A letter from Tampico of the 9th ult received at New York, states that the Congress of Puebla has petitioned the Sovereign Congress at Mexico, to prohibit the importation of all coarse weollen and cotton fabrics, for the purpose of encouraging their own manufactures. Advices from the city of Mexico to the last of April state, that the agents of the Holy Alliance in that capital have caused much excitement relative to the treaty which has been signed in England, and was then under deliberation in the Mexican Congress. Secret articles of this treaty were reported to contain the cession of the Californias to England, and the grant of exclusive privileges in trade.
