OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND, To be Reported by Thomas Harris. Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law. These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already pub-lished by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not les than one hundred and twenty five pages and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Incex. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that a publishing the posts in human volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

A SUPPLEMENT to an act, entitled An act to regulate and discipline the Militia of this State.

[Passed December Session, 1823]

Sec. 7. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every commandant of a regi-ment, or extra battalion, is hereby required, under the penalty of fifty dollars for every neglect or refusal, in each and every year hereafter, to order two meetings of all the commissioned officers attached to his regiment or extra battalion, at some central place thereof, on such days as are hereafter provided for by this act, and there drill and instruct, or cause said officers to be drilled and instructed, in all the necessary duties of a soldier, and to adopt the manocuvres and discipline as established for the army of the United States; and any field officer neglecting or re fusing to attend any of said meetings, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than five dol lars, (at the discretion of a brigade court martial) for every such neglect, unless he can give a reasonable excuse; and any company or staff officer neglecting or refusing to attend any of said meetings, shall be fined, at the discretion of a regimental or extra battalion court martal, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars nor less than two dollars, for every such neglect, unless he can give a reasonable excuse; and all officers, who by this section are required to attend said meetings, shall appear in uniform, and with side arms, under a penalty of five dollars for every neglect or refusal; which fines and forfeitures shall be collected as other fines of a similar nature are directed to be collected by the act to wnich this is a supplement, and shall be paid over to the respective paymasters of the regi ments and extra battulions, to which such delinquents shall belong.

Sec 2. And be it enacted, That the time of meeting for the commissioned officers of regiments or extra battalions, shall be on the second Saturday in April and August annually, at ten o'clock, A. M For the battalion musters on the third Saturday in May for the first battalion, and the fourth Saturday in May for the second battalion, annually, at ten o'clock, A. M.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted. That it shall be the duty of every commandant of a company to cause to be de livered, on or before the first day of April annually, to every person in his company district subject to militia duty, a written or printed notice of the time and place of the company meetings, and company courts-martial, for the ensuing year, and this shall be considered due and sufficient notice; and any private neglecting or refusing to attend such meetings, ter such due notice given him, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two dollars, nor less than fifty cents, (at the discretion of a company courtmartial,) for every such neglect or refusal.

fines and forfeitures imposed by company court-martial, when collected, shall i be applied, under the direction of the commanding officer of the respective companies, to and for the use of the respective companies in which the same may be collected, and that in no case shall the commandants of companies remit the fines imposed by such courts-martial.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the nonpayment of any fine or forteit-ure imposed by this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, by any person or delinquent, it shall be the duty of the constable of the district or hundred wherein such delinquent sides, after thirty days notice given to such delinquent, which notice shall be given by such constable within thirty days after he shall have received such fine or forfeiture for collection, to col lect the same by warrant and judgment from any justice of the neace of the county wherein the parties may
