such courts-martial. Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the nonpayment of any fine or forfeiture imposed by this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, by any person or delinquent, it shall be the duty of the constable of the district or hundred wherein such delinquent resides, after thirty days notice given to such delinquent, which notice shall be given by such constable within thirty days after he shall have received such fine or forfeiture for collection, to collect the same by warrant and judgment from any justice of the peace of the county wherein the parties may reside. Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if shall be the duty of the commanders of companies of infantry and cavalry, to make out a complete return of all the officers and men, and the condition and number of their arms and equipments belonging to the state, within his district, subject to do militia duty under his command annually, on or before the twentieth day of October, and to deliver the same to the commanders of battalions or extra battalions of infantry, or squadrons of cavalry, as the case may be, and on refusal or neglect to do the same, shall be cashiered, or punished by fine not exceeding thirty dollars, at the discretion of a regimental court martial; and it shall be the duty of the commanders of such battalions or extra

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrill, ANNAPOIS, Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND. To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law. These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, if it conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt. TERMS. The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery. Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state. Annapolis, June 1823. 52

To the Public.

The sale advertised in the Md. Republican to take place at my house on the 5th inst signed by William O'Hara, Sheriff, will not take place. The levy on the property therein mentioned took place during my absence from home, and while attending to my legislative duties, and when there were no persons present but servants, except the deputy sheriff, the appraisers and Benjamin H. Mulliken George Cook, Esq. was one of the appraisers, his conduct was gentlemanly and highly honorable to him, I thank him for it.—Vachel Brown, who had lived with me some years before as a manager, was the other appraiser, his conduct was such as I shall hereafter notice. The deputy sheriff (Mr. Bassford,) I shall say nothing about at present—only that he permitted Benjamin H Mulliken, to open my portable desk, examine my private papers, and perhaps pocketed some, besides pulling at the rings or handles of my secretary, & endeavouring to break that open, as well as searching my book case—more of this hereafter. Very respectfully, Your obedient servant, GEORGE HOWARD, (of B) P. S. I am prepared to prove this, and much more on this subject. Elk Ridge, April 2, 1824. 2
