Sept. 15, 1825.

Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale, sundry parcels of valuable property; that is to say, the house in which he now resides, with sundry highly improved lots adjoining thereto, with every and all convenient out houses, a young and thriving orchard of apples, and other fruit trees of superior kinds. The quantity of land thus offered for sale, with the house, garden, and other improvements, contain about thirty acres; two separately enclosed lots, one of three, and the other of six acres, are at this time set with clover. He likewise offers for sale twelve lots of a quarter of an acre each, on the main street leading into the city of Annapolis; these lots will be sold together or to suit purchasers, as may be desired. He also offers for sale, in one tract, about one hundred and seventy acres and adjoining the above lots and improvements, on which is one convenient barn, with sheds around it nearly in the centre of said 170 acres, and on which is a thriving young apple orchard, with other well selected fruit trees, and near to which are several excellent springs of water, and an eminence that is esteemed an excellent site for a dwelling house, commanding a full view of the Chesapeake Bay, and the entrance to the harbor of Annapolis; and on this tract of land there is a good mill seat, and excellent clay for bricks, it having been examined and pronounced to be equal to the clay used for that purpose in the city of Baltimore. Likewise part of a tract of land, containing about 180 acres, adjoining the estate of Lewis Neth, Esq. on which is a good meadow, an abundance of fire wood, and excellent rail timber. All which will be sold on accommodating terms. Persons inclined to purchase are invited to examine for themselves. For terms apply to LEWIS DUVAL.
