Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale, sundry parcels of valuable property; that is to say, the house in which he resides, with sundry highly improved lots adjoining thereto, with every and all convenient out houses, a young and thriving orchard of apples, and other fruit trees of superior kinds. The quantity of land thus offered for sale, with the house, garden, and other improvements, contain about thirty acres; two separately enclosed lots, one of three, and the other of six acres, are at this time set with clover. He likewise offers for sale twelve lots of a quarter of an acre each, on the main street leading into the city of Annapolis; these lots will be sold together or to suit purchasers, as may be desired. He also offers for sale, in one tract, about one hundred and seventy acres and adjoining the above lots and improvements, on which is one convenient barn, with sheds around it nearly in the centre of said 170 acres, and on which is a thriving young apple orchard, with other well selected fruit trees, and near to which are several excellent springs of water, and an eminence that is esteemed an excellent site for a dwelling house, commanding a full view of the Chesapeake Bay, and the entrance to the harbour of Annapolis; and on this tract of land there is a good mill seat, and excellent clay for bricks, it having been examined and pronounced to be equal to the clay used for that purpose in the city of Baltimore. Likewise a part of a tract of land, containing about 150 acres, adjoining the estate of Lewis Neth, Esq. on which is a good meadow, an abundance of fire wood, and chestnut rail timber. All which will be sold on accommodating terms. Persons inclined to purchase are invited to examine the premises. For terms apply to J. WIS DUVALL.

100 Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber's Farm, on the Head of South River, in Anne Arundel county, on the 30th May, a Negro Man CHARLES, who calls himself Charles Butler, he is about 26 years of age, six feet one inch high, the clothing he had on when he absconded, was a domestic cloth coat and osenbury shirt and trousers, and old wool hat. I will give the above reward, and all reasonable charges if brought home, or secured in any goal so that I get him again. THOMAS SNOWDEN.

Land for Sale.

I would sell the Plantation of which I now reside, containing two hundred and fifty acres of fertile land, of a soil highly susceptible of improvement by clover and plaster, and which is proved to be eminently adapted to the production of tobacco of the finest quality. It lies within two miles of a public landing on Hearing Bay, from which two regular packets ply weekly to Baltimore, presenting an easy and speedy transportation of produce to that market. There are on this place a convenient Dwelling House, with the necessary Out Buildings, and an abundance of fire wood and rail stuff, with a sufficiency of meadow land. This place is high and healthy, abounds in springs of excellent water, in an agreeable neighbourhood, and convenient to several places of public worship. It produces the ordinary grains of the country to good advantage, and is within six miles of the Patuxent River. The terms would be accommodated. H. O'REILLY.

Sept. 15.

Two Valuable Farms FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he now resides, containing 1095 and a half acres, under good cultivation, and subject to the growth of fine tobacco, Indian Corn, grain of all kinds, and well adapted to clover and plaster, on which are all buildings necessary to the same. Also a farm on Elk Ridge, immediately joining the mill seat of the late Richard Owings, containing 400 acres, and well adapted to the growth of any produce whatever. The improvements consist of a good dwelling house and kitchen, a barn, stable, &c.

It is deemed unnecessary to give any further description of the above properties, as any person wishing to purchase, can view the same by applying to Mr Henry Owings, an Elk Ridge, or to the subscriber, at his residence at Holland's Island. Samuel Owings of Richd. April 7.

J. J. Speed

Will hereafter attend the Courts of the Third Judicial District, to wit: those of Anne Arundel, Montgomery, and Calvert counties, in each of which, as well as in the Court of Chancery, and Court of Appeals, at Annapolis, and the United States Courts for the District of Maryland, he will attend to professional business. Sept. 22.

Take Notice.

I forewarn all persons from hunting on my premises from this time forward, with either gun or gun. Having suffered some loss by gunning, I am determined to put the law in force against all such offenders without respect to persons.
