MODE OF DRAWING -The numbers will be put into one wheel as usual, and in the other wheel will be put the prizes above the denomination of Four Dollars, and the drawing to progress in the usual manner. The 20,000 prizes of &1 each will be awarded to the odd or even numbers in the Lottery, (as the case may be,) dependent on the drawing of the capital prize of $25,000, that is to say, if the 25, 000 dollar prize should come out to an odd number, then every odd number in the scheme, will be entitled to a four dollar prize; if the 25,000 dollar prize should come out to an even number, then all the even numbers in the scheme will be entitled to a 4 dollar prize.

The odd numbers are those ending with 1, 3, 5, 7, or 9. The even numbers are those ending with 2, 4, 6, 8, or 0.

This mode of drawing not only enables the Commissionera to complete the whole Lottery in one drawing, but has the great advantage of distributing the small prizes regularly to every alternate number in the scheme, so that the holder of two tickets or two shares of tickets, (one odd and even number) will be certain of obtaining at least one prize, and in the same ratio for any greater quantity. A Ticket drawing a superior prize in this scheme is not restricted from drawing an inferior one also—many tickets therefore, will necessarily

DECISIONS

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARY. PUBLISHED By Subscription.

evoletond eur OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

nese Decisions willform a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Se ries of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume The last number of each volume will con-tain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived possesses ad vantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.
