W. C. CONINE does himself the pleasure of presenting to his numerous kind friends and patrons the scheme of the first Lottery to be drawn in this city, which is the Grand Consolidated State Lottery of Maryland, No. 2, wherein he anticipates with liberal encouragement, as usual, to have the satisfaction of distributing among adventurers a large proportion of the capital prizes therein.

BRILLIANT & MAGNIFICENT SCHEME.

Table with 2 columns: Prize amount and number of tickets. Includes prizes of $100,000, $30,000, $20,000, $10,000, $5,000, $1,000, $500, $200, $100, $50, $25, $10, $5, $2, $1.

Amounting in all to the splendid sum of $308,000.

The whole to be finished in one drawing on WEDNESDAY the 15th February 1825, under the superintendence of the commissioners appointed by the Governor & Council.

MODE OF DRAWING.—The numbers will be put into one wheel as usual—and in another wheel will be put the prizes above the denomination of 10 Dollars, and the drawing to progress in the usual manner. The 10,000 Prizes of $10 will be awarded to the tickets, the numbers of which end with the terminating figure of either of the three first drawn numbers from the wheel of different terminations.

We will suppose that Number 10101 to be the first drawn No. Then every Ticket in the Lottery ending with the figure (1) will be entitled to a prize of $10; the next number, say every number ending with (0) will also be entitled to a prize of $10—and in like manner, suppose that No. 31,113, be the third drawn number from the wheel, then all the tickets in the scheme ending with the figure 3, will also be entitled to a prize of $10 each in addition to any other prize they may have drawn.

This mode of Drawing will permit the whole Lottery to be completed at ONE DRAWING ONLY—and a Ticket Drawing a superior Prize will not be restricted from drawing an inferior one also. Many tickets will therefore necessarily obtain two prizes each!

PRIZES payable in cash sixty days after the drawing, subject to the usual deduction of 15 per cent.

LOST

A COUPLE OF GOLD BEALS. Containing a Gold Ring. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving them with Mr. Wm. M. Parlin, Dec. 1.

Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale, sundry parcels of valuable property; that is to say, the house in which he now resides, with sundry highly improved lots adjoining thereto, with every and all convenient out houses, a young and thriving orchard of apples, and other fruit trees of superior kinds. The quantity of land thus offered for sale, with the house, garden, and other improvements, contain about thirty acres; two separately enclosed lots, one of three, and the other of six acres, are at this time set with clover. He likewise offers for sale twelve lots of a quarter of an acre each, on the main street leading into the city of Annapolis; these lots will be sold together or to suit purchasers, as may be desired. He also offers for sale, in one tract, about one hundred and seventy acres and adjoining the above lots and improvements, on which is one convenient barn, with sheds around it nearly in the centre of said 170 acres, and on which is a thriving young apple orchard, with other well selected fruit trees, and near to which are several excellent springs of water, and an eminence that is esteemed an excellent site for a dwelling house, commanding a full view of the Chesapeake Bay, and the entrance to the harbour of Annapolis; and on this tract of land there is a good mill seat, and excellent clay for bricks, it having been examined and pronounced to be equal to the clay used for that purpose in the city of Baltimore. Likewise part of a tract of land, containing about 150 acres adjoining the estate of Lewis Neth. Esq. on which is a good meadow, an abundance of fire wood, and chestnut rail timber. All which will be sold on accommodating terms. Persons inclined to purchase are invited to examine the premises. For terms apply to

Portland Manor FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale Portland Manor, the residence of the late Bennett Darnall, Esq. deceased. This estate lies in Anne Arundel county, state of Maryland, within about four or five miles of Derring Bay, from whence regular packets ply constantly to and from Baltimore, and where all kinds of produce meet with a ready market. This farm contains about 300 acres of valuable fertile land, in an excellent state of cultivation, and well adapted to the growth of Wheat, Corn and Tobacco, and Plaster of Paris acts with excellent effect. The buildings consist of a large framed dwelling house, out of repair, four tobacco houses, also out of repair, a smoke house, and two corn Houses, an good order, sundry negro quarters, old and out of repair, a paved yard and garden attached to the dwelling house, in tolerable good order.

ALSO one other tract adjoining the above mentioned tract, called "Barkhead's Parcels," containing 112 acres of land more or less, a part of which is in an excellent state of improvement, capable of producing crops of any description; there are no houses upon this tract.

ALSO one other tract, lying about one mile distant from the last mentioned tract, called the "Addition to Saint Jerome's," containing about eighty-two and a half acres of land more or less. This tract is unimproved, and covered with scrub pine, there can be made a valuable meadow with little expense.

ALSO one other tract called "Portland Manor," distant from the first mentioned estate about two miles, and containing about 473 acres of land more or less, the soil of which is naturally good, and is capable of improvement by the use of Clover and Plaster. There are upon this land a large fifty feet tobacco house, a corn house and quarter, a nearly new. This tract contains a sufficiency of wood and iron Timber for any exigencies of the estate, and would be a valuable auxiliary to the first mentioned estate, which is scarce of wood and timber.

ALSO a lot of ground in Pig Point, the extent of which I have not been able exactly to ascertain, but understand that it bounds on an excellent fishing landing upon the Patuxent River, where herring and shad are caught in abundance in their season; there is upon this lot an old stone house, nearly in decay. The whole of this land is offered entire, or will be divided to suit purchasers, provided a sale of the whole estate can be effected by so doing.

There are on the estate sundry superannuated slaves, which must be considered as an encumbrance to, and purchased with the estate, and a will be required of the purchaser that he shall enter into an obligation, conditioned for the maintenance and humane treatment of those slaves in every respect during life.

Should a sale of the land be effected, and not without, I shall proceed to sell the whole of the Stock, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Plantation Utensils, &c. together with whatever Crops may remain in the ground at the time of sale. Crops of small grain will be needed as usual, which will be charged to the purchaser agreeable to valuation.

The whole estate abounds in springs of excellent water, and perhaps is as healthy as any of the neighbouring estates. If this land is not sold at private sale, before the 15th of December next, in which event notice will be given, it will on that day be offered at public sale, at the premises, to the highest bidder. The terms which will be accommodating, to be made known on the day of sale. The purchaser can have possession as soon as the terms are complied with. There is no doubt, but the title to the whole estate is indisputable, and upon the payment of the whole purchase money deeds will be executed.

Robert Welch, of Ben. Shff. June 23.
