B. LITTLE,
 No. 53, Chesnut street, Philadelphia, Has in Press,
AN INTRODUCTION TO THE CRITICAL STUDY AND KNOWLEDGE OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.
 BY THOMAS HARTWELL HORNE, M. A.

It will be printed from the London Edition of 1823 in four very large octavo volumes, it will contain numerous maps and fac similes of biblical manuscripts, and in short every thing that is contained in that edition, and will be very neatly printed on good paper. The first London edition of this work was published in 1818, the second in 1821, the third in 1822, the fourth in 1823. So great a sale of so large a work on such a subject, is the best evidence that can be offered of its value. There has yet been no American edition.

Vol. I. contains a Critical Inquiry into the Genuine, Authenticity, Incorrupt Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures.
 Vol. II. In two parts, treats, first on Sacred Criticism; including an Historical and Critical Account of the Original Languages of Scripture, and of the Cognate or kindred Dialects; an account (with numerous Fac Similes) of the principal manuscripts of the Old and New Testaments, &c. &c. In this part of the work, the History of the Authorized English Version of the Bible is particularly considered. The various Readings, the Quotations from the Old Testament in the New, the Poetry of the Hebrews and Hebrews of the Scriptures, form a portion of this part.
 Second Part—Of the Interpretation of the Scriptures. Subsidiary Means for ascertaining the Sense of Scripture, viz. Analogy of Languages, Analogy of Scripture; Scholia and Glossaries; Subject-matter, Context, Scope, Historical Circumstances, and Christian Writers.

These discussions are followed by the application of the preceding principles to the Historical Interpretation of the Sacred Writings; the Interpretation of the Figurative Language of Scripture; the Spiritual Interpretation of the Scriptures; the Interpretation of Prophecy; of Types, of the Doctrinal and Moral Parts of Scripture, of the Promises and Threatenings there contained; and the Inferential and practical Heading of the Sacred Writings.

Vol. III. contains an Outline of the Historical and Physical Geography of the Holy Land. The Political and Military Affairs of the Jewish and other Nations incidentally mentioned in the Scriptures. Sacred Antiquities of the Jews. The Domestic Antiquities, the Private Life, Manners, Customs, Amusements, &c. of the Jews and other Nations incidentally mentioned in the Scriptures.

Vol. IV. is appropriated to the Analysis of Scripture.
 Price $12—After publication of Price will be sixteen dollars.
 January 1825.
 Subscriptions received for the work at the Office of the Maryland Gazette.

ORDERED. That the supplement to the militia law, passed at the last session of the legislature, be published once a week for three successive weeks, in the two Annapolis papers, the Patriot, American, and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; Grievous' and Herbert's paper at Hagerstown; and Political Examiner, at Fredericktown; Bond of Union, at Belle Air; Star at Easton, Eastern Shore Gazette, and the National Intelligencer.
 By order,
THOMAS CULRETH, Clk.
An Additional Supplement to the Act, entitled, An Act to Regulate and Discipline the Militia of this State.
 [Passed 26th Feb. 1825]

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each brigade-major, or commanding officer of a brigade, shall appoint a day of meeting, exercise and inspection, in the month of September each year, in regiment or battalion; and it shall be the duty of the brigade-inspector to attend and inspect the same, giving thirty days previous notice thereof to the commanding officers of regiments, extra battalions, or independent volunteer companies.
 Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the brigade-inspector, after such meeting, report to the general commanding officer, the efficient strength, equipment and condition of each regiment or battalion, designating the strength and condition of each company; the brigade-inspector to make said report within two weeks after such meeting, under a penalty not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars, nor less than five dollars, to be inflicted by a court-martial, under such provisions as this act prescribes.
 Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all other meetings and musters of the militia are dispensed with, excepting one annual meeting of the commissioned officers for drill and exercise, which meeting shall be on the last Saturday in April at ten o'clock, A. M. and two company meetings annually due in the month of May and one in the month of August; the captains or commanding officers of companies shall, under the existing penalties, appoint the day of such meeting.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That articles fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth, constituting general courts-martial, division, brigade, regimental and extra battalion courts-martial, are hereby repealed.
 Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That brigade-generals commanding a brigade, (except in the third division of Maryland militia, where the major-general will command) shall appoint general courts-martial whenever necessary, and all commissioned officers within their respective commands shall be subject to this duty.
 Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That general courts-martial shall consist of any number of commissioned officers from five to thirteen, inclusively, the larger number to be preferred when that number can be convened or obtained with convenience, and a majority of every general court-martial shall consist of officers superior in rank to the officer to be tried before such court-martial, whenever practicable.
 Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That no sentence of a court-martial shall be carried into execution, until after the whole proceedings shall have been laid before the officer ordering the same, or in case of his removal, the officer commanding for the time being; nor shall any sentence, extending to the cashiering of any commissioned officer, be carried into execution, until the whole proceedings shall have been transmitted to the governor of this state, for his confirmation or disapproval, the governor communicating his decision on such proceedings to the officer from whom they were transmitted; all other sentences to be confirmed by the officer ordering the court-martial.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That every officer commanding a regiment or extra battalion, may appoint courts-martial, to consist of not less than five commissioned officers, for the trial and punishment of minor offences, to inflict fines, and decide finally upon their proceedings; but in no case can an officer or private in the militia, be punished or fined for any neglect of duty, without having an opportunity to appear before a court-martial to allege a reasonable excuse for the same.
 Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That no private shall be fined more than one dollar for non-attendance at parade.
 Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the commanding officer ordering a court-martial, shall appoint the president thereof, and also some suitable person as judge advocate or recorder, whose duty it shall be to keep a fair and impartial record of said proceedings, and shall transmit the same, after being signed by the president thereof, to the commanding officer ordering said court-martial, for his approval or condemnation; the same status of qualification to be administered to the officers composing the court-martial, and the same rules of organization and proceeding as in the courts-martial of the United States army.
 Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That every officer authorised to order a court-martial, shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment ordered by said court, except the sentence of cashiering an officer in every general court-martial, not less than two-thirds of the members present must agree in every sentence, otherwise the person charged must be acquitted.
 Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the party tried by any court-martial, shall upon demand thereof, made by himself, be entitled to a copy of the sentence and proceedings of such court.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That the president of every court-martial is authorised to issue subpoenas to produce the attendance of witnesses; and every court-martial shall have power and authority to issue attachment, directed to such person as they may appoint, against all & every person or persons who shall neglect or refuse on being duly summoned to attend, to give evidence, and fine such person in any sum not exceeding ten dollars; the person serving such attachment to be compensated as the court may deem reasonable; all fines so collected, after defraying such expenses, to be retained by the commanding officer for the payment of incidental expenses.
 Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That any officer who shall disobey the orders of his commanding officer under the provisions of the militia laws of this state, or who shall neglect or refuse to attend any court-martial at the time and place appointed, shall be cashiered the service, or fined at the discretion of a court-martial, in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, nor less than five dollars, unless he can give a reasonable excuse to the court for such nonattendance or neglect; any officer of the militia who shall hereafter disobey any orders from the adjutant-general's office, authorised by the commander in chief, shall be liable to the penalties of this law.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the executive of this state shall, whenever he may deem it expedient for the public service, organize and appoint battalions and regiments of volunteer corps, whenever application for such is made under the sanction of the general commanding, where said battalions or regiments are raised and to be organized.
 Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That the officer ordering a court-martial shall be the plaintiff in all proceedings for the recovery of fines and forfeitures imposed under the act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state, and the several supplements thereto; and that the decision of a court-martial shall be final and conclusive as to the amount of fine and forfeitures.
 Sec. 17. And be it enacted, That any person removing into a county or district, shall be liable to the provisions and penalties of the militia laws of this state, provided they be enrolled, and have one week's previous notice given of such meeting.
 Sec. 18. And be it enacted, That it shall hereafter be the duty of each captain or commander of a company that has received arms and accoutrements from the executive of this state, to report annually, by the first day of November, the condition and number of the same to the adjutant-general of this state, under a penalty not exceeding thirty dollars, nor less than five dollars.
 Sec. 19. And be it enacted, That the captain of any uniform company of the militia of this state, may adopt such uniform as may be determined on by said company.
 Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That the militia of Allegany county shall be exempt from the operation of this act, so far as it relates to or prescribes the mode of holding brigade, regimental or battalion musters or meetings, or general or regimental court-martial, and from the operation of the third section of this act, so far as it requires an annual meeting of the commissioned officers for drill and exercise.
 Sec. 21. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts which are inconsistent with, or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

 [Passed 26th Feb. 1825]

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each brigade-major, or commanding officer of a brigade, shall appoint a day of meeting, exercise and inspection, in the month of September each year, in regiment or battalion; and it shall be the duty of the brigade-inspector to attend and inspect the same, giving thirty days previous notice thereof to the commanding officers of regiments, extra battalions, or independent volunteer companies.
 Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the brigade-inspector, after such meeting, report to the general commanding officer, the efficient strength, equipment and condition of each regiment or battalion, designating the strength and condition of each company; the brigade-inspector to make said report within two weeks after such meeting, under a penalty not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars, nor less than five dollars, to be inflicted by a court-martial, under such provisions as this act prescribes.
 Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all other meetings and musters of the militia are dispensed with, excepting one annual meeting of the commissioned officers for drill and exercise, which meeting shall be on the last Saturday in April at ten o'clock, A. M. and two company meetings annually due in the month of May and one in the month of August; the captains or commanding officers of companies shall, under the existing penalties, appoint the day of such meeting.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That articles fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth, constituting general courts-martial, division, brigade, regimental and extra battalion courts-martial, are hereby repealed.
 Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That brigade-generals commanding a brigade, (except in the third division of Maryland militia, where the major-general will command) shall appoint general courts-martial whenever necessary, and all commissioned officers within their respective commands shall be subject to this duty.
 Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That general courts-martial shall consist of any number of commissioned officers from five to thirteen, inclusively, the larger number to be preferred when that number can be convened or obtained with convenience, and a majority of every general court-martial shall consist of officers superior in rank to the officer to be tried before such court-martial, whenever practicable.
 Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That no sentence of a court-martial shall be carried into execution, until after the whole proceedings shall have been laid before the officer ordering the same, or in case of his removal, the officer commanding for the time being; nor shall any sentence, extending to the cashiering of any commissioned officer, be carried into execution, until the whole proceedings shall have been transmitted to the governor of this state, for his confirmation or disapproval, the governor communicating his decision on such proceedings to the officer from whom they were transmitted; all other sentences to be confirmed by the officer ordering the court-martial.
