Land for Sale.
The subscriber offers for sale, several parcels of valuable property; that is to say, the house in which he now resides, with sundry highly improved adjoining thereto, with every and convenient out houses, a young and rich orchard of apples, and other trees of superior kinds. The whole of land thus offered for sale, is a house, garden, and other improvements, contain about thirty or separately enclosed lots, more or less, and the other of six acres at this time set with clover. He offers for sale twelve lots of an acre each, on the extending into the city of Annapolis; these lots will be sold to suit purchasers, as may be. He also offers for sale, in one lot one hundred and seventy and adjoining the above lots improvements, on which is one acre barn, with sheds around it in the centre of said 170 acres, which is a thriving young orchard, with other well selected trees, and near to which are excellent springs of water, and a site that is esteemed an excellent site for a dwelling house, commanding a full view of the Chesapeake and the entrance to the harbour of Annapolis; and on this tract of land is a good mill seat, and excellent for bricks, it having been examined and pronounced to be equal to the city used for that purpose in the city of Baltimore. Likewise part of a tract of land, containing about 150 acres, adjoining the estate of Lewis Neth, Esq on which is a good meadow, an abundance of fire wood, and chestnut rail timber. All which will be sold on accommodating terms. Persons inclined to purchase are invited to examine for themselves. For terms apply to
JAMES DUVALL.

DECISIONS
OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND
PUBLISHED
By Subscription.
THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,
To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1.25, payable on delivery.
Subscriptions to the above Work are received at GEORGE SHAW'S Store the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state.
TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1.25, payable on delivery.

CO-PARTNERSHIP.
Jones and Lynch.
The Co-partnership of Jones and Lynch, in the Blacksmith's Business, will commence on the 1st day of January, 1826, and continue for such length of time, as may suit the convenience of both parties. It is to be as I Lynch will have the entire superintendance of the shop, (the name in which Aaron Ross now works) and keep the books. Strict attention will be given by him to see that all work executed, shall be done as well as the workmen are capable of doing. The charges shall be moderate. Every quarter of a year, the accounts must be acknowledged in writing by the customers, giving their due bills, and payments made regularly each half year. It is recommended to all persons having work done at this shop, to keep a check book, and send with their work, to have the entries made thereon. No money will be given credit for, for work done, unless paid either to Richard I. Jones, or Thomas I. Lynch, or to their written order. It is their intention to obtain a first rate workman in their shop. Customers and others, are requested not to carry liquor to the shop, or to send for it; and no idlers whatever, will be suffered to lounge about the shop.
All persons indebted to Richard I. Jones for work done at his shop, to the end of this year, are requested to make prompt payment, or to close their accounts by note at short date, Dec. 22, 1825.
