SALE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Richard H. Harwood, late of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale a tract of land, containing about 412 acres, (now in the occupation of John Sullivan, Esquire.) lying on Elk Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, about three miles above the Waterloo Tavern. The roads from Waterloo Tavern, up the country, and from Owen's Mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that this land is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses, a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the dwelling, and an ice-house. The terms will be accommodating, and will be made known, on application to the subscribers.

In Chancery, September Term, 825. Mary Hesselius, vs.

James Black. The object of the bill in this case is to obtain a decree for the sa of a house and lot in Old-Town, Allegany county, for the payment of the balance of the purchase money due for said property. property.
The bill states that the General Assembly of Maryland, at December session 1815, passed an act authori sing the complainant to sell the Real Estate in Allegany county, whereof John Hesselius died possessed; that the complainant have complained. the complainant, having complied with all previous requisites of said act; on the twelfth day of 4 pril 1817, sold at public auction, to the defendant, who was the highest bidder, for the sum of eight lundred dollars, hours and let situate in Old Town. house and lot situate in Old-Town, Allegany county, the same being part the of September last by two men; of the real estate which she was authorised by the aforesaid act to dis-pose of; that by the terms of sale the defendant was to may the purchase money in three equal annual instal-ments, with interest from the day of sale; that he was put into immediate possession of said property, and has ever since occupied it, or received the rents, issues, and profits thereof, and money, and the interest thereon, still remains due and unpaid, except the the sum of fifty two dollars and thirty cents, which was paid in part of the interest due on said purchase money.

It has been farther represented by the petition of the complainant, that the defendant has, since the filing the aforesaid bill removed from the state of Maryland and is at this time a re-sident of the state of Ohio.

It is thereupon this third day of November 1825, adjudged, ordered and decreed, that the complainant give notice, to the said absent defendant, by publication in some newspaper for four weeks, before the third day of December next, to appear in this court either in person or by a solici-tor, and file an answer to said bill on or before third day of March next, otherwise the said bill be taken pro-

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SAMUEL STEVENS, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND,

A Proclamation. WHEREAS, authentic information has been lodged in the Executive department of this State, that a most atrocious burglary and robbery was committed on the night of the 13th breaking into the house of Adam Swigart, of Frederick county, an in-firm old man with only his wife and a small grand child, and robbing him of one hundred and fifty dollars in specie, and sundry articles of clothing. after tying the said Swigart and his wife together And whereas a certain Henry Schnebly lately discharged from the Penitentiary, being strongly suspected of being one of said robbers, was arrested at his residence in Washington county, on the 21st September last, by Jacob Glazier a constable, by virtue of a state warrant for that purpose after a severe and dangerous struggle between the said constable and an assistant who accompanied in and the said Henry Schnebly, his wife, two daughters and a son-in law; the said Schne-bly's clothes being torn to rags in the scuffle he begged permission to change them; that whilst in the chamber for that purpose with the said constable, and after the prisoner had put on a shirt and pair of shoes, a double barrel gun was thrust through a small glass window, by some one of the family, and was seized by the prisoner, cocked and presented at the said constable, so suddenly that he had not the power to prevent it; at which crisis the whole family railied, and with the advantages thus obtained effected his rescue, and forced the said constable and his assistant to retire; that the character of the said Schnebly is so desperate, no assistance of any kind to retake him could be prosured n the immediate neighbourhood, on account of fear of the said Schnebly and his family. And whereas, it is issued out of Anne Arundel county of the first importance to the peace court, and to me directed, against John and well being of society, that such Governor of Maryland, have thought proper to issue this my PROCLA-MATION and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council offer a reward of

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS To any person or persons who shall apprehend the said Henry Schnebly, and cause him to be committed rand delivered to the custody of the sher-iff of Frederick County. Given under my hand
