

ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY.

Dist.	1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.	7.	Total.
	333	283	243	193	143	93	43	1,333
77	112	328	148	151				1,147
90	75	185	156	154				1,068
69	75	200	129	104				998
41	83	181	190	117				691
85	92	144	126	63				581
2	94	89	19	00				198
26	9	98	204	111				437
32	77	67	106	48				441

61	51	120	226	153	136	1,004
76	137	289	150	118	164	1,167

... the return of the votes for Mr. Sheriff...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... the bill of exchange, in which the suit was founded...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... an inferior court according to the technical sense of the term as used in England...

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... against a stranger, and to render the law in relation to sales of land, by seri facias worse than a mockery.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

... that they approached more danger than they are willing to acknowledge. Say what they will, they know that Mr. Adams is rapidly losing ground in this State, and their conduct betrays that they are not a little alarmed. We wish not to raise, here or elsewhere, unwarranted expectations as to the issue of the election, but we do believe what we have heretofore expressed, and what recent intelligence confirms, that the electoral vote of this State will not be given to Mr. Adams.

Chancery Sales

By virtue of a decree of the court of Chancery the subscriber will expose to public sale on Friday the 23d day of October, instant, if fair, if not the next fair day thereafter, at Hunter's Tavern in the city of Annapolis, (part of a tract or parcel) land whereof John Wood, (of Wm.) died seized, &c. "Carter Bennett," containing about 100 acres. The land lies near Harling Key, and adjoins the lands of Mr. John Scribner and Mr. Edmund Ovington, (of Md.) Terms of Sale. One third of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, or application thereof, and the balance to be secured by bond, with approved security, payable within six months from the day of sale, with interest. On payment of the purchase money, and ratification of the sale, the certificate of title, with necessary powers, shall be given to the purchaser.

... of the National Intelligencer. The extract of a letter from a Republican of high standing in Connecticut, in relation to the Presidential question, is printed in the National Intelligencer. It is therein stated that Mr. Crawford was represented to be at the point of death, and the charges of Ninian Edwards were preferred against Mr. Crawford with such an air of assurance, Mr. Adams obtained a nomination in the Legislative Council of the State. At that moment, Mr. Crawford's friends here believed him out of the question, and voted for Mr. Adams; but since his restoration to health, and his masterly refutation of Mr. Edwards' charges, and his triumphant acquittal by the able and honorable Committee of Investigation, composed for the most part of his political opponents, his friends have rallied with fresh vigour in this State—the reaction of the public mind has been unprecedently rapid and extensive, and I have no doubt that the Electoral Ticket for Mr. Crawford, which will soon be formed, will, in November next, be supported with a most decided and overwhelming majority.

ST. PAUL'S CLOCK, LONDON
Of which the following is an exact description.
The diameter of the dial plate, feet 15 10 inches.
The hour hand, 5 8
The minute do, 9 8
The hour figures, 2 2
The minute do, one foot each
The do. stroke 6 inches.
And the rim to the minutes, 45 feet.

ATTENTION!
Annapolis United Guards.
You are ordered to assemble for inspection and drill on your parade ground on Saturday evening next at half past 2 o'clock, with arms and accoutrements in complete order.
By order
Wm. Kilty O. S.

NEW GOODS.
The subscriber has just received his
FALL & WINTER GOODS,
Comprising an extensive selection of Dry Goods, Groceries, Liquors, &c.
Old Cogniac Brandy, Holland Gin, Jamaica Spirit, N. E. Rum, Whiskey, Molasses, Hyson and Young Hyson Tea, of a very superior quality. Loaf and Brown Sugar, Coffee, Rice and Ground Ginger, Raisins, Barley Soap, Candles, Salt, winter strained Spiced Mustard, Pepper, Cinnamon, Tobacco, Segars, Wool Cards, Cotton Yarn, Sitters, Choccolate, Prunes, Apples and Scotch Snuff, Crackers in tins &c. Also an assortment of Drugs and Medicines, Queensware and Porter,
Also a general assortment of Mens, Womens, Youths, coarse and fine Shoes, various styles of Beavers Hats and Wool ditto.
Best Family Flour.
Those who purchase his flour will be delivered to their free of charge.
He informs the public that he intends continuing his auction sales during the winter season, and will attend to the sale of books or other articles, that may be consigned to him. He offers for sale a two story brick house.
RICHARD RIDGELY,
Oct. 7 6w.

Chancery Sale.
By virtue of a Decree of the court of Chancery, the subscriber will expose to Public Sale, at Hunter's Tavern, in the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 23d day of October, instant, if fair, if not the next fair day thereafter, a Tract or parcel of Land, whereof Richard Facker died seized, called Snowden's Reputation Supported, containing about 53 1/2 acres, and adjoining the Lands of Mr. Joseph Evans. The terms of sale are:—The purchaser is to pay on third of the purchase money on the day of sale, or ratification thereof, and to give bond, with approved security, for payment of the purchase money within six months from the day of sale, with interest from the day of sale. On payment of the purchase money, and ratification of the sale, the subscriber is authorized to convey.
Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.
Louis Gussaway Trustee.
Oct 7

Chancery Sale.
By virtue of a decree of the court of Chancery, the subscriber will expose to public sale, at Hunter's Tavern, in the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 23d day of October, instant, if fair, if not the next fair day thereafter, two lots of ground near Elk Ridge Landing, one of the lots contains an acre of land, upon which stands a dwelling house, and other out houses; the other lot contains about seven acres, or more, or owned by the James Ray. Terms of Sale. One half of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, or the ratification thereof, and the other half to be secured by bond, with approved security, payable within six months from the day of sale, with interest. On payment of the purchase money, and ratification of the sale, the subscriber is authorized to execute a deed. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.
Louis Gussaway Trustee.
Oct 7.

Weaving & Braiding HAIR.
The subscriber takes this method of informing the Ladies and Gentlemen of Annapolis, that she weaves and braids Hair for Necklaces, Bracelets, Rings and Watch Chains, on moderate terms, and in the best manner. Those who may want Hair woven or braided, are requested to call at her dwelling in Church Street, at the door above Mr. G. White's.
M. COLBURN.

Sep. 30. 2

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."

EXTRACT.
Of a letter from a member of Congress, living in the interior of New York, to a friend in Massachusetts, dated Sept. 19. "In relation to the political concerns of our State, no well informed man here has any doubts that our 35 votes will be given for Mr. Crawford, if he lives until the election—nor do his opponents at home here hesitate to acknowledge it. The different language you see held out by some of our city papers is designed for foreign readers.
"Col. Young and nearly all of his supporters are very open and decided and there is a majority of not less than 15 in our legislature that is equally so—aside from these, there is about 12 or 13 others that may be fairly calculated on, and you will see in the end that Crawford Electors will be chosen by a majority of nearly 20."