AN INTRODUCTION to the
CRITICAL STUDY AND KNOWLEDGE
OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.
BY THOMAS HARTWELL HORNE, M. A.
It will be printed from the London edition of 1823, in four very large octavo volumes, it will contain numerous maps and fac similes of biblical manuscripts, and in short every thing that is contained in that edition, and will be very neatly printed on good paper. The first London edition of this work was published in 1818, the second in 1821, the third in 1822, the fourth in 1823. So great a sale of so large a work on such a subject, is the best evidence that can be offered of its value. There has yet been no American edition.
Vol. I contains a Critical Inquiry into the Genuineness, Authenticity, Uncorrupted Preservation, and Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures.
Vol. II in two parts, treats, first on Sacred Criticism; including an Historical and Critical Account of the Original Languages of Scripture, and of the Cognate or kindred Dialects; and an Account (with numerous Fac Similes) of the principal manuscripts of the Old and New Testaments, &c. &c. In this part of the work, the History of the Authorized English Version of the Bible is particularly considered. The various Readings, the Quotations from the Old Testament in the New, the Poetry of the Hebrews and Harmonies of the Scriptures, form a portion of this part.
Second Part.—Of the Interpretation of the Scriptures. Subsidiary Means for ascertaining the Sense of Scripture, viz. Analogy of Languages, Analogy of Scripture; Scholia and Glossaries; Subject-matter, Context, Scope, Historical Circumstances, and Christian Writers.
These discussions are followed by the application of the preceding principles—to the Historical Interpretation of the Sacred Writings; the Interpretation of the Figurative Language of Scripture; the Spiritual Interpretation of the Scriptures; the Interpretation of Prophecy; of Types, of the Doctrinal and Moral Parts of Scripture, of the Promises and Threatenings therein contained; and the Inferential and Practical Reading of the Sacred Writings.
Vol. III contains an Outline of the Historical and Physical Geography of the Holy Land. The Political and Military Affairs of the Jewish and other Nations incidentally mentioned in the Scriptures. Sacred Antiquities of the Jews. The Domestic Antiquities, or the Private Life, Manners, Customs, Amusements, &c. of the Jews and other Nations incidentally mentioned in the Scriptures.
Vol. IV is appropriated to the Analysis of Scripture.
Price $12.—After publication the Price will be sixteen dollars.
January 1825.

Proposals
BY FRANCIS WIGGINS,
For Publishing by Subscription,
THE RISE AND PROGRESS OF
METHODISM IN NORTH-AMERICA.
BY JOHN POTTS,
Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Trenton, New Jersey.

The proposed work is a concise and condensed history of Methodism in this country, from its rise to the present time, comprising an account of its introduction and establishment—the annual increase and occasional declension in its membership—the most important changes and improvements that have been made, from time to time, in its ecclesiastical polity—extraordinary revivals of religion, with the most striking incidents that have attended them—sketches of the character of those preachers who have died in the travelling connexion—a general view of the present state and prospects of Methodism, &c. &c.
The character and abilities of the author—his indefatigable exertions to obtain correct information from every accessible source—the interesting subject of the proposed work—the necessity for such a work at the present time, and the moderate price at which it is offered, all go to induce the hope that it will be liberally patronized by the members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and by the religious public generally.

CONDITIONS.
I. The History of Methodism will be comprised in a duodecimo volume, containing not less than 300 pages. It will be neatly printed on good paper, and substantially bound in sheep, and lettered.
II. The work will be delivered to subscribers at One Dollar a copy.
III. Persons who subscribe and pay for five copies, shall be entitled to the sixth. Agents will be allowed twenty per cent, and are requested to forward the names of subscribers, or the number of copies subscribed for, by the first day of September next, as it is contemplated to commence the work at that time, if sufficient encouragement is received.
Trenton, (New Jersey,) May 4, 1825.
IV. Agents will shortly be appointed in the principal cities and towns in the United States.

THE DECISIONS
OF THE COURT OF APPEALS
OF MARYLAND,
To be Reported by Thomas Harris,
Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson,
Esquire, Attorney at Law.
These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as no more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.
TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $25, payable on delivery.
Subscriptions to the above Work are received at GEORGE SHAW'S Store, in the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.
RAGS.
Clean Linen and Cotton Rags, will be purchased at the Store of the subscriber,
