

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,
Samuel Stevens,
Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.
 Whereas, information has been received by the Executive of said State, that a most atrocious murder was committed on or about the 1st day of April, at Prince-Frederick Town in Calvert county, on a certain Charles L. Dougherty, by George W. Crane, of said county, and that the said Crane has fled from justice. And whereas it is of the first importance to society that perpetrators of such offences should be brought to condign punishment, I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do hereby with the advice and consent of the council offer a reward of

200 DOLLARS
 To any person or persons who shall apprehend the said George W. Crane and deliver him to the sheriff, or in the jail of Anne Arundel county from which he made his escape; provided that the reward hereby offered, shall be in lieu of the same sum offered by William O'Hara Esq late sheriff of Anne Arundel county, upon the escape of said Crane.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Maryland, this tenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five.
SAMUEL STEVENS,
 By command of his Excellency, the Governor.
THOS OULBRETH,
 Clerk of the Council.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SAID GEORGE W. CRANE.
 He is a native of Calvert county, where he has a family. He is about forty five years of age, five feet, seven to nine inches high, rather slender make, thin visage and sharply pointed features, a little bald on the crown of the head, his blue eyes, black hair intermixed with grey.
 Ordered, That the above proclamation be published once a week for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Republican, and Maryland Gazette at Annapolis, the American at Baltimore, the National Intelligencer at Washington city, the Mercantile Advertiser at New York, and the Aurora and Franklin Gazette of Philadelphia.
 Feb. 17. 6v.

Notice is hereby Given,
 That the subscriber has obtained from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, letters of administration on the personal estate of WILLIAM STUART, late of the aforesaid county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to present them legally authenticated, and those indebted to make immediate payment to the subscriber.

DECISIONS
 OF THE
 COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND
 PUBLISHED
 By Subscription.

THE DECISIONS
 OF THE COURT OF APPEALS
 OF MARYLAND.
 To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
 These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1853. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which merit a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
 The price of each number of the Reports will be $1.25, payable on delivery.
 Subscriptions to the above work are received at GEORGE SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.

More's New Market,
 FOR SALE.
 The subscriber will sell at private sale, a tract of land in Anne Arundel county situated on the Head of Severn River, called More's New Market, but better known by the name of Mrs. Urquhart's Tavern. This tract of land combines singular advantages. The Baltimore and Annapolis Road passes through it. The House is well known as an excellent stand for a Tavern, and is with the other improvements in good repair. It is in fact a most desirable situation either for a farm or Tavern stand. To a good purchaser the terms of sale will be made satisfactory and accommodating by the subscriber, living about four miles from the premises.

 All persons intending to adventure in this Lottery, are advised to make immediate application for the capital prizes of $10,000, 5,000, 2,500, 2,000, 1,412, 1,000, 1,000, 1,000, 1,000, 500, 100, &c lest by a little delay they may be unable to procure a single ticket, and the price of them, if any remain unsold, must soon be advanced to 5 dollars each.

 The second drawing will take place on Wednesday next, the 24th inst. and WILL BE CONTINUED every week until further notice. This Lottery, whether viewed in point of the splendour of its capital prizes, or the number which are floating, is undoubtedly superior to any other now drawing in the United States, as will be acknowledged from the following summary, viz:
 1 prize of 40,000 DOLLARS
 1 do 20,000 DOLLARS
 1 do 10,000 DOLLARS

 The above list of prizes are still undrawn and all but four are floating from the commencement, and as the prizes only will be drawn, most auspicious prospects are presented to early adventurers.
 On the opening of the wheels on Wednesday the 24th inst. the price of tickets will be advanced to $12, and from the unusual demand for tickets and the proposed rapidity of the drawing, the price will probably be still farther advanced, of which due notice will be given—Until which time tickets and shares in a great variety of numbers may be had for the following low rates, viz:

About 250 acres of the tract is now in a highly productive state, and the whole can be enriched to almost any extent, as there are inexhaustible banks of oyster shells situated in the most convenient position to the principal fields. Three of these farms are adjacent to each other, and within 3 miles of some of the most respectable farmers in that state; the other lays on the river Scioto, about ten miles from the other land, on a prairie. The tenants can have them for seven years, by paying the assessment, say five dollars per year, and being bound to clear and inclose from five to 25 acres of land each year. For further particulars apply to Mr Charles Alexander Gambel, who will go on with those disposed to rent or buy, and show the premises.

CRITICAL STUDY AND KNOWLEDGE
OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

By THOMAS HARTWELL HORNE, M. A.
 It will be printed from the London Edition of 1823, in four very large octavo volumes; it will contain numerous maps and fac similes of biblical manuscripts, and in short every thing that is contained in that edition, and will be very neatly printed on good paper. The first London edition of this work was published in 1818. The second in 1821, the third in 1822, the fourth in 1823. So great a sale of so large a work on such a subject, is the best evidence that can be offered of its value. There has yet been no American edition.

Vol. I. contains a Critical Inquiry into the Genuineness, Authenticity, Corrupted Preservation, and inspiration of the Holy Scriptures.
 Vol. II. In two parts, treats, first on sacred Criticism; including an Historical and Critical Account of the Original Languages of Scripture, and of the Cognate or kindred Dialects; an account (with numerous Fac Similes) of the principal manuscripts of the Old and New Testaments, &c. &c. In this part of the work, the History of the Authorised English Version of the Bible is particularly considered; the various Readings, the Quotations from the Old Testament in the New, the Poetry of the Hebrews and Harmonies of the Scriptures, form a portion of this part.

Second Part.—Of the Interpretation of the Scriptures. Subsidiary Means for ascertaining the Sense of Scripture, 1. Analogy of Languages, Analogy of Scripture; Scholia and Glossaries; Subject-matter, Context, Scope, Historical Circumstances, and Christian Writers.
 These discussions are followed by an application of the preceding principles—to the Historical Interpretation of the Sacred Writings; the Interpretation of the Figurative Language of Scripture; the Spiritual Interpretation of the Scriptures; the Interpretation of Prophecy; of Types, of the Doctrinal and Moral Parts of Scripture, of Promises and Threatenings there contained; and the Inferential and practical Reading of the Sacred Writings.

Vol. III. contains an Outline of the Historical and Physical Geography of the Holy Land. The Political and Military Affairs of the Jewish and other Nations incidentally mentioned in the Scriptures. Sacred Antiquities of the Jews. The Domestic Antiquities of the Private Life, Manners, Customs, Amusements, &c. of the Jews and other nations incidentally mentioned in the Scriptures.
 Vol. IV. is appropriated to the Analysis of Scripture.
 Price $12—After publication the Price will be sixteen dollars.
