

THURSDAY, January 20, 1825.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Tyson presents a petition from Fitz King, referred to the committee on similar subjects.

FRIDAY, January 21, 1825.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The speaker laid before the house the report of the trustees of the Hagers Town Academy, referred to the committee on similar subjects.

SATURDAY, January 22, 1825.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The bill for the more speedy administration of justice in the first judicial district, and the bill to limit the number of justices of the peace in the several counties in this state, were sent to the senate.

MONDAY, January 24, 1825.

The house met. Present the same members as on Saturday. The proceedings of Saturday were read. The speaker appointed Mr. Merrick on the committee of ways and means in the place of Mr. Steele.

The additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act to establish the line between Frederick and Washington counties, passed at November session 1810, chapter 6, was read the second time, and sent to the senate.

TUESDAY, January 25, 1825.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The bill giving compulsory process after summons to appear the attendance of witnesses in criminal and other proceedings, in the high court of chancery, was sent to the senate.

Maryland Gazette ANNAPOLIS THURSDAY, JAN. 27, 1825.

United States Senator. The Hon. Edward Linn, was on Tuesday re-elected by our legislature senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States, for the six years ending the fourth of March next. He received 54 votes.

THE PRESIDENCY. The Georgetown Metropolitan of Monday last says: "The thermometer relating to the Presidential question varies as much as our climate—it is in a word, an impenetrable ambiguity."

The bill for the suppression of Piracy, it will be seen, is now undergoing in the Senate of the United States a serious deliberation corresponding with the great importance of the subject.

The Boston memorial to Congress upon this subject concludes in the following strong terms: "Should negotiations [with Spain] fail of the desired effect, the whole American people would be welive with one heart and one mind second any measures that Congress in their wisdom shall devise, even to the assuming a forcible possession of its territory."

DUTIES. [From the National Journal.]

It appears, from the documents accompanying the report of the secretary of the Treasury, that the total value of importations for the three quarters ending June 30, 1824, was $9,087,137; of which $9,008,744 consisted of importations free of duty.

Table with columns: Imports, Duties. Rows for 3d Quarter of 1823, 3d Quarter of 1824, and Increase of duties in 3d quarter of 1824.

The above refers exclusively to importations subject to duties: The following exhibits the amount free of duty, and the total value of importations: Free of duty. Total imports.

PHILADELPHIA. Between 25 and 300 houses were built in Philadelphia the last year. Among the public buildings were the Matthews Church, Washington Hall, and the building for the accommodation of the deaf and dumb.

By order, ISAAC HINES, CLK. On motion by Mr. Lee, Ordered, That the bill relative to the Potomac River, have a second reading to-morrow. Mr. John Edelen, presents a petition from Matthew Moore of Charles county, praying that the register of the land office may be authorized to receive a certificate and plot of Long Chase, referred to Messrs. John Edelen, Chapman and Garner.