100 Dollars Reward.
Ran away on the 13th instant from the farm of Judge Johns on West River, a Negro Man who calls himself CHARLES JOHNSON, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high; had on when he went off, no other clothing but a pair of coarse linen shirt and trousers, but will doubtless procure other clothes, as he had several suits at his Wife's, who is the property of V. Maxey esq. he was seen there the day he ran off. I believe he has a scar just above his eyes, and a large mole on his hip, is a likely looking fellow, and wears his wool combed and raised on the top of his head. He also wears a watch. A reward of Fifty Dollars will be given if taken in the state, and the above reward if apprehended out of the state.

Valuable Land FOR SALE.
By virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, will be disposed of at public sale, on Thursday the 8th day of September, if fair, if not on the next fair day thereafter, the farm of the late John Gibson, esquire, called

"The Seven Mountains."
This property is situate in Anne Arundel county, on the north side of Magothy river, and immediately on the shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about seventeen miles from Baltimore and eight from Annapolis. The soil is fertile and abundantly stocked with timber, and is peculiarly well adapted to the culture of Indian corn and tobacco, and all the products of a garden. It bears every variety of the best and earliest vegetables, and its proximity to Baltimore, and the convenient water transportation which its situation affords, give it advantages as a market farm, that few places possess. It abounds with delicious grapes and the choicest grafted fruit trees in full bearing. These have been collected with great care, and are now in a flourishing condition. The water, by which the place is almost surrounded, and a fishpond that has been made at considerable expense, afford fish and crabs in the utmost abundance; and there is always during the winter, a plentiful supply of waterfowl, and the other ordinary game of the country. There are also on the farm a few fallow deer. Besides the advantages which this estate offers to persons who derive their support from agricultural pursuits, the extraordinary beauty of the situation, and the facilities which it furnishes for the enjoyment of rural sports, would render it a delightful retreat for a man of fortune.

The land will, for the accommodation of purchasers, be divided into parcels of about two hundred and fifty acres each; every part being bounded on one side by the water.
The terms of sale are one third cash, and the residue to be paid in three equal annual instalments. Bonds with approved security, will be required for the payment of that portion of the purchase money for which credit is allowed. On the payment of the whole purchase money, conveyances of the land will be executed.
The sale will take place on the premises. Sale to take place at 12 o'clock.

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND PUBLISHED By Subscription.
THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,
To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Beverly Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.
TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.
Subscriptions to the above Work are received at GEORGE SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state.
