

Important and Extensive SALE

Of very valuable Negroes, Household and Kitchen Furniture, Oxen, Horses, Cows, Sheep, Hogs, Tobacco, Corn, Wheat, Rye, Oats, Hay, Agricultural Implements, &c. &c.

In pursuance of an order of the honorable the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, the undersigned, administrator of the estate of Dr. Beale M. Worthington, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, to make sale of all the personal estate of said deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned will expose to public auction, on Wednesday, the 10th day of October next, at the hour of ten, A. M. at the late residence of Dr. Worthington, and at the farm called Wilkes's, both distant four miles from the city of Annapolis, the following valuable property, to wit: From twenty to thirty able bodied negro slaves for life, handsome household and kitchen furniture of every description, a choice collection of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep, well worthy the attention of Farmers and Butchers; four yoke of first rate working oxen, a quantity of tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, oats, hay, and agricultural implements, in fine, every requisite for conducting, on the most extensive scale, the two large plantations cultivated by Dr. Worthington.

Conditions of Sale.—The order of the orphans court imperatively prescribes, that all purchasers under the sum of twenty dollars pay the cash; and that bonds, with unquestionable securities, to make payment at the expiration of six months, be exacted from all persons whose purchases exceed twenty dollars; said bonds to carry interest from the day of sale. In no case will any property be delivered unless the above terms are literally complied with.

The administrator hopes and expects, that all persons who attend the sale with intent to buy, will bear well in mind the above preliminaries, and come prepared accordingly; much vexation and trouble will thereby be saved, and the spared the mortification of seeing their purchases instantly re-exposed to sale, at their cost.— Sale to continue from day to day until all the property is disposed of.

Anne Arundel county, Orphans Court, July 17th, 1824.

On application by petition of Rachael Lucas & Osborn Lucas, administrators of John Lucas, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in the Maryland Gazette.

THOMAS HALL, Reg. of Wills, A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given,

That the subscribers of Anne Arundel county, have obtained from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, in Md letters of administration on the personal estate of John Lucas, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers hereof, to the subscribers, at or before the 21st day of January next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under our hands this 17th day of July, 1824.

Rachel Lucas & Osborn Lucas, Administrators.

50 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, living near Tracy's Landing, Anne Arundel county, Md on the 15th instant, a negro man, named but commonly called CV, a bright mulatto, five feet five or six inches in height, stout made, aged about twenty five years. He left home in company with several others, for the purpose of going to a Camp Meeting, on Holland's Point, intending to practise to cross from thence to the Eastern Shore.—Should he not have succeeded in getting across the Bay, he is probably either in Calvert or St. Mary's county; he has been in and about Annapolis, as I have been informed. Had on a blue cloth coat, white pantaloons, and a fur hat nearly new; had also a bundle of other cloths with him. The above reward will be given if taken out of the state—thirty dollars if out of the county—and fifteen dollars if taken in the county, and secured so that he may be recovered.

SIMON,

DECISIONS

OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

Shaw & Gambrill,

ANNAPOLIS.

Propose to Publish by Subscription, THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.

The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions to the above Work are received at Shaw & Gambrill's Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state.

EDUCATION.

The subscriber, desiring to improve the citizens of Annapolis, and the vicinity, that he has opened an English Academy, in a shop-house lately occupied as a milliner, by Miss A. Auld. And as his manner of conducting an institution of this kind, is well known in this city, he flatters himself with the anticipation of a liberal patronage.

Though he is fully impressed with the importance and responsibility of teaching, he is at the same time convinced of his own want of ability, to discharge the duties which devolve upon one, who undertakes to train up youth in the path of science, and to fit them for future usefulness. It is, however, sincerely believed that his friends, and those who are best acquainted with him, will attribute such inability, not to the want of experience, but consider it, as in some degree, at least, common with all men. W. WILSON.

TERMS.

Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, Mensuration, Algebra, Mathematics, History and Composition. $4, paid quarterly in advance.

At the particular request of Mr. William Wilson, proceeded to examine him in the different branches of English education which he proposes to teach, viz: English Grammar, Geography, with the use of the maps and globes, Arithmetic, Mensuration, Geometry, and the Mathematical, and it affords me pleasure to state that he answered such questions as were put to him with promptness and facility, and I have no hesitation in saying, that I believe him well qualified to instruct in those branches, with honor to himself and advantage to his pupils.

Mr. Wilson also possesses other literary acquirements which amply fit him to discharge the duties of an English Academy. He is unquestionably a young gentleman of correct moral habits, and highly deserving the patronage of those, who wish their children instructed in an English education. Given under my hand, this 23d day July, 1824. A. D. KELLY, Spring Hill Academy, Louisa County, Va. August 10. 1f

Mr. Hughes,

Of this city, has compiled and printed a volume entitled

The Maryland Militia Hand-Book.

CONTAINING

Part 1. The existing militia laws of the state and the amendments thereto, of which there are about 14, with marginal notes, references and remarks; (excepting the militia law of Baltimore which has recently been published in pamphlet form, and being entirely of local operation is omitted.)
Part 2. Abstracts of the several laws of the United States which relate to militia either when in or out of service—and embracing the rules and articles of war at large, the regulations of the army, particularly respecting the Police Duty of each day in camp—regulations respecting Guards and Centinels, compliments by individuals, by companies, by guards to colours, &c.—Salutes. Directions for review and inspection—Ranks of corps and of officers—Pay and allowance—Rations; Mustering when ordered in, or discharged the service—Details, Arrests, Courts Martial, Drum Beats, Funeral Honours, &c.

Part 3. The Exercise and Manoeuvres as performed in the army of the United States and directed to be adopted by the militia of Maryland, abridged for the use of the latter; containing, 1. The school of the soldier and squad exercise. 2. School of the company. 3. School of the battalion. A complete Index is attached.

It is not unimportant or unprofitable in its nature to be directed at the public expense. No authority existed in this instance to authorize the Executive to incur such an expenditure.—The present edition is at individual expense, and therefore is necessarily limited to such a number as would readily be disposed of. The price unbound will be $1 per copy.

It is especially submitted to the officers of regiments at a distance, to associate, in ordering such a number of copies as may be required by them, which will be carefully forwarded as may be directed.

JER. HUGHES.

Annapolis, August 23, 1824.

J. Hughes, Esq. Sir, I have carefully looked through the "Maryland Militia Hand-Book," compiled and printed by you, and think it well calculated to be useful, more especially in the hands of the militia, which have always wanted some such guide.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant. RICHARD HARWOOD, (of Thos.) Adjutant-General M. M.

This is to give notice,
