In Chancery.
Charles Carroll, of Carrollton vs Nancy Dulany.
The object of the bill, as filed in this cause, is to obtain a decree for the sale of a moiety of that portion of the city of Annapolis, known and designated by the name of Bloomsbury Square.

The bill represents, that the late Daniel Dulany, and the complainant Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, held, as tenants in common, the said property; that the said Daniel Dulany has many years since, departed this life, leaving his widow, Rebecca Dulany, and three children; that Nancy, one of the said children, and the defendant in this cause, married a Frenchman called Delassair, but from whom she has been divorced, and again taken the name of Nancy Dulany, and is the sole heiress, and only representative of the said Daniel Dulany; that the said Nancy Dulany, and the complainant, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, now hold each a moiety of the said Bloomsbury Square; and that the defendant, Nancy Dulany, resides in the city of London, in the kingdom of Great Britain. It is therefore, this first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, Ordered and adjudged, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the Annapolis newspapers, once in each of three successive weeks, before the first day of March next, give notice to the absent defendant of the substance and object of the bill, that she may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 1st day of June next, to show cause, if any she hath, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

Alexander Miller, PLANTERS' AND FARMERS' AGENT.
Respectfully notifies his friends and others engaged in Agriculture, the first pillar of the State, that he has taken the counting room which he formerly occupied, No 8, Light Street wharf, for the purpose of continuing the domestic produce Commission Business. He is confident that agencies of this kind, which, to fidelity and despatch, unite the all important advantages of experience and capacity, cannot fail to recommend themselves to the embrace of all who have produce, especially Tobacco, to be disposed of to the best advantage. Having devoted his exclusive attention to the business for nearly three years, he can with propriety lay claim to experience, and he flatters himself that it is only necessary to put his services in requisition, to be convinced of his entire ability to their confidence and support.
