BY HIS EXCELLENCY, Samuel Stevens,

Governor of Maryland.

A PROOLAMATION. Whereas, information has been re ceived by the Executive of said state, committed on or about the 1st day of April last, at Prince-Frederick Town in Calvert county, on a certain Charles L. Dougherty, by George W. Crane, of said county, and that the said
Crane has fled from justice. And whereas it is of the first importance to society that perpetrators of such offences should be bro't to condign punishment, I have thought proper to is sue this my proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the council offer a reward of

200 DOLLARS

To any person or persons who shall apprehend the said George W. Crane and deliver him to the sheriff, or in the fail of Anne Arundel county from which he made his escape; provided that the reward hereby offered, shall be in hea of the same sum offer ed by William O'Hara, Esq, late sheriff of Anne Arundel county, upon the escape of said Crane.

Given under my hand and Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Maryland, this tenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five.
SAMUEL STEVENS,

By command of his Excellency, THOS. CULBRETH.

Clerk of the Council. Description of the said

GEORGE W. CRANE. He is a native of Calvert county. where he has a family. He is about forty five years of age, five feet from seven to nine inches high, rather slender made, thin visage and sharpiy pointed features, a little bald on the crown of the head, has blue eyes, black

DECISIONS

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARY-PUBLISHED By Subscription.

THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions willform a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1803. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume The last number of each volume will con-tain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses ad vantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not nore than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will $1 25, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions to the above Work are received at GEURGE SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respec-tive Offices of the County Clerks of this until further notice. This Lottery, whether viewed in point of the splendour of its capital prizes, or the number which are floating, is undoubtedly superior to any other now drawing in the United States, as will be acknowledged from the following summary, 40.000 DOLLARS

I prize of 20.000 DOLLARS do 10,000 D:)LLARS 2 of 5000, 28 of 1000, 18 of 500, 50 of 100, 96 of 50, 4808 of 10.

The above list of prizes are still un. drawn and all but four are floating from the commencement, and as the prizes only will be drawn, most auspicious prospects are presented to early adventurers.

On the opening of the wheels on Wednesday the 24th inst. the price of tickets will be advanced to $12, and from the unusual demand for tickets and the proposed rapidity of the drawing, the price will probably be still farther advanced, of which due notice will be given-Until which time tick ets and shares in a great variety of numbers may be had for the following low rates, viz:

Distant adventurers who are desirous of early and punctual attention to their orders, as well as speedy returns of the result of their invarients, may enclose the cash to WM C. CONINE Baltimore.

A Desirable Farm for SALE.

The subscriber will dispose of from 300 to 500 acres of the well known FARM, on which he now resides, lying on West River, in Anne Arundel county. This portion has attached to it all the buildings necessary for the accommodation of as many servants as could be advantageously employed in its cultivation, and for the curing of 40 hogsheads of tobacco. About 250 acres of the tract is now in a highly productive state, and the whole can be enriched to almost any extent, as there are inexhaustible banks of oyster shells situated in the most convenient posi tion to the principal fields. He would gladly also dispose of, at very reduced prices, a number of healthy, intelligent, and well brought up SLAVES.

Letters addressed to him at Annapolis, will be promptly, attended to; and those who are desirous of communica ting in person, will findhim at his real dence on West River.
