THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,

To be Reported by Thomas Harris. Esquire, Cierk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire. Attorney at Law.

These Decis ons willform a continuation of the first volume of Reports already pub-lished by Messa. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the vear 100. It is proposed to subjish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one numbers, each to contain not less than one numbered and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will con-The last number of each volume will contain a folland complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, presented wantages worch give it a deer set preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be outlighted in a vear, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

The price of each number of the Reports will $1.25, payable on delivery.

$5- JODE OF DRAWING_The Numbers will be put into one whee as u-ual-and in the other wheel will be put the prizes above the denoming inition of I wo potters, and the draw ing to progress in the usual manner The 10,000 prizes of $2 will be awar ded to the odd or even Numbers o the Lottery (18 the case may be) de pendent on the drawing of the Capi tal Prize of Twenty thousand Dollars that is to say, if the 20,000 dollar proze should come out to an Odd Number, then every odd Number in the Scheme will be entitled to a $2 If the 20,000 notlar prize should c me out to an Even Number, then all the Even Numbers in the Scheme will be each entitled to a prize of 52.

COUI Numbers are those en ding with 1, 3 5, 7 or 9.

Sonven Numbers are those en ding with 2. 4, 6, 8 or 0.

This mode of drawing not only enables the Commissionars to complete the whole Lettery in One Drawing, but has the great advantage or distri buting the small prizes regularly to every alternate number in the scheme so that the holder of two shares of ticke's (one odd & one even number) will be certain of obtaining at least one prize, and in the same ratio for any greater quantity.

A Ticket dans ng a superior prize in this scheme, is not restricted from drawing an interior one also.

The drawing win take place in the

City of Battimore on Wednesday the 18th of MAY, and will finted on the same day. A ve short period therefore intervening before the time of drawing will ar rive -adventurers at a distance should avail themselves of the very superi r advantages offered by the scheme and send on their orders without de av they will remark the low rate of tick ers-the very tritling risk to be run. (there not being one Blank to a prize) and that the cipital prize of twenty hitherto unprecedented for so small a sum invested—above all however, is the certainty of obtaining at least one prize by the purchase of two tick. ets or two share--- (one odd and one even number) and in the same ratio of certainty in the purchase of a greater number of tickets or shares.

The limits of an advertisement do not permit a detail of the various and many advantages in this improved mode of Lottery-they will naturally present themselves to the adventurer on examination of the scheme, to scrutiny of which, we invite their at-
